The Comparative Method and Civil-Military Relations J. 'Bayo Adekanye, 2024-10-11 Comprising critical writings in civil military relations theory and research this book of essays integrates the ideas and insights drawn from political science particularly its subfields of comparative politics theory and methodology both normative and empirical with those from the combined disciplines of philosophy of science history sociology and development studies bringing out the relevance of these ideas and insights for understanding and analysing the issues central to the place and role of military in the Nigerian society This book will be useful to students academics journalists and activists working on Nigeria in particular and Africa in general Print edition not for sale in Nigeria Human Rights, Inc. Joseph R. Slaughter, 2009-08-25 In this timely study of the historical ideological and formal interdependencies of the novel and human rights Joseph Slaughter demonstrates that the twentieth century rise of world literature and international human rights law are related phenomena Slaughter argues that international law shares with the modern novel a particular conception of the human individual The Bildungsroman the novel of coming of age fills out this image offering a conceptual vocabulary a humanist social vision and a narrative grammar for what the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and early literary theorists both call the free and full development of the human personality Revising our received understanding of the relationship between law and literature Slaughter suggests that this narrative form has acted as a cultural surrogate for the weak executive authority of international law naturalizing the assumptions and conditions that make human rights appear commonsensical As a kind of novelistic correlative to human rights law the Bildungsroman has thus been doing some of the sociocultural work of enforcement that the law cannot do for itself This analysis of the cultural work of law and of the social work of literature challenges traditional Eurocentric histories of both international law and the dissemination of the novel Taking his point of departure in Goethe's Wilhelm Meister Slaughter focuses on recent postcolonial versions of the coming of age story to show how the promise of human rights becomes legible in narrative and how the novel and the law are complicit in contemporary projects of globalization in colonialism neoimperialism humanitarianism and the spread of multinational consumer capitalism Slaughter raises important practical and ethical questions that we must confront in advocating for human rights and reading world literature imperatives that today more than ever are intertwined The Cold War and National Assertion in Southeast Asia Matthew Foley, 2009-12-16 This book is a detailed case study of post colonial transition in Asia in the context of the emerging Cold War it charts British and American approaches to Burma between the country's independence from the United Kingdom in 1948
