Different people, different settings, different circumstances, but a common response to their situation at hand. They talked to God. Whatever they were experiencing: fear, uncertainty, sickness, celebration, confession, anger, these men and women of the Bible turned to prayer. In good times, bad times, and times in between, they chose to involve God. Their examples teach us how to pray, what to pray, when to pray, and why we pray. They help us understand more about how God responds to prayer and how prayer remarkably changes lives. In this study, we discuss the privilege and practice of prayer and how we learn to love to pray. We also look closely at twelve prayers of the Bible and consider how they can impact and strengthen our own personal prayer lives. Pursuing a heart of prayer is a daily ambition, hourly at times, and some days even minute to minute. The Bible teaches us that no matter what we face, the best way to get through it is to pray.

Prayer of the Heart Jean LaFrance, 1991. Praying God's Heart Alvin VanderGriend, Dr., 2013-11-19. Praying God's Heart is for anyone who wants to be more effective in intercession, praying for others and for God's kingdom to advance. Its 30 short chapters offer a thorough yet concise treatment of important issues related to intercessory prayer. Among the topics are: The role of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in intercession; The listening side of prayer; Praying kingdom prayers; The relationship of obedience to answered prayer; The power of praying Scripture; The prayer of faith. No generation has ever had as much knowledge about world conditions and problems as our day, says Alvin VanderGriend in Praying God's Heart. Along with that knowledge comes a responsibility to pray far and wide for the establishment of God's plan and purposes. Praying God's Heart will teach you how to more effectively come alongside God's purposes for your family, friends, church, and world as you learn to intercede for what is on His heart.
