Politics Of Islamic Reassertion:

The Politics of Islamic Reassertion (RLE Politics of Islam) Mohammed Ayoob, 2014-03-26 The Iranian Revolution has catalysed the preconceptions holding sway in the Western World about the character of Islam and its politics based as they are on a mixture of imagined cultural superiority and a latent fear of a resurgence similar to the Arab conquests of the seventh and eighth centuries of the long Ottoman domination of Eastern Europe This book constitutes a counterweight to such monolithic perceptions of Islam It surveys the nature of opinion and of government in the larger Muslim regions of the world and the position of Muslims in states where they are not the dominant population Each contributor expresses his own assessment of the regional data and the editor's concluding chapter draws together the threads of a work which will form an important contribution to international understanding and a first breach in the Green Curtain dividing East and West First published in 1981

Afghanistan N Asta Olesen, 2013-01-11 The years 1978 and 1979 were dramatic throughout south and western Asia In Iran the Pahlavi dynasty was toppled by an Islamic revolution In Pakistan Zulfikar Ali Bhutto was hanged by the military regime that toppled him and which then proceeded to implement an Islamization programme Between the two lay Afghanistan whose Saur Revolution of April 1978 soon developed into a full scale civil war and Soviet intervention The military struggle that followed was largely influenced by Soviet US rivalry but the ideological struggle followed a dynamic of its own Drawing on a wide range of sources including such previously unused archival material as British Intelligence reports this is a detailed study of the Afghan debate on the role of Islam in politics from the formation of the modern Afghan state around 1800 to the present day Muslim Politics Dale F. looks at the ways in which identity by doing so enjoys an intricate mutually constitutive relationship with the strategic context in which it bears its effects on the state and the region Finally given the special role Russia has historically played in defining the evolutionary trajectory of the regional states the book discusses the ways in which Russia itself and its post cold war policies towards its former colonies have been conditioned by factors associated with Russia s evolving post Soviet identity Placing the region firmly within existing theories of identity and state practices the book will be of interest to students and scholars of Central Asian Politics Security Studies Foreign Policy and International Relations

Nationalism and Internationalism in Liberalism, Marxism and Islam Tahir Amin,1991-01-01 The Western World is moving beyond the confines of nation states and towards the formation of a supra national community The Marxist World threatened by ethno national movements with disintegration is going through a basic transformation and is in process of liberating itself from its intellectual legacy The Muslim World is caught up between two trends loyalty to the nation state and to the wider loyalty of the ummah The cold war is over and yet thanks to the clash of ideas and the conflict of ethnic and national loyalties the world might be heading for a major re shaping of its political map This study seeks to come into grips with the dilemma of nationalism versus internationalism in three major traditions of the world liberalism Marxism and Islam The work underscores the necessity of a genuine international understanding and dialogue as a necessary step towards building a more peaceful world order

A Muslim Archipelago Max L. Gross,2007 Southeast Asia continues to beckon policymakers and scholars alike to revisit its history in spite of the tomes of appraisals already written deconstructive or otherwise Because of a significant presence of Muslims in the region and particularly in the wake of 9 11 it invariably attracts the attention of foreign powers drawn by the specter of terrorism and focused on rooting out radical Islamist groups said to be working with al Qaeda Dr Max Gross has written an impressive account of the role of Islam in the politics of Southeast Asia anchored by a strong historical perspective and a comprehensive treatment of current affairs The result is very much a post 9 11 book The origins of Jemaah Islamiyah and its connections with al Qaeda are carefully detailed Yet unlike much of the post 9 11 analysis of the Muslim world Dr Gross s research has been successful in placing the phenomenon of terrorism within a larger perspective While recognizing that al Qaeda s influence on regional terror networks remains unclear it behooves us to be reminded that regardless of the nature and extent of the linkages to dismiss terrorism as a serious threat to security would be na ve to the point of recklessness The Muslim Archipelago is a profoundly Islamic region and Jemaah Islamiyah is only a small portion of this reality The attention Dr Gross pays to ABIM in Malaysia of which I was a part and the civil Islam movement in Indonesia of which the late Nurcholish Madjid was a principal spokesman is greatly appreciated Those unfamiliar with the background and role of the traditional Islamic PAS party in Malaysia as well as the Darul Islam movement in Indonesia will find the author s account highly beneficial The MNLF the MILF and Abu Sayyaf in the Philippines as well as the various Islamic movements in southern Thailand are also carefully explained
