Australian Mothering Carla Pascoe Leahy, Petra Bueskens, 2020-01-28 This collection defines the field of maternal studies in Australia for the first time Leading motherhood researchers explore how mothering has evolved across Australian history as well as the joys and challenges of being a mother today The contributors cover pregnancy birth relationships childcare domestic violence time use work welfare policy and psychology from a diverse range of maternal perspectives Utilising a matricentric feminist framework Australian Mothering foregrounds the experiences emotions and perspectives of mothers to better understand how Australian motherhood has developed historically and contemporaneously Drawing upon their combined sociological and historical expertise Bueskens and Pascoe Leahy have carefully curated a collection that presents compelling research on past and present perspectives on maternity in Australia which will be relevant to researchers advocates and policy makers interested in the changing role of mothers in Australian society

Early Childhood Professionals Marjory Anne Ebbeck, Marjory Ebbeck, Manjula Waniganayake, 2003 This text aims to clarify what contemporary early childhood practitioners and leaders need to know in order to manage early childhood services professionally The text explores leadership concepts in an integrated manner and presents case studies and interviews with early childhood leaders

The Oxford Handbook of the Welfare State Daniel Béland, Kimberly J. Morgan, Herbert Obinger, Christopher Pierson, 2021-10-27 This is the comprehensively revised second edition of a volume that was welcomed at its first appearance as the most authoritative survey and critique of the welfare state yet published Its fifty one chapters have been written by acknowledged experts in the field from across Europe Australia and North America Some chapters are brand new all have been systematically revised and they are right up to date The first seven sections of the book cover the themes of Ethics History Approaches Inputs and Actors Policies Policy Outcomes and Worlds of Welfare A final chapter is devoted to the future of welfare and well being under the imperatives of climate change Every chapter is written in a way that is both comprehensive and succinct introducing the novice reader to the essentials of what is going on while providing new insights for the more experienced researcher Wherever appropriate the handbook brings the very latest empirical evidence to bear It is a book that is thoroughly comparative in every way The Oxford Handbook of the Welfare State second edition is a comprehensible and comprehensive survey of everything that it is important to know about the welfare state in these troubled times It is an indispensable source for everyone who wants to know what is really going on now and what is likely to happen next

Fathering Alistair Thomson, 2025-08-13 The 21st century father is expected to be actively engaged in the everyday care of his children as epitomised by the celebrated dad of children s cartoon Bluey the Blue Heeler Bandit Fathering An Australian History explores why men often struggle to meet social and cultural expectations The authors groundbreaking research reveals the forces that have shaped Australian family life and fathering since the early twentieth century and how Australian fathers have managed the evolving role and its responsibilities Focusing on lived experience and drawing upon a century of personal accounts Fathering shows how fathers have participated in raising their children as the world changed their family roles and the relationships they form with their children It reveals how the experience of being a father is as much shaped by social class and material wellbeing as it is by race and ethnicity geography and sexuality and by family legacy and personal character The first comprehensive history of Australian fathering Fathering transforms our understanding of men s experience of parenthood showing how fathers from diverse backgrounds including migrant and Indigenous dads have negotiated their role in changing circumstances      Australian Citizenship Brian Galligan,Winsome Roberts,2004 Australians have much to celebrate in the hundred years of their citizenship but also a good deal to be ashamed of The authors argue that good citizenship depends on moral citizens able to discern between what is worthy of respect and pride and what is shameful in national life Galligan and Roberts from Uni of Melbourne      Handbook of International Perspectives on Early Childhood Education Jaipaul L. Roopnarine,James E. Johnson,Suzanne Flannery Quinn,Michael M. Patte,2018-02-21 The Handbook of International Perspectives on Early Childhood Education provides a groundbreaking compilation of research from an interdisciplinary group of distinguished experts in early childhood education ECE child development cultural and cross cultural research in the psychological sciences etc The chapters provide current overviews of ECE in Latin America and the Caribbean the Middle East Asia Australia Africa Europe the US and Canada and convey how ECE is multi sectorial multi cultural and multi disciplinary undergirded by such disciplines as neuroscience psychological anthropology cross cultural human development childhood studies and political science      Feminism and the Making of a Child Rights Revolution Isobelle Barrett Meyering,2022-02-01 When Australian women s liberationists challenged prevailing expectations of female domesticity they were accused of being anti mother and anti child Feminism and the Making of a Child Rights Revolution provides a much needed reassessment of this stereotype Drawing on extensive archival research and personal accounts it places feminists at the forefront of a new wave of children s rights activism that went beyond calls for basic protections for children instead demanding their liberation Historian Isobelle Barrett Meyering revisits this revolutionary approach and charts the debates it sparked within the women s movement Her examination of feminists ground breaking campaigns on major social issues of the 1970s from childcare to sex education to family violence also reveals women s concerted efforts to apply this ideal in their personal lives and to support children s own activism Feminism and the Making of a Child Rights Revolution sheds light on the movement s expansive vision for social change and its lasting impact on the way we view the rights of women and children      Caring for Children Rachel Langford,Susan Prentice,Patrizia Albanese,2017-06-09 Social inequality Selective political attention Insufficient funding and access Caring for Children provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary examination of the crisis in care for Canadian children and their caregivers

Couched in the language of choice government policies on the care of Canadian children over the past decade have favoured professional nuclear families while doing little to assist children with the greatest needs including those from low income immigrant and Aboriginal families Analyzing the connections between services and programs the contributors reveal how childcare parental leave informal care live in caregiver programs and child tax benefits affect the well being of Canadian children and their families They draw on comparative examples from across Canada documenting policy shifts and associated social movement responses Caring for Children affirms the necessity of questioning political attitudes and arrangements and asks what social movements can do to promote positive change in approaches to the care of children

International Handbook of Early Childhood Education Marilyn Fleer,Bert van Oers,2017-10-10 This international handbook gives a comprehensive overview of findings from longstanding and contemporary research theory and practices in early childhood education in the Northern and Southern hemispheres The first volume of the handbook addresses theory methodology and the research activities and research needs of particular regions The second volume examines in detail innovations and longstanding programs curriculum and assessment and conceptions and research into child family and communities The two volumes of this handbook address the current theory methodologies and research needs of specific countries and provide insight into existing global similarities in early childhood practices By paying special attention to what is happening in the larger world contexts the volumes provide a representative overview of early childhood education practices and research and redress the current North South imbalance of published work on the subject

Generational Change and New Policy Challenges Ruth Phillips,2007-10-01 Arising from a conference held in 2005 that brought together researchers across a number of disciplines this edited collection draws on critical concerns of two countries experiencing extraordinary generational change This book is an important resource for anyone interested in how Australia s responses to generational change compare to Korea s

The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister,Steve Dowrick,Riaz Hassan,2003-08-07 First published in 2003 The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences economics political science and sociology Each section examines the significant research in the field placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined taught and researched

Young Children's Community Building in Action Louise Gwenneth Phillips,Jenny Ritchie,Lavina Dynevor,Jared Lambert,Kerryn Moroney,2019-07-04 Rethinking the concepts of citizenship and community in relation to young children this groundbreaking text examines the ways in which indigenous understandings and practices applied in early childhood settings in Australia and New Zealand encourage young children to demonstrate their care and concern for others and so in turn perceive themselves as part of a larger community Young Children s Community Building in Action acknowledges global variations in the meanings of early childhood education of citizenship and community building and challenges widespread invisibility and disregard of Indigenous communities Through close observation and examination of early years settings in Australia and New Zealand chapters demonstrate how practices guided by Aboriginal and M ori values support and nurture children s personal and social development as individuals and as citizens in a wider community Exploring what young children s citizenship learning and action looks like in practice and how this may vary within and across communities the book provides a powerful account of effective pedagogical approaches which have been long excluded from mainstream dialogues Written for researchers and students of early childhood education and care this book provides insight into what citizenship can be for young children and how Indigenous cultural values shape ways of knowing being doing and relating Becoming a mother Carla Pascoe Leahy,2023-04-04

Becoming a mother charts the diverse and complex history of Australian mothering for the first time exposing the ways it has been both connected to and distinct from parallel developments in other industrialised societies In many respects the historical context in which Australian women come to motherhood has changed dramatically since 1945 And yet examination of the memories of multiple maternal generations reveals surprising continuities in the emotions and experiences of first time motherhood Drawing upon interdisciplinary insights from anthropology history psychology and sociology Carla Pascoe Leahy unpacks this multifaceted rite of passage through more than 60 oral history interviews demonstrating how maternal memories continue to influence motherhood today Despite radical shifts in understandings of gender care and subjectivity becoming a mother remains one of the most personally and culturally significant moments in a woman s life Re-theorizing Discipline in Education Zsuzsa Millei (Ed),Tom G. Griffiths,Robert John Parkes,2010 understandings that can make a difference in students lives A Caring Society? MICHAEL D. FINE,2018-07-09 In the twenty first century characterized by population aging family fragmentation and the entry of women into the paid workforce caring has become a major public issue This book offers a comparative analysis of the sociology philosophy and emergent practices of care in the context of the political economy of post industrial societies The Early Childhood Educator Rachel Langford,Brooke Richardson,2022-10-20 Across the globe the work of early childhood educators who are predominantly women is misunderstood underpaid and undervalued Perspectives on early childhood educators are highly contentious are they child development experts oppressed workers maternal substitutes technicians facilitators of early learning or something else This volume features chapter authors from Australia Canada Norway Sweden the USA and New Zealand examine a range of contemporary feminist theories in relation to the early childhood educator The feminist theories covered include materialist feminism poststructural feminism decolonizing feminisms posthumanist feminism new materialist feminism feminist ethics of care womanist feminism postcolonial feminism femme theory and feminist queer theory The editors of the volume offer an introduction and commentaries that explore solidarities and tensions between the feminisms to generate critical conversations about the work lived experiences and agency of early childhood educators The volume contributes to shifting understandings of the early childhood educator in the contexts of culture practice policy and politics      Contesting the Australian Way Paul Smyth, Bettina Cass, 1998 Since the 1980s public policy has been perceived as being in a crisis of uncertainty Many argue that consolidating the market imperative in both economic and social policy is the way out of this crisis In this 1999 book a leading group of writers challenge this view calling for reassertion of a mixed rather than a market economy and a reaffirmation of the egalitarianism that has characterised past Australian social policy The book confronts key issues of our time particularly rising inequality and unemployment Attempting to look beyond familiar debates about economic rationalism it discusses the role of industry policy the impact of globalisation and the usefulness of competition models in the public welfare and community sectors Asking whether economic and social policy can be reintegrated in a shared vision this groundbreaking book argues the case for reinventing government rather than marginalising it      Paid Care in Australia Debra King, Gabrielle Meagher, 2009 Care for Australia's children and elderly is provided in a mixed economy in which for profit providers are playing an increasingly important role alongside more traditional government and non government organisations Does the growth of for profit provision affect the quality of services or of jobs in paid care Does it change the political dynamics of the social care sector in contemporary welfare states How might service users their families and organisations work together to sustain and improve the quality of care services What theories and evidence help us to understand the process and consequences of the shift toward for profit provision of social care In nine chapters by leading researchers this book explores these and other questions to inform policy and practice in this key field of social policy

Contemporary Motherhood Lyn Craig, 2016-05-13 In this timely book Lyn Craig provides the first comprehensive account of how parents divide their time between caring for children housework paid work and leisure Using large scale quantitative time use data the book provides a detailed analysis of the impact of children upon adult time This research reveals a unique picture of how parenthood affects daily life within households and how people's paid and unpaid workload is affected by parenthood By looking at how the costs and benefits of children are currently conceptualized and apportioned Contemporary Motherhood shows what becoming a mother entails and why it is so challenging to raise children Suggesting an explanation for why fertility rates are dramatically dropping the book makes a significant contribution to the debate on contemporary motherhood and will interest scholars and students in sociology and social policy with an interest in the sociology of the family gender and sexuality and the sociology of youth
