Politics Of Ethnicity In Settler Societies States Of Unease:

The Politics of Ethnicity in Settler Societies D. Pearson, 2001-03-13 Why have settler societies moved from a traditional position of ethnic insularity to being at the forefront of multicultural change This question is addressed through comparative study of Australia Canada and New Zealand set against the USA and UK experience The Politics of Ethnicity in Settler Societies explores the linked processes of aboriginal dispossession settler state formation and international migration and argues these historical foundations are still closely related to recent trends in ethnic politics Contemporary topics surveyed include multiculturalism national identity sovereignty globalization and citizenship The Politics of Ethnicity in Settler Societies D. Pearson, 2001-03-13 Why have settler societies moved from a traditional position of ethnic insularity to being at the forefront of multicultural change This question is addressed through comparative study of Australia Canada and New Zealand set against the USA and UK experience The Politics of Ethnicity in Settler Societies explores the linked processes of aboriginal dispossession settler state formation and international migration and argues these historical foundations are still closely related to recent trends in ethnic politics Contemporary topics surveyed include multiculturalism national identity sovereignty globalization and citizenship

The New Politics of Immigration and the End of Settler Societies Catherine Dauvergne, 2016-03-21 This book analyzes the contemporary politics of immigration from the asylum crisis to Islamophobia multiculturalism and post colonialism Canadian Politics, Sixth Edition James Bickerton, Alain-G. Gagnon, 2014-03-31 The sixth edition of Canadian Politics offers a comprehensive introduction to Canadian government and politics by a highly respected group of political scientists For this edition the editors have organized the book into six parts Part I examines Canadian citizenship and political identities while Parts II and III deal with Canadian political institutions including Aboriginal governments and contain new chapters on the public service and Quebec Parts IV and V shift the focus to the political process discussing issues pertaining to culture and values parties and elections media groups movements gender and diversity The chapters on Parliament bureaucracy political culture political communications social movements and media are new to this edition Finally three chapters in the last section of the book analyze components of Canadian politics that have been gaining prominence during the last decade the effects of globalization the shifting ground of Canadian American relations and the place of Canada in the changing world order Of the 21 chapters in this edition 9 are new and the remainder have been thoroughly revised and updated Canadian Politics James Bickerton, Alain Gagnon, 2009-01-01 The new fifth edition of Canadian Politics continues the work of earlier editions in offering a comprehensive introduction to Canadian government and politics by a widely recognized and highly respected group of political scientists writing about subjects on which they are acknowledged experts For this edition the editors have organized the book into four sections Part I Citizenship Identities and Values Part II Institutions Part III Democracy and Representation and Part IV Canada in the World The fourth section develops a focus on the diverse and increasingly important influences of globalization on the

Canadian polity the environment and the role of Canada in the world Of the eighteen chapters nine are completely new and six new authors appear including Martin Papillon on Aboriginal governments Peter J Stoett on Canadian international environmental policy and Andrew F Cooper on Afghanistan and Canadian foreign policy The remaining chapters have been thoroughly revised and updated

Citizenship Peter Kivisto, Thomas Faist, 2015-08-12 A significant addition to the growing body of literature on citizenship this wide ranging overview focuses on the importance and changing nature of citizenship It introduces the varied discourses and theories that have arisen in recent years and looks toward future scholarship in the field Offers an analytical assessment of the various thematic discourses and provides guidance in pulling together those discrete themes into a larger more comprehensive framework Identifies the four broadly conceived themes that shape the many discourses on contemporary citizenship inclusion erosion withdrawal and expansion Includes a thorough introduction to the subject

Managing Ethnic Diversity Reza Hasmath, 2016-05-13 The management of ethnic diversity has become a topical and often controversial subject in recent times with much debate surrounding multiculturalism as a systematic and comprehensive response for dealing with ethnic diversity This book engages with these debates examining the tangible outcomes of multiculturalism as a policy and philosophy in a range of traditional and newer multi ethnic nations Exploring the questions of whether multiculturalism can promote ethnic harmony employment equity and trust between various minority and non minority groups Managing Ethnic Diversity also adopts a comparative perspective on the experiences of multiculturalism in various international contexts in order to examine whether lessons learned from some jurisdictions can be applied to others With an international team of experts presenting the latest research from the UK North America Europe China and Australasia a truly global dialogue is fostered with regard to the utility and limits of multiculturalism in local and comparative contexts As such Managing Ethnic Diversity will appeal to social scientists interested in race and ethnicity multiculturalism and migration

Handbook of the Sociology of Racial and Ethnic Relations Hernan Vera, Joe R Feagin, 2007-08-03 The study of racial and ethnic relations has become one of the most studied aspects in sociology and sociological research In both North America and Europe many traditional cultures are feeling threatened by immigrants from Latin America Africa and Asia Sociology is at the hub of the human sciences concerned with racial and ethnic relations Since this discipline is made of multiple paradigms and methodological orientations it has been able to make relevant contributions to disciplines ranging from individual psychology social psychology and psychiatry to economics anthropology linguistics cultural studies health care delivery and education

Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis Cashmore, 2004-03-01 Developed from the critically acclaimed and commercially successful Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations now in its fourth edition Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies has been assembled by a world class team of international scholars led by Ellis Cashmore to provide an authoritative single volume reference work on all aspects of race and ethnic studies From Aboriginal Australians to xenophobia Nelson Mandela to Richard Wagner sexuality to racial profiling the Encyclopedia is organized alphabetically and reflects cultural diversity in a global context The entries range from succinct 400 word definitions to in depth 2000 word essays to provide comprehensive coverage of all the key terms concepts and debates important figures both historical and contemporary landmark cases historical events Although unafraid to engage with cutting edge theory the Encyclopedia is uncluttered by jargon and has been written in a lucid facts fronted style to offer an accessible introduction to race and ethnic studies The Encyclopedia is also fully cross referenced and thoroughly indexed with most entries followed by annotated up to date suggestions for further reading to guide the user to the key sources It is destined to become an essential resource for scholars and students of race and ethnic studies as well as a handy reference for journalists and others working in the field

Mixed Race Identities in Asia and the Pacific Zarine L. Rocha, 2015-10-08 Mixed race is becoming an important area for research and there is a growing body of work in the North American and British contexts However understandings and experiences of mixed race across different countries and regions are not often explored in significant depth New Zealand and Singapore provide important contexts for investigation as two multicultural yet structurally divergent societies Within these two countries mixed race describes a particularly interesting label for individuals of mixed Chinese and European parentage This book explores the concept of mixed race for people of mixed Chinese and European descent looking at how being Chinese and or European can mean many different things in different contexts By looking at different communities in Singapore and New Zealand it investigates how individuals of mixed heritage fit into or are excluded from these communities Increasingly individuals of mixed ancestry are opting to identify outside of traditionally defined racial categories posing a challenge to systems of racial classification and to sociological understandings of race As case studies Singapore and New Zealand provide key examples of the complex relationship between state categorization and individual identities The book explores the divergences between identity and classification and the ways in which identity labels affect experiences of mixed race in everyday life Personal stories reveal the creative and flexible ways in which people cross boundaries and the everyday negotiations between classification heritage experience and nation in defining identity The study is based on qualitative research including in depth interviews with people of mixed heritage in both countries Filling an important gap in the literature by using an Asia Pacific dimension this study of race and ethnicity will appeal to students and scholars of mixed race studies ethnicity Chinese diaspora and cultural anthropology
