Israel and the Holocaust Avinoam J. Patt, 2024-01-25 Avinoam Patt examines the relationship between two of the most significant events in modern Jewish history the Holocaust and the creation of the state of Israel While there may be no direct causal connection between the Holocaust and the founding of the Jewish state in 1948 the memory of the Holocaust has been a constant presence in Israeli politics culture and society since even before 1948 The State of Israel has always existed in an uneasy relationship with the Shoah On the one hand Israel was faced with the challenge of taking in hundreds of thousands of Holocaust survivors as new citizens of the state many of whom were discouraged from sharing their traumatic wartime experiences with their fellow citizens On the other hand the destruction of European Jewry and the failure of Western democracy to protect the Jewish minority in Europe seemed to vindicate the Zionist worldview even as classical Zionism argued that the Jewish people deserved a state on the basis of their deep historical connection to the Land of Israel By tracing the evolving relationship to the memory of Shoah Avinoam Patt argues we can also trace shifting conceptions of Israeli self understanding and identity Israel's relationship to the wider world its neighbors the Jewish Diaspora and the Jewish past Israel and the Holocaust documents these tensions and analyses the changing nature of Israel's relationship to the Shoah revealing that it only seems to strengthen with the passage of time

Rozental, 2023-03-24 By entering and critically re activating the Zionist photographic archive established by the Division of Journalism and Propaganda of the Jewish National Fund this research examines its rippling impact on civil landscapes prior to 1948 in Palestine and its lasting impact on the region to date This study argues that the Zionist movement makes particular use of the machinery of the photographic archive aiming to constitute the boundaries of Palestine as a Jewish state claiming ownership over the land and announcing internationally the success of its enterprise thus substantiating the image it sought to embed as the reality of the land This archive was not stand alone as it was functioning in relation to a vast complicated network of organizational systems and technologies in the Middle East and across the world Crucially this system functioned as a national archive in future tense for a nation state that was not yet in existence seeking to substantiate its regional authority and shape its cultural repository outlining parameters for inclusion and exclusion from its civic space The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography history visual culture Jewish studies Israel studies and Middle East studies      Studies in Contemporary Jewry: IV: The Jews and the European Crisis, 1914-1921

on the Israeli Screen Yosefa Loshitzky,2010-01-01 2002 A Choice Outstanding Academic Book The struggle to forge a collective national identity at the expense of competing plural identities has preoccupied Israeli society since the founding of the state of Israel In this book Yosefa Loshitzky explores how major Israeli films of the 1980s and 1990s have contributed significantly to the process of identity formation by reflecting projecting and constructing debates around Israeli national identity Loshitzky focuses on three major foundational sites of the struggle over Israeli identity the Holocaust the question of the Orient and the so called in an ironic historical twist of the Jewish question Palestinian question The films she discusses raise fundamental questions about the identity of Jewish Holocaust survivors and their children the second generation Jewish immigrants from Muslim countries or Mizrahim particularly the second generation of Israeli Mizrahim and Palestinians Recognizing that victimhood marks all the identities represented in the films under discussion Loshitzky does not treat each identity group as a separate and coherent entity but rather attempts to see the conflation interplay and conflict among them
