Politics Of Everyday Life Making Choices Changing Lives:

Politics Of Everyday Life Ginsborg, Paul, 2013-05-24 Concern over the present state of the world its tensions and disparities fosters in many people the uneasy combination of two sensations urgency and powerlessness The solution lies in our own hands We need to re think the choices we make on a day to day basis choices affecting the ways we use our time the family lives we live the sorts of goods and services we consume the quality of democracy we are able to exercise The individual the local and the global are inextricably intertwined in positive and in negative ways Passivity and indifference at the individual level contribute greatly to collective dismay at the condition of the world This book explores the choices we have It considers the options for civil society and for the individual within today s political culture The Oxford

Handbook of the History of Consumption Frank Trentmann, 2012-03-22 The term consumption covers the desire for goods and services their acquisition use and disposal The study of consumption has grown enormously in recent years and it has been the subject of major historiographical debates did the eighteenth century bring a consumer revolution Was there a great divergence between East and West Did the twentieth century see the triumph of global consumerism Questions of consumption have become defining topics in all branches of history from gender and labour history to political history and cultural studies The Oxford Handbook of the History of Consumption offers a timely overview of how our understanding of consumption in history has changed in the last generation taking the reader from the ancient period to the twenty first century It includes chapters on Asia Europe Africa and North America brings together new perspectives highlights cutting edge areas of research and offers a guide through the main historiographical developments Contributions from leading historians examine the spaces of consumption consumer politics luxury and waste nationalism and empire the body well being youth cultures and fashion The Handbook also showcases the different ways in which recent historians have approached the subject from cultural and economic history to political history and technology studies including areas where multidisciplinary approaches have been especially fruitful Moral Markets Nico Stehr, 2015-12-03 Nothing affects modern society more than the decisions made in the marketplace especially but not only the judgments of consumers Stehr s designation of a new stage in modern societies with the term moral markets signals a further development in the social evolution of markets Market theories still widely in use today emerged in a society that no longer exists Consumers were hardly in evidence at all in early theories of the market Today growing affluence greater knowledge and high speed communication among consumers builds into the marketplace notions of fairness solidarity environment health and political considerations imbued with a long term perspective that can disrupt short term pursuits of the best buy Importantly such social goals individual apprehensions and modes of consumer conduct become inscribed today in products and services offered in the marketplace as well as in the rules and regulations that govern market relations Stehr uses examples to illustrate these trends and build new theory fitting today s changing consumerism From Clans to Co-ops Theodoros

Rakopoulos,2017-11 Introduction Problems with cooperatives The anthropology of co ops the Mafia and the Sicilian lens Cooperatives and the historical anti Mafia movement Worldviews of labour legality and food ideologies The limits of bad kinship Sicilian anti Mafia families The use of gossip setting cooperative boundaries Wage is male but land is a woman Community troubles cooperative conundrum Divided by land Mafia and anti Mafia proximity Conclusion the private life of political cooperativism      The Future of Representative Democracy Sonia Alonso,John Keane,Wolfgang

Merkel,2011-03-31 The Future of Representative Democracy poses important questions about representation representative democracy and their future Inspired by the last major investigation of the subject by Hanna Pitkin over four decades ago this ambitious volume fills a major gap in the literature by examining the future of representative forms of democracy in terms of present day trends and past theories of representative democracy Aware of the pressing need for clarifying key concepts and institutional trends the volume aims to break down barriers among disciplines and to establish an interdisciplinary dialogue among scholars The contributors emphasise that representative democracy and its future is a subject of pressing scholarly concern and public importance Paying close attention to the unfinished two centuries old relationship between democracy and representation this book offers a fresh perspective on current problems and dilemmas of representative democracy and the possible future development of new forms of democratic representation      Contesting Economic and Social Rights in Ireland Thomas Murray,2016-08-18 This book presents a political understanding of socio economic rights by contextualising constitution makers and judges decision making in terms of Ireland s rich history of people s struggles for justice from below between 1848 and the present Its theoretical framework incorporates critical legal studies and world systems analysis It performs a critical discourse analysis of constitution making processes in 1922 and 1937 as well as subsequent property trade union family and welfare rights case law It traces the marginalisation of socio economic rights in Ireland from specific local and institutional factors to the contested balance of core peripheral and social relations in the world system The book demonstrates the endurance of ideological understandings of state constitutionalism as inherently neutral between interests Unemployed marches housing protestors and striking workers however provided important challenges and oppositional discourses Recognising these enduring forms of power and ideology is vital if we are to assess critically the possibilities and limits of contesting socio economic rights today      The Gospel According to Starbucks Leonard Sweet,2008-05-20 Leonard

Sweet shows you how the passion that Starbucks has for creating an irresistible experience can connect you with God s stirring introduction to the experience of faith in The Gospel According to Starbucks You don t stand in line at Starbucks just to buy a cup of coffee You stop for the experience surrounding the cup of coffee Too many of us line up for God out of duty or guilt We completely miss the warmth and richness of the experience of living with God If we d learn to see what God is doing on earth we could participate fully in the irresistible life that he offers You can learn to pay attention like never before to identify where God is already in business right in your neighborhood The doors are open and the coffee is brewing God is serving the refreshing antidote to the unsatisfying arms length spiritual life and he won't even make you stand in line

Sociology Australia Judith Bessant, 2020-07-16 Sociology gives us the tools we need to understand our life and the lives of the people around us It reveals that our commonsense view of the world isn't always right and enables us to find out what actually shapes our experiences In this widely used and very readable introductory text Judith Bessant and Rob Watts show us how to develop a sociological perspective on what is happening in Australia today Rapid and far reaching social changes are taking place which affect us all globalisation is impacting on our economy and culture technological developments increase the pace of life and many people worry about the decline of traditional values and about environmental and personal security Using a sociological perspective we can explain why different groups of people experience these changes as exciting unsettling or devastating Sociology Australia is structured around six key questions What is sociology Who are we and how do we come to be who we are How do we know the world in which we live Can we make our lives as we want them Who makes the decisions that shape our society What changes are taking place in Australia today Sociology Australia is an ideal introduction to the discipline of sociology and to the dynamics of Australian society today This third edition of Sociology Australia has been substantially revised and updated and includes new chapters on religion education and sustainability

Me and We Leonard Sweet, 2014-09-16 When Christians answer the clarion call to be missional too often it is primarily to feel good or to grow in their own faith But ultimately we remain unsatisfied because in the end it's still about me my church my faith my salvation Then sometimes inspiration dries up We forget that Jesus is the head of the Church which exists at God's pleasure and disposal God is birthing a new Social Gospel meant to reclaim mission and justice ministries as prime directives for the Church and not with the naive thinking of the 19th or 20th centuries What are the characteristics of this new Social Gospel There is an expectation that mission is with and not for others There is an acknowledgement that tolerance is not a dirty word and we have to find a peaceable way to live in our intercultural world It carries the Wesleyan impulse to change the world by working to build God's kingdom in this world It offers the grace and salvation of Christ to those in need believing that none are free unless all are free It means that we feed the hungry educate to poor and equip the powerless in tangible ways

Civil Society and Gender Justice Karen Hagemann, Sonya Michel, Gunilla-Friederike Budde, 2008 Civil society and civic engagement have increasingly become topics of discussion at the national and international level The editors of this volume ask does the concept of civil society include gender equality and gender justice Or to frame the question differently is civil society a feminist concept Conversely does feminism need the concept of civil society This important volume offers both a revised gendered history of civil society and a program for making it more egalitarian in the future An interdisciplinary group of internationally known authors investigates the relationship between public and private in the discourses and practices of civil societies the significance of the family for the project of civil society the relation between civil society the state and different forms of citizenship and the complex connection between civil society gendered forms of protest and nongovernmental movements While often critical of historical instantiations of civil society all the authors nonetheless take seriously the potential inherent in civil society particularly as it comes to influence global politics They demand however an expansion of both the concept and project of civil society in order to make its political opportunities available to all

Paul Ginsborg and the Historiography of Modern Italy John Foot, Stephen Gundle, 2024-07-27 This book brings together a group of British and Italian scholars who have made significant contributions to the historiography of modern Italy over the last three decades dedicated to the influence of Paul Ginsborg Reflecting Ginsborg's interest in the encounter of social and political history in modern Italy contributions explore the varied forms taken by activism in civil society Rather than just treating activism and engagement as limited circumscribed phenomena within a political system the essays consider these as interventions in the social Taken together the contributions gathered here highlight Ginsborg's contributions to scholarship and activism as well as advancing our understanding of cultural change institutional reform and the renewal of community in modern Italian history

Afghanistan Remembers Parin Dossa, 2014-07-31 Although extensive literature exists on the violence of war little attention has been given to the ways in which this violence becomes entrenched and normalized in the inner recesses of everyday life In Afghanistan Remembers Parin Dossa examines Afghan women's recall of violence through memories and food practices in their homeland and its diaspora Her work reveals how the suffering and trauma of violence has been rendered socially invisible following decades of life in a war zone Dossa argues that it is necessary to acknowledge the impact of violence on the familial lives of Afghan women along with their attempts at recovery under difficult circumstances Informed by Dossa's own story of family migration and loss Afghanistan Remembers is a poignant ethnographic account of the trauma of war She calls on the reader to recognize and bear witness to the impact of deeper forms of violence

Civil Society and the Family Esther Muddiman, Sally Power, Chris Taylor, 2022-04-14 The relationship between the family and civil society has always been complex with the family often regarded as separate from or even oppositional to civil society Taking a fresh empirical approach Muddiman Power and Taylor reveal how such separation underestimates the important role the family plays in civil society Considering the impact of family events dinner table debates intergenerational transmission of virtues and the role of the mother this enlightening book draws on survey data from 1000 young people a sample of their parents and grandparents and extended family interviews to uncover how civil engagement activism and political participation are inherited and fostered within the home      Transformations of Retailing in Europe after 1945

Lydia Langer, 2016-02-17 After World War II structures practices and the culture of retailing in most West European countries went through a period of rapid change The post war economic boom the emergence of a mass consumer society and the adaptation of innovations which already had been implemented in the USA during the interwar period revolutionized the world of getting and spending But the implementation of self service and the supermarket the spread of the department store and the mail order business were not only elements of a transatlantic catch up process of Americanization of retailing National patterns of the retail trade and specific cultures of consumption remained crucial and long term processes of change starting in the 1920s or 1930s also had an impact on the transformation of retailing in post war Europe This volume presents a series of case studies looking at transformations of retailing in several European countries offering new insights into the structural preconditions of the emerging mass consumer societies and also into the consequences consumerism had on the practices of retailing

Real News About the News Kenneth Newton, 2024-02 Unravels the real effects of the mainstream and alternative news media on British politics Covering TV radio newspaper and the internet Kenneth Newton collates evidence to show that contrary to popular belief the main effects are positive and inform and mobilise citizens rather than influencing their voting choice      Teachers' Beliefs about Civic and Citizenship Education in Italian High

Schools Alessandra Santoianni, 2024-11-18 Various social and political actors are responsible to educate citizens to sustain democracy Civic and Citizenship Education CCE addresses this issue and has gained prominence Italy made the subject compulsory in schools with the law n 92 2019 Different conceptualisations of CCE have the notion of citizenship at the centre which can differentiate between traditional and critical approaches Despite this little is known about what teachers believe in terms of citizenship and what the subject should involve in terms of goals content and methods This work aims to understand Italian teachers views on CCE and its implementation and contribute to its systematisation as a scientific discipline The author interviewed Italian high school teachers and analysed the results The results show that teachers beliefs about the goals of CCE relate to broad social and political issues and students learning These beliefs also show civic republican values Three macro areas of content from the 92 2019 law serve as a framework for teachers to select topics they believe are relevant and Lawfulness Education is the key to the content goals and teaching strategies Teachers are unclear whether CCE should be a separate transversal or integrated subject Ultimately they implement what they believe in despite the policy changes introduced by the 92 2019 law
