Politics Of School Leadership:

Ethics and Politics in School Leadership Jeffrey Brierton, Brenda Graham, Daniel R. Tomal, Robert K. Wilhite, 2016-01-05
The authors are national school resource experts and have teamed up to write a comprehensive book on ethics and politics. It covers everything you need to know about ethical leadership and dealing with politics in schools. The book starts with an ethical framework and moves on to politics with unions, administrators, and School Boards with suggested strategies for effective conflict resolution. There are realistic cases in every chapter of the book with the final chapter focused on comprehensive ethical and political cases to test the reader in addressing such issues in the educational or related settings.

Benefits and Features of Book A comprehensive book covering all aspects of ethics and school politics. Each chapter's objectives are aligned with the ELCC, InTASC, ISLCC, and TLEC standards used for accreditation and alignment in program content. Many federal and various state data sources are included. Each chapter contains a comprehensive case study and exercises for practical application. Provides a blend of academic, theoretical, and practical perspectives in handling and dealing in ethical and political situations. Several handy resources are included in the appendices.

Effective School District Leadership Kenneth Leithwood, 1995-02-16
School districts in both Canada and the United States provide the sites for this research. Many of these districts were in the midst of reform or restructuring initiatives, and these initiatives became an important context within which to understand the work of district leaders. The authors describe how effective superintendents work with their immediate staffs, elected trustees, and school-based administrators. Each chapter examines the meaning of effective district leadership from different perspectives. Common to almost all of the chapters is an appreciation of the exquisitely political nature of the superintendent's work. Contributors to the volume include Edward A. Holdaway and Anthony Genge, Derek J. Allison, Patricia A. Allison, and Helen A. McHenry. Kenneth Leithwood and Roseanne Steinbach, Frances Wills, and Kent Peterson, Joseph Murphy, Richard G. Townsend, Donald Musella, Mark Holmes, Stephen B. Lawton, Joyce Scane, and Shihui Wang, and Kenneth Leithwood.

The Politics of Leadership George J. Petersen, Lance Fusarelli, 2006-07-01
The primary contribution of this book is not its advocacy of a specific position but rather its objective analysis of cogent topics. The content prompts us to consider governance in relation to quality education and to ponder alternative policy strategies that have yet to be fully evaluated. As a young doctoral student more than a few years ago, William Van Til, an eminent scholar and a mentor, reminded me almost daily that members of the education profession had a moral responsibility to address the most difficult questions about education and democracy. These enduring queries he argued extended to determining how this critical social service should be organized and controlled and to determining the appropriate roles for administrators and teachers. Those in our profession who fail to heed his advice by remaining indifferent to these philosophical dilemmas should consider Plato's long-standing warning: One of the penalties for refusing to participate in politics is that you end up being governed by your inferiors.

Successful School Leadership James W. Guthrie, Patrick

Jude Schuermann, 2010 The introductory volume in the Peabody Educational Leadership Series Successful School Leadership provides readers with a solid overview of the primary topics that current and aspiring leaders will be faced with when making decisions regarding education organizations Blending leadership theory and practice this foundational leadership text provides cutting edge content in each of the key domains of responsibility facing current and aspiring school leaders while weaving case studies current media articles and reflection point into each chapter to enhance student synthesis and application The book is divided into four frames of reference for optimal learning Planning Politics Performance and Power the functions with which educational leaders must continually grapple In each section readers are presented with information about what school leaders need to know to successfully surmount the modern challenges to education and instruction Section one provides a foundation for the book by discussing the evolving context of educational leadership and proposes a strategic orientation to leading educational organizations through continual cycles of appraisal analysis and action Section two delves into the important issues of governance politics finance and law as major contributors to the context of education and as levers by which school leaders can shape institutions Section three explores the various ways in which school leaders can assess and enhance the performance of their schools and educational organizations The final section of text provides students with information about educational leader strategies in the development of people partnering with communities and uses of power while the final two chapters give practical insights into the preparation for practicing strategic education leadership
