The Ayes Have It John Wanna, Tracey

Arklay,2010-07-01 The Ayes Have It It is a fascinating account of the Queensland Parliament during three decades of high drama politics It examines in detail the Queensland Parliament from the days of the Labor split in the 1950s through the conservative governments of Frank Nicklin John Bjelke Petersen and Mike Ahern to the fall of the Nationals government led briefly by Russell Cooper in December 1989 The volume traces the rough and tumble of parliamentary politics in the frontier state The authors focus on parliament as a political forum on the representatives and personalities that made up the institution over this period on the priorities and political agendas that were pursued and the increasingly contentious practices used to control parliamentary proceedings Throughout the entire history are woven other controversies that repeatedly recur controversies over state economic development the provision of government services industrial disputation and government reactions electoral zoning and disputes over malapportionment the impost of taxation in the low tax state encroachments on civil liberties and political protests the perennial topic of censorship as well as the emerging issues of integrity concerns about conflicts of interest and the slide towards corruption There are fights with the federal government especially with the Whitlam government and internal fights within the governing coalition which eventually leads to its collapse in 1983 after which the Nationals manage to govern alone for two very tumultuous terms On the non government side the bitterness of the 1950s split was reflected in the early parliaments of this period and while the Australian Labor Party eventually saw off its rivalrous off shoot the QLP DLP it then began to implode through waves of internal factional discord

A History of Abortion and Contraception in Queensland, Australia, 1960-1989 Cassandra Byrnes,2024-06-03 This book looks at the recent history of sex contraception and abortion in Australia s most conservative state Queensland In western nations there has largely been a consistent increase in available contraception and access to abortion from the 1960s onwards yet there are a few geographical exceptions that resisted this trend including Queensland Cassandra Byrnes highlights the multifarious ways sexuality and reproduction were continually constructed and challenged during the second half of the twentieth century and follows the responses of key groups to changing laws and attitudes in a time of local and global sexual and social revolutions She explores interactions between identities of gender sexuality class age marital status and geography to illustrate how specific sexed bodies became liminal sites for legal and medical debate This Queensland case study is contextualised within international debates concerning women s reproductive rights and will be of interest to students and scholars interested in the history of reproductive rights gender and sexuality The Craft of Governing R.A.W. Rhodes,2020-08-02 Bargaining and puzzling power and thought dealing and agonising compromise and commitment These are two sides of political practitioners whether politician public servant or campaigner Understand the interplay and we can just sometimes make sense of the real world we seek to interpret Patrick Weller s observation comes from half a century of contemplating politics in action The question of how government works lies at the heart of political science and it has also been the career focus of this pioneer in the field The Craft of Governing offers a tribute to the contribution of Patrick Weller to Australian political science with chapters from leading political commentators including Michelle Grattan Peter Shergold Bob Jackson and James Walter Contributors consider the role of the prime minister approaches to studying executive government the continuing significance of senior public servants and the nature of leadership in public bureaucracies They also reflect on how insights from the study of domestic public policy can be applied to international organisations challenges faced by Westminster democracies and approaches to political biography The Craft of Governing is an invaluable resource for readers interested in approaches to studying politics and the development of political science as a discipline Beyond Adversity William Park,2010-07-15 In November 1941 about 100 university students began their short term compulsory military training with the 15th Infantry Battalion Most were aged 19 22 had daytime jobs and were evening or external students from the arts commerce and law faculties They were ambitious hard working young men anxious to make their way in the world Their compulsory military training was due to end on 4 February 1942 and the students would then be released to return to their jobs and continue their part time studies The outbreak of the Pacific War on 7 December changed everything In April 1942 the 15th Battalion was given 24 hours notice to move from Caloundra to Townsville In January 1943 the Battalion went to New Guinea to take part in the Salamaua and Lae campaigns and did not return to Brisbane until July 1944 In November it was sent to fight in Bougainville The Battalion finally returned home in January 1946 and most returned to resume their studies and jobs within the community This book tells the story of those Queensland University students of U Company 15th Battalion during its brief existence It covers their wartime service in all its tragedy and triumph and how they resumed their lives studies and careers once the war was over Most regard themselves as being very fortunate to have survived the war to have learned to cope with adversity to have learned the importance of getting on with life in spite of insurmountable obstacles and in having been able to make the most of opportunities that arose They have been fortunate to find a life beyond adversity Australian Political Facts Ian McAllister,1990 Beyond the Policy Cycle HK

Colebatch,2020-07-29 It is common and comforting to see public policy as the result of careful craft work by expert officials who recognise a problem identify and evaluate possible responses and choose the most appropriate strategy the policy cycle The reality is more complex and challenging Many hands are involved in policy making not all of them official they are not all addressing the same problem they have different ideas about what would be a good answer and the process is rarely brought to a neat close by a clear decision The development of policy can resemble firefighting with players rushing to react to demands for action in areas that are already in crisis or it can be a less frenetic process of weaving as they search for an outcome which reflects the concerns of all the stakeholders Effective participation in the policy process calls for a clear understanding of this complexity and ambiguity Beyond the Policy Cycle sets policy in this wider context It recognises that participants in the process are drawn from both government and diverse areas outside government and looks not at a model process but rather at how the game is played how issues rise to prominence who is actually doing the work and exactly what it is that they are doing With detailed Australian case studies and examining the implications of recent trends in policy such as the outsourcing of service provision Beyond the Policy Cycle offers students and practitioners a critical and engaged look at the activity of policy that reflects the reality of the policy experience Beyond the Protective State Ann Capling,Brian

Galligan,1992 An historical and theoretical account of the transition from protectionism to alternative policies in the Australian manufacturing industry Australian National Government Leslie Finlay Crisp,1983 Beyond

Eurocentrism Peter Gran,2021-02-01 Eurocentrism influences virtually all established historical writing With the rise of Prussia and by extension Europe eurocentrism became the dominant paradigm for world history Employing the approaches of Gramsci and Foucault Peter Gran proposes a reconceptualization of world history He challenges the traditional convention of relying on totalitarian or democratic functions of a particular state to explain and understand relationships of authority and resistance in a number of national contexts Gran maintains that there is no single developmental model but diverse forms of hegemony that emerged out of the political crisis following the penetration of capitalism into each nation In making comparisons between seemingly disparate and distinctive nations and by questioning established canons of comparative inquiry Gran encourages people to recognize the similarities between the West and non West nations Responsible Government in Australia Patrick Moray Weller,Dean Jaensch,1980
