Politics Goes to the Movies Robert Phillip Kolker, 2018 Politics Goes to the Movies introduces the topic of political representation and ideology by analyzing some of the most important politically themed films across the history of cinema in a refreshing and concise volume Offering a survey of political cinema from 1915 to present day topics include propaganda Communism Fascism revolutionary cinema and contemporary documentary Using individual case studies that begin with The Birth of a Nation and end with O J Made in America the book introduces how various strands of international politics have been woven through the fabric of cinema by contextualizing each film in its particular historical moment In addition Robert Kolker offers formal analyses that explore not only overtly political themes but also how the structural properties of a film can themselves be political how political films are made politically Including films produced across Europe North Africa the US and Latin America this accessible and engaging book is an ideal introductory text for students of political cinema From Box Office to Ballot Box M. Keith Booker, 2007-02-28 Given the complexity and expense of making and distributing a film the process of filmmaking is by its very nature a political process Moreover given the power and persuasiveness of the cinema as a medium film can be a powerful political tool It should thus come as no surprise that film has had a long and extensive engagement with a variety of political topics Focusing on films made after World War II this survey notes both the reluctance of American films to come to grips with serious political issues and the extent to which American film has nevertheless provided important commentary on such issues The Politics of

Hollywood Cinema R. Rushton, 2016-04-12 The Politics of Hollywood Cinema radically transforms our understanding of cinema s potential to be politically engaging and challenging Examining several films from Hollywood s classical era including Marked Woman Mr Smith Goes to Washington Born Yesterday On the Waterfront and It Should Happen to You alongside contemporary theories of democracy advanced by Ernesto Laclau Chantal Mouffe Claude Lefort tienne Balibar and Jacques Ranci re Richard Rushton argues that popular films can offer complex subtle relevant and controversial approaches to democracy and politics Camera Politica Michael Ryan, Douglas Kellner, 1988-06-22 a modern mythography a study of contemporary Hollywood films based on the tools offered by feminism psychoanalysis Marxist cultural theory and deconstruction Village Voice Solidly thought out observation of the films of the 70 s and 80 s that comment on the system Audience intelligent open advocacy Its responsible arrangement of carefully described cultural materials will challenge students and instructors alike Teaching Philosophy Camera Politica is a comprehensive study of Hollywood film during a period of tremendous change in American history a period that witnessed the end of the American empire crises in the economy a failure of political leadership loss at war and the rise of the Right Politics, Hollywood Style John

Heyrman, 2017-12-20 This book analyzes major films about the American political process from the 1930 s through the 2010 s Films are grouped historically and analyzed for their portrayal of American politicians and the political system uncovering patterns and trends regarding the ways that American politics is portrayed It also explores how politics are reflected in and affected by these films For example compromise is often portrayed as a mistake and heroes generally seek to redeem a corrupt political system This book categorizes films by how politics are depicted in them e g cynically idealistically etc This book also considers the depiction of race and gender in films as well as the ideological slant of the stories told Crowd Scenes Michael Tratner, 2008 The movies and the masses erupted on the world stage together In a few decades around the turn of the twentieth century millions of persons who rarely could afford a night at the theater and had never voted in an election became regular paying customers at movie palaces and proud members of new political parties The question of how to represent these new masses fascinated and plagued politicians and filmmakers alike Michael Tratner examines the representations of masses the crowd scenes in Hollywood films from The Birth of a Nation through such popular love stories as Gone with the Wind The Sound of Music and Dr Zhivago He then contrasts these with similar scenes in early Soviet and Nazi films What emerges is a political debate being carried out in filmic style In both sets of films the crowd is represented as a seething cauldron of emotions Politics and Film Leif Furhammar, 1973 Movies and Politics James E. Combs, 2013-12-17 Collecting together some of the best thinking about the relationship between movies and politics this book originally published in 1993 encourages an awareness of the political dimension of film both for film scholars and those entering the film industry Eight essays are grouped into four parts addressing political ideology and movie narrative political myth in the movies political history and movie culture and political communication and the movies An introductory essay as well as prefatory remarks to each of the four parts brings additional insight and perspective and puts the essays into context

Breaking in to the Movies Henry A. Giroux, 2001-12-21 Assessing film's unheralded and unbridled power as a teaching machine Breaking in to the Movies showcases Giroux's best known film essays that address the profoundly pedagogical role film has come to play in contemporary culture The Politics & Poetics of Black Film David C. Wall, Michael T.

Martin, 2015-10-20 Written and directed by two white men and performed by an all black cast Nothing But a Man Michael Roemer 1964 tells the story of a drifter turned family man who struggles with the pressures of small town life and the limitations placed on him and his community in the Deep South an area long fraught with racism Though unmistakably about race and civil rights the film makes no direct reference to the civil rights movement Despite this intentional absence contemporary audiences were acutely aware of the social context for the film's indictment of white prejudice in America To help frame and situate the film in the context of black film studies the book gathers primary and secondary resources including the original screenplay essays on the film statements by the filmmakers and interviews with Robert M Young the film's producer and cinematographer and Khalil Gibran Muhammad the Director of the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture
