Politics In New Zealand:

Politics in New Zealand Richard Mulgan, 2013-11-01 This revised edition of a classic introduction to the New Zealand political constitutional and electoral system covers recent elections and the constitutional and legal changes that have attracted the attention of the international community Using a pluralist theory of the state it describes the history and practice of New Zealand government Political parties and special interest groups the governmental hierarchy and the public sector are discussed with information on how these different influences affect the political scene The historical perspective provided offers a vision of the evolutionary nature of New Zealand politics and the interactions that drive changes

Politics in New Zealand Frank Parsons, 1904      New Zealand Politics and Social Patterns Robert McDonald Chapman, Robert Chapman, 1999      Transforming the Politics of Mobility and Migration in Aotearoa New Zealand Jessica Terruhn, Shemana Cassim, 2023-08-08 Transforming the Politics of Mobility and Migration in Aotearoa New Zealand is a future focused edited collection that formulates alternative paradigms that can lead to a more just and ethical politics of mobility and migration in Aotearoa New Zealand Examining a variety of topics the book addresses the challenges of structural discrimination integration and migrant rights framed within larger regional and global concerns Collectively the contributors advance perspectives on social justice and migrant rights specifically addressing issues of ethics collective well being and solidarities The collection brings together leading and early career scholars paired with practitioners in the migrations sector Developing conceptual knowledge in migration studies it fills a gap in the sparse literature on the politics of migration in Aotearoa New Zealand While theoretically engaged and of value to the research community the book also follows recent calls to better communicate the complexities of migration to policy makers with accessible chapters that address a range of issues faced by migrants and speak to a wide audience      New Zealand's Foreign Policy Under The

Jacinda Ardern Government: Facing The Challenge Of A Disrupted World Robert G Patman, Dennis Wesselbaum, Balazs Kiglics, Peter Grace, 2024-03-14 The purpose of this book is to examine the foreign policy of Jacinda Ardern s New Zealand Government between 2020 and early 2023 when the COVID 19 pandemic intersected with an evolving and often tumultuous post Cold War global environment This context witnessed the erosion of an international rules based order and the renewal of great power competition In particular the Indo Pacific has become a contested strategic space which impacted on New Zealand s foreign policy interests As a self proclaimed small state New Zealand faced distinct challenges the Ardern Government formulated a distinctive foreign policy that drew on the success of its handling of the pandemic as well as Aotearoa New Zealand s indigenous values and emphasised the importance of a good international reputation strong diplomatic networks and multilateral cooperation to maintain and grow its influence This interdisciplinary volume brings together academics policymakers and practitioners and provides essential reading for anyone interested in how relatively small states such as New Zealand can navigate significant foreign policy challenges in an increasingly complex and contested system of international relations      Democracy and Power in New Zealand R. G. Mulgan,1984      New Zealand Under MMP Jonathan Boston,1996 Prepared as part of a three year research project begun in mid 1995 based at the Victoria University of Wellington and known as The New Zealand political change project the impact of electoral system change in a small democracy P x      Sex Work and the New Zealand Model Armstrong, Lynzi,Abel, Gillian,2021-07-14 Using the evidence from New Zealand this unique collection examines how decriminalisation is experienced by different groups of sex workers and reveals the enduring challenges for sex workers in this context This is an invaluable contribution to the urgent debates regarding sex work laws and the global struggle to realise sex worker s rights      New Zealand Politics in Perspective Hyam Gold,1985      Political Marketing and Management in the 2017 New Zealand Election Jennifer Lees-Marshment,2018-07-19 This book reveals the market research strategy branding and communication behind the unpredictable 2017 New Zealand election result which saw Jacinda Ardern elected Labour leader just 8 weeks before the election to become Prime Minister Utilising rich data sources that include a 250 000 Vote Compass survey and interviews with key political advisors it explores the alignment of the policy of National Labour the Greens and NZ First with party supporters demographic segments and undecided voters It also analyses the leadership communication and branding of the leaders Bill English Jacinda Ardern and Andrew Little as well as the advertising by minor parties ACT the Greens United Future and the Maori Party The book provides advice for practitioners such as focus on being responsive communicate delivery competence differentiate in policy and advertising build an energetic and charismatic leader brand and be flexible when planning      Neoliberalism and its Impact on the Women's Movement in Aotearoa/New Zealand Julia Schuster,2022-02-28 This book investigates how neoliberalism shaped the women s movement in Aotearoa New Zealand from the mid 1980s to late 2010s and looks at the future of the movement Based on an empirical study that encompasses the three levels of the movement individualised feminism the work of women s organisations and state feminism it explores how neoliberal rationality promoted by governments over three decades has impacted feminist identification and activism as well as political opportunities for organisations and institutions working within the movement Exploring the diversity of feminist voices the author analyses intersectional post colonial and intergenerational debates within the movement in the context of neoliberalism s influence on feminist values and strategies and examines whether neoliberal rationality succeeded in depoliticising individualising and fragmenting the movement The book comes to the conclusion that despite some severe drawbacks internal conflicts and changes of strategies the women s movement in Aotearoa New Zealand has survived the impact of neoliberalism This book will be of interest to scholars of Gender Studies Sociology Political Science and Women s History as well as feminist activists      Democracy in New Zealand Raymond Miller,2015-08-01 New Zealand is one of the world s oldest democracies for men and women Maori and Pakeha with one of the highest political participation rates But from MMP to leadership primaries spin doctors to dirty politics the country s political system is undergoing rapid change

Examining the constitution and the political system cabinet and parliament political parties leadership and elections Raymond Miller draws on data and analysis including from the 2014 election to tackle critical questions Who runs New Zealand Does political apathy threaten democracy Will new parties have an ongoing impact Do we now have a presidential democracy A Modern Guide to Local and Regional Politics Copus, Colin, Kerley, Richard, Jones, Alistair, 2022-02-04 Utilising international material to explore the roles functions tasks responsibilities powers and actions of intra state politicians and the institutions to which they are elected this insightful book examines how local and regional authorities are pivotal in the democratic and governing arrangements of different countries New Zealand's Global Responsibility László Szöllősi-Cira, 2022-01-01 New Zealand often plays leading roles in implementing progressive ideas This book investigates what explanatory factors facilitated the country to become such a relevant normative actor New Zealand's case suggests that democratic institutions skilled bureaucracy and ambitious politicians play the crucial roles to create global influence The case studies included in this book develop the argument that small states can better influence international politics by focusing on domestic issues In contributing to discourses on New Zealand's possible future role the book is an invaluable resource to intellectuals researchers and students alike A Bibliography of the Literature Relating to New Zealand Thomas Morland Hocken, 1909 New Zealand's Geopolitics and the US-China Competition Reuben Steff, 2025-01-31 This book advances the establishment of a contemporary New Zealand geopolitical tradition It details and examines New Zealand's geopolitical reality in an increasingly fractured global security dis order defined by interdependent strategic competition and emerging multipolarity A centrepiece is the multidimensional US China Great Power Competition that has the makings of a Second Cold War This has immense implications for New Zealand's greater region the Indo Pacific and its immediate area the South Pacific The latter is of existential importance to New Zealand becoming an active area of strategic competition as China projects its influence southwards and New Zealand Australia and the United States respond In this context New Zealand's location is increasingly geopolitically relevant and the idea it occupies a benign security environment has now been cast into the dustbin of history The decisions it makes presently will determine the country's prosperity and geostrategic security for decades Geopolitical theory along with a detailed empirical account of strategic competition in the Indo Pacific and South Pacific offers a clear exposition of the implications of US China competition for New Zealand This directs us to the nation's material characteristics and imperatives that flow from it The book also appraises the country's strategic options and indicates how and why Wellington's approach has shifted over time from hedging between the US and China to increasingly balancing against Beijing's efforts to alter the global and regional status quo Through analysis and provocation this book marks a major new contribution that will interest policymakers academics students and everyday citizens Global Indigenous Politics Sheryl Lightfoot, 2016-05-20 This book examines how Indigenous peoples rights and Indigenous rights movements represent an important and often overlooked shift in international politics a shift that powerful states are actively resisting in a multitude of ways While Indigenous peoples are often dismissed as marginal non state actors this book argues that far from insignificant global Indigenous politics is potentially forging major changes in the international system as the implementation of Indigenous peoples rights requires a complete re thinking and re ordering of sovereignty territoriality liberalism and human rights After thirty years of intense effort the transnational Indigenous rights movement achieved passage of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in September 2007 This book asks Why did movement need to fight so hard to secure passage of a bare minimum standard on Indigenous rights Why is it that certain states are so threatened by an emerging international Indigenous rights regime How does the emerging Indigenous rights regime change the international status quo The questions are addressed by exploring how Indigenous politics at the global level compels a new direction of thought in IR by challenging some of its fundamental tenets It is argued that global Indigenous politics is a perspective of IR that with the recognition of Indigenous peoples collective rights to land and self determination complicates the structure of international politics in new and important ways challenging both Westphalian notions of state sovereignty and the neo liberal foundations of states and the international human rights consensus Qualitative case studies of Canadian and New Zealand Indigenous rights based on original field research analyse both the potential and the limits of these challenges This work will be of interest to graduates and scholars in international relations Indigenous studies international organizations IR theory and social movements
