Vunamami Richard F. Salisbury, 2024-06-28

Vunamami attempts to isolate the dynamic that produces economic development by analyzing the interplay of forces over a ninety year period in a village in the Tolai area of New Guinea Theories that stress the importance of external forces in producing economic development or contrast traditional conservatism with innovative modernization view history through the eyes of outsiders and misconstrue the nature of traditional society This outside view sees change as a result of external pressures the local view regards outsiders only as triggers for processes of internal development political initiatives and the adaptation of technical innovations to local conditions spurred by political entrepreneurs and technological innovators in the community Richard F Salisbury argues that without internal changes technical innovations are uneconomical and destined to fail Vunamami is optimistic about the potentialities of internal social change for producing economic development without foreign aid This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1970     Area Handbook for Oceania John William Henderson, 1971 Social political economic and governmental aspects of Melanesia French Polynesia Micronesia     New Mana Matt Tomlinson, Ty P. K?wika Tengan, 2016-04-13 Mana a term denoting spiritual power is found in many Pacific Islands languages In recent decades the term has been taken up in New Age movements and online fantasy gaming In this book 16 contributors examine mana through ethnographic linguistic and historical lenses to understand its transformations in past and present The authors consider a range of contexts including Indigenous sovereignty movements Christian missions and Bible translations the commodification of cultural heritage and the dynamics of diaspora Their investigations move across diverse island groups Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu Fiji Tonga Samoa Hawai i and French Polynesia and into Australia North America and even cyberspace A key insight that the volume develops is that mana can be analysed most productively by paying close attention to its ethical and aesthetic dimensions Since the late nineteenth century mana has been an object of intense scholarly interest Writers in many fields including anthropology linguistics history religion philosophy and missiology have long debated how the term should best be understood The authors in this volume review mana's complex intellectual history but also describe the remarkable transformations going on in the present day as scholars activists church leaders artists and entrepreneurs take up mana in new ways     Out in Theory Ellen Lewin, William L. Leap, 2002-07-29 A companion volume to Out in the Field a benchmark examination of lesbian and gay experiences in anthropology Out in Theory presents lesbian and gay anthropology as a distinct specialization and addresses the theoretical issues that define the emerging field This compelling collection of essays details the scholarly and personal factors that affected the emergence of lesbian and gay anthropology and speculates on the directions it will take as it continues to grow and diversify Seeking to legitimize the field's scholarship and address issues in terminology the essays also define the lesbian and gay anthropology's scope and subject matter and locate factors that separate it from the wider concerns of the profession Specific essays track the emergence of lesbian and gay studies in social and cultural anthropology linguistics archaeology and in various areas of anthropological activism They also consider how feminist anthropology helped define the field and how transgendered experience queer theory and race and class studies are promoting new directions of inquiry within lesbian and gay anthropology     Transactions in Kinship Ivan Brady, 2019-09-30 A collection of essays that follows up on Adoption in Eastern Oceania by Vern Carroll Most were presented at a symposium during the First Annual Association for Social Anthropology in Oceania ASAO meeting in 1972     Peasants, Subsistence Ecology, and Development in the Highlands of Papua New Guinea Lawrence S. Grossman, 2014-07-14 Lawrence

S Grossman explores the far reaching implications of the conflicts between subsistence and commodity production in developing countries Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Deep Water Margaret C Rodman, 2021-10-28 This text looks at the importance of fisheries and their utilisation geopolitics and the political economy throughout the island states of the Pacific This is an account of fisheries development programs in two Vanuatu villages The author's goal is to provide an insight into the perspective of rural Ni Vanuatu on government projects designed to commoditize village fishing

The Household Economy Richard R Wilk, 2019-07-11 This book focuses on the economic decisions that must be made in the household It states that domestic activities are commonly grouped into two primary types one having to do with social reproduction the other with the production and consumption of foods

Tahitian Transformation Victoria S. Lockwood, 1993 As culturally diverse non Western communities are drawn into the international division of labour capitalism takes root in a number of ways This book describes how capitalism has become a part of the lives of rural Tahitians starting with the arrival of Westerners to the islands and detailing the nature of the transformation brought about by missionaries merchants and French colonisers a transformation whose pace has accelerated with the islands rapid modernisation and incorporation into the French welfare state
