Politics Of Power Freeport In Suhartos Indonesia:

The Politics of Power Denise Leith, 2002-10-31 Even as Major General Suharto consolidated his power in the bloodletting of the mid sixties Freeport McMoRan the American transnational mining company signed a contract with the new military regime the first foreign company to do so Today in the isolated jungles of West Papua a region that is increasingly restive under Indonesian rule Freeport lays claim to the world s largest gold mine and one of its richest and most profitable copper mines This volume is the first major analysis of the company s presence in Indonesia It takes a close and detailed look at the changing nature of power relations between Freeport and Suharto the Indonesian military the traditional landowners the Amungme and Kamoro and environmental and human rights groups It examines how and why an American company despite such rigorous home state laws was able to operate in West Papua with impunity for nearly thirty years and adapt to indeed thrive in a business culture anchored in corruption collusion and nepotism West Papua & Indonesia Since Suharto Peter King, 2004 This book reviews the long guerilla struggle of the Organisasi Papua Merdeka OPM for a Free Papua and traces the rise of a non violent independence movement alongside it the Papua Council following the fall from power of Indonesia s military dictator General Suharto in 1998 Democratization in Post-Suharto Indonesia Marco Bunte, Andreas Ufen, 2008-08-21 In May 1998 the fall of Suharto marked the beginning of a difficult and multi layered transition process It was accompanied by intensified conflict in the political arena a dramatic increase of ethnic and religious violence and the danger of national disintegration Ten years after the collapse of the New Order Indonesia has made significant progress however the quality of democracy is still low Theoretically innovative and empirically sound this book is an in depth analysis of the Indonesian reform process since 1998 Marco Bunte and Andreas Ufen bring together a selection of noted Indonesia experts to provide new insights into the restructuring of core state institutions the empowerment of Parliament the slow and difficult evolution of the rule of law and the transfer of power to locally elected regional governments decentralization Based on the results of extensive fieldwork Democratization in Post Suharto Indonesia will be an important read for scholars engaged in research on Indonesia and the politics of Southeast Asia Indonesia's Failure in Papua Emir Chairullah, 2021-12-28 Chairullah investigates how the political social and economic interests of national and local elites were negotiated in the formulation and early stages of Special Autonomy in Papua Province Indonesia The Papuan case lends support to the current conception of elite theory which considers the influence of actors and dynamics beyond power elites in the decision making process The failure of the policy implementation as a conflict reduction strategy in the Papuan case can be attributed to the dynamics of elite configurations during the negotiation and early implementation stages Chairullah presents two significant new findings for research on Papuan Special Autonomy Firstly that secret negotiations were held between Papuan and national elites during Abdurrahman Wahid s presidency and these were crucial in reducing separatist sentiment in Papua Secondly that the United States through Freeport McMoRan strongly influenced the Special Autonomy negotiation process The actions of national elites in Jakarta led to widespread disappointment about the policy at all levels in Papua and the subsequent escalation of separatist sentiment based on Papuan ethnic identity An important book for scholars of Indonesian politics and society and especially those with a particular interest in the Papuan conflict The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume The Political Economy of Indonesia's Economic Development, Volume I Sangaralingam Ramesh,2025-09-26 Spanning over four millennia this sweeping historical analysis traces Indonesia s economic journey from prehistoric agrarian societies to the democratic challenges of the 21st century Integrating political economy history and development studies the book offers a rich multi layered account of how geography empire trade colonialism revolution and reform have shaped the world s largest archipelagic nation The first volume charts Indonesia s transformation from early maritime kingdoms and colonial exploitation to the rise of the New Order and its dramatic collapse in the wake of the Asian Financial Crisis It interrogates the interplay between power and production foreign influence and domestic agency and growth and inequality laying bare the forces that have driven distorted and disrupted Indonesia s economic development This book is essential reading for scholars students policymakers and anyone interested in Southeast Asian development global capitalism and the long term dynamics that shape emerging economies The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia John H. Walker, Glenn Banks, Minako Sakai,2009-01-01 The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia is a thought provoking examination of local politics and the dynamics of power at Indonesia s geographic and social margins After the fall of Suharto in 1998 and the introduction of a policy of decentralization in 2001 local stakeholders secured and consolidated decision making power and set about negotiating new relations with Jakarta The volume deals with power struggles and local national tensions looking among other things at resource control the historical roots of regional identity politics and issues relating to Chinese Indonesians The authors develop information in ways that transcend the post colonial territorial boundaries of Indonesia in the Malay Indonesian archipelago and use case studies to show how the changes described have galvanized Indonesian politics at the cultural and geographical peripheries The Territories of Indonesia Iem Brown,2004-06-17 Presents an up to date in depth survey of the region Political Change and Territoriality in Indonesia Ehito Kimura,2013 What makes large multi ethnic states hang together At a time when ethnic and religious conflict has gained global prominence the territorial organization of states is a critical area of study This book explores how multi ethnic and geographically dispersed states grapple with questions of territorial administration and change While some scholars argue that states organize and change territorial administration to maximize political and economic efficiency this book argues otherwise Conflict, Violence, and Displacement in Indonesia Eva-Lotta E. Hedman,2018-05-31 This volume foregrounds the dynamics of displacement and the experiences of internal refugees uprooted by conflict and violence in Indonesia Contributors examine internal displacement in the context of militarized conflict and violence in East Timor Aceh and Papua and in other parts of Outer Island Indonesia during the transition from authoritarian rule The volume also explores official and humanitarian discourses on displacement and their significance for the politics of representation Resource Nationalism in Indonesia Eve Warburton,2023-11-15 In Resource Nationalism in Indonesia Eve Warburton traces nationalist policy trajectories in Indonesia back to the preferences of big local business interests Commodity booms often prompt more nationalist policy styles in resource rich countries Usually this nationalist push weakens once a boom is over But in Indonesia a major global exporter of coal palm oil nickel and other minerals the intensity of nationalist policy interventions increased after the early twenty first century commodity boom came to an end Equally puzzling the state applied nationalist policies unevenly across the land and resource sectors Resource Nationalism in Indonesia explains these trends by examining the economic and political benefits that accrue to domestic business actors when commodity prices soar Warburton shows how the centrality of patronage to Indonesia s democratic political economy and the growing importance of mining and palm oil as drivers of export earnings enhanced both the instrumental and structural power of major domestic companies giving them new influence over the direction of nationalist change MNCs in Global Politics John Mikler,Karsten Ronit,2020-12-25 This authoritative book examines the power of multinational corporations MNCs to exert influence in global politics Focusing on the actions and motivations of MNCs it explores how they attempt to shape the political issues that affect them Papua Bilveer Singh,2017-09-08 The Papuan conflict has been on the international radar screen since Indonesia became an independent state in 1945 Since the surrender of the territory of Papua to Indonesia in 1962 a low intensity military conflict has been building Most Papuans believed that their right to self determination was sacrificed on the altar of geopolitics Later when East Timor seceded peacefully from Indonesia Papuans expected the same right When this did not happen the conflict intensified In this pivotal work Bilveer Singh examines the history of the Papuan struggle and approaches to conflict resolution through the framework of its geopolitical implications Asserting that the Papuans were treated unjustly by Indonesia and the international community it is not surprising that many have come down squarely on the side of Papuan independence as a way out of the imbroglio While to some extent the Papuan s case cannot be denied definite political and strategic realities should not be ignored Unfortunately for the Papuans their territory has immense geopolitical geostrategic and economic significance not only for Indonesia but also for others such as the United States China Australia and a number of European countries Papua is wealthy under populated and backward in terms of human resource development Its future as a distinct entity is in real danger as the Papuans are becoming the minority in their own homeland Due to the asymmetry of power the Papuans struggle has not made a breakthrough that would force Indonesia to rethink the future of the territory in any fundamental way In order to unravel the dynamics involving Papuan separatism this study describes the Papuan political landscape Singh explains what makes Papua unique and how its makeup has affected the territory s political dynamics He analyzes the emergence of Papua as a geopolitical trophy calling into question the degree to which Papuan nationalism has crystallized. Finally, he questions whether Papua is emerging as a regional flashpoint and in view of its geopolitical importance, the various options available. Papua Geopolitics and the Quest for Nationhood will be of interest to scholars of international relations, comparative politics of Indonesia and the Asia Pacific, and policymaking.

World Bank Group interactions with environmentalists Susan Park, 2013-07-19. This book shows how environmentalists have shaped the world's largest multilateral development lender, investment financier, and political risk insurer to take up sustainable development. The book challenges an emerging consensus over international organisational change to argue that international organisations (IOs) are influenced by their social structure and may change their practices to reflect previously antithetical norms such as sustainable development. This important text locates sources of organisational change with environmentalists, thus demonstrating the ways in which non-state actors can effect change within large intergovernmental organisations through socialisation. It combines a theoretically sophisticated account of international organisation change with detailed empirical evidence of change in one issue area across three institutions. The book will be of interest to academics, postgraduate and upper undergraduate students in international relations, international political economy, environmental politics, development and globalisation studies, and geography, as well as policy makers, international bureaucrats, and development practitioners.

Encyclopedia of War Crimes and Genocide Leslie Alan Horvitz, Christopher Catherwood, 2014-05-14. Entries address topics related to genocide, crimes against humanity, and peace and human rights violations, profile perpetrators including Joseph Stalin, Pol Pot, and Idi Amin, and discuss institutions set up to prosecute these crimes in countries around the world.

Corporate Social Responsibility and Natural Resource Conflict Kylie McKenna, 2015-10-23. This book examines the possibilities and limitations of corporate social responsibility in minimising the violent conflict often associated with natural resource exploitation. Through detailed and penetrating empirical analysis, the author skilfully asks why previous corporate social responsibility practices have not always achieved their aims. This theme is explored through an analysis of two of the most complex and protracted conflicts linked to natural resources in the Asia Pacific region: Bougainville, Papua New Guinea, and West Papua, Indonesia. Drawing on first-hand accounts of corporate executives and communities affected by resource conflict, this book documents the translation of global corporate social responsibility into local peace. Covering topics as diverse as post-colonialism, law, revenue distribution, security, the environment, and customary reconciliation, this ambitious text reveals how and why current corporate social responsibility initiatives may be unable to assist extractive companies avoid social conflict. The study concludes that this is attributable to the failure of extractive companies to respond to the social and environmental issues of most concern to local host communities. The idea is that extractive companies could actively contribute to peace building if they were to engage with the interdependencies between business activity and the root causes of conflict. What sets this book apart is that it offers a holistic framework for extractive companies to engage with the complexity of resource conflict Interdependent Engagement is an integrated model of corporate social responsibility that encourages extractive companies to deal with the underlying causes of resource conflict rather than applying solutions or critiques of their symptoms Dreams Made Small Jenny Munro,2018-05-22 For the last five decades the Dani of the central highlands of West Papua along with other Papuans have struggled with the oppressive conditions of Indonesian rule Formal education holds the promise of escape from stigmatization and violence Dreams Made Small offers an in depth ethnographic look at journeys of education among young Dani men and women asking us to think differently about education as a trajectory for transformation and belonging and ultimately revealing how dreams of equality are shaped and reshaped in the face of multiple constraints Working with Nature against Poverty Budy P Resosudarmo,2003-08-01 With its low incomes lagging social indicators and widespread poverty eastern Indonesia epitomizes the problems of development in Indonesia The challenge is to advance the economy But this means more intensive use of natural resources placing pressure on the region s unique ecosystems This book explores the trade offs and synergies between development social concerns and the environment in Papua Maluku and East Nusa Tenggara It is written by leading scholars and experts on the region They investigate the dilemmas of fishing in eastern Indonesia s seas the strategies and challenges for mining and forestry and the efforts to tackle biodiversity conservation and climate change The book lays out the challenges for development public administration and public health in Papua It maps Maluku s road to recovery from conflict And it examines ways to alleviate poverty in the desperately poor province of East Nusa Tenggara The book provides an overview of the economy of each of these provinces making it an essential resource for anyone interested in the challenges of development and environment in eastern Indonesia Enacting the Corporation Marina Welker,2014-03-21 What are corporations and to whom are they responsible Anthropologist Marina Welker draws on two years of research at Newmont Mining Corporation s Denver headquarters and its Batu Hijau copper and gold mine in Sumbawa Indonesia to address these questions Against the backdrop of an emerging Corporate Social Responsibility movement and changing state dynamics in Indonesia she shows how people enact the mining corporation in multiple ways as an ore producer employer patron promoter of sustainable development religious sponsor auditable organization foreign imperialist and environmental threat Rather than assuming that corporations are monolithic profit maximizing subjects Welker turns to anthropological theories of personhood to develop an analytic model of the corporation as an unstable collective subject with multiple authors boundaries and interests Enacting the Corporation demonstrates that corporations are constituted through continuous struggles over relations with and responsibilities to local communities workers activists governments contractors and shareholders Proceedings of the 3rd Borobudur International Symposium on Humanities and Social Science 2021 (BIS-HSS 2021) Muji Setiyo,Agus Setiawan,Veni Soraya Dewi,Fitriana Yulastuti,Chrisna Bagus Edhita Praja,Lintang Muliawanti,Zulfikar Bagus Pambuko,2023-02-10 This is an open access book
