Polpop 2 Politics And Popular Culture In America Today:

Polpop James E. Combs, 1984 Polpop 2 James E. Combs, 1991 This book takes another look at politics and popular culture The author has tried to explain the politics of popular culture as part of historical and cultural processes helping the reader understand not only how popular culture has affected our politics but also where it is taking us The Reagan Range James E. Combs, 1993 Combs political science Valparaiso U tries to make sense of the Reagan presidency by linking it to the American popular culture that spawned and trained him and that he used so adeptly to his advantage No index Paper edition unseen 11 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Class and Politics in Malaysian and Singaporean Nation Building Muhamad M. N. Nadzri, 2025-05-23 Nadzri explores a range of factors that have influenced nation building in Malaysia and Singapore with principal emphasis on the importance of social and economic class In contrast to previous studies on nation building which overwhelmingly rely on the explanatory power of culture race and ethnic community the book foregrounds the importance of social and economic status The three main themes explored in this book are how the nation building projected in each country is driven by the class interests of its ruling elites how elections have impacted the politics of nation building and how each country's nation building policies are designed to build political loyalty and support for the ruling elites The comparability of analytical outcomes using the prism of class interests uncovers the limitations of the explanatory power of race ethnic community and culture in understanding the social and political dynamics of the two countries A valuable read for scholars and students of politics in Malaysia and Singapore that will also be of interest to scholars of comparative approaches to nation building Fast Food, Stock Cars, and Rock 'n' Roll George O. Carney, 1995 The only anthology of its kind this collection brings together classic and recent essays by thirteen leading geographers exploring American popular culture The essays examine music food sports politics architecture clothing and religion within the context of five themes of cultural geography region diffusions ecology integration and landscape A list of suggested readings follows each section Fast Food Stock Cars and Rock n Roll is an excellent text for introductory courses appealing to students through its discussion of such topics as grunge rock fast food and blue jeans A ^A Time for Choosing Jonathan Schoenwald, 2001-08-16 How did American conservatism little more than a collection of loosely related beliefs in the late 1940s and early 1950s become a coherent political and social force in the 1960s What political strategies originating during the decade enabled the modern conservative movement to flourish And how did mainstream and extremist conservatives frequently at odds over tactics and ideology each play a role in reshaping the Republican Party In the 1960s conservatives did nothing less than engineer their own revolution A Time for Choosing tells the remarkable story behind this transformation Where previous accounts of conservatism's rise tend to speed from 1964 through the start of the Reagan era in 1980 A Time for Choosing explores in dramatic detail how conservatives took immediate action following the Goldwater debacle William F Buckley Jr's 1965 bid for Mayor of New York City and Reagan's 1966 California governor's campaign helped turn the tide for electoral conservatism By decade s end independent splinter groups vied for the right to bear the conservative standard into the next decade demonstrating the movement s strength and vitality Although conservative ideology was not created during the 1960s its political components were Here then is the story of the rise of the modern conservative movement Provocative and beautifully written A Time for Choosing is a book for anyone interested in politics and history in the postwar era

Political Communication in Times of Crisis Oscar G. Luengo,2016-02-15 During the first years of the 21th century we have witnessed many events in our societies some of them without precedent at all in our recent history which have involved irreversible changes The attacks to the Twin Towers in New York City the resulting sequence of wars in the Middle East and the international financial collapse are very good examples of these happenings All these developments of international consequences have led to a new dimension of political communication and have reoriented some of its traditional meanings after a very clear dynamic has irrputed in our lives the crisis Many new dynamics have introduced significant changes and altered the nature of international relations the processes of policy making the governmental performances the citizen s demands the electoral campaigns and the geographical tensions among other socio political developments The revolutionary wave of demonstrations protests riots and civil wars in the Arab world starting in 2010 Arab spring the waves of human asylum seekers as a direct consequence of this reality the so called colour revolutions that overthrew governments in Georgia Ukraine Kyrgyzstan and Lebanon the territorial conflict between Russia and Ukraine the intensification of the anti globalisation movements the outraged protests around the world the conflict between Israel and Palestine one of the hardest and longest conflicts to date that has been reactivated over and over the terrorist attacks in Madrid London Boston and Paris or the recent global threat created by the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant ISIS all this leads societies to an unprecedented present in the realm of political communication Some of those topics are treated in this volume approaching the main questions with the googles of political communication since most of these developments have a very visible communicational dimension This book comprises several chapters divided into five different sections These stimulating pieces of research were presented by 30 international contributors from almost 10 different nationalities
