Office of Strategic Services. Research and Analysis Branch,1944 Bewitched by Burma Anne Carter,2012 Spanning fifty years from the days of the British Raj to the granting of full independence after the Japanese conflict Bewitched by Burma tells a vivid and often humorous tale of the challenges of life in Burma faced by Anglican missionaries Setting out on the five week sea passage to Burma these men and women left comfortable but boring lives in Edwardian Britain in search of adventure Their task was to preach Christianity in a Buddhist land about which they knew little Once there they rapidly fell in love with the country its rich culture and warm people whom they grew to respect deeply From descriptions of tea on the lawn with the Viceroy to daily struggles with insects illness and climate and adventures with bullock carts and early motor cars their letters home contain fascinating vignettes of a long extinct colonial way of life alongside a daily life in Burma which is largely unchanged today Author and narrator Anne starts the book with stories of the myths and legends lying behind the country s past and recounts many memories from her childhood in Burma She also gives a key insight into its politics history and geography and reproduces a vivid first hand account of the devastating trek from Burma to India to escape the Japanese occupation written in the mid 1940s Her husband shared her interest in Burma having served there in the Indian army and some of his memories are included As Aung San Suu Kyi takes her rightful seat in parliament and Myanmar re emerges onto the world stage after many decades of exclusion Bewitched by Burma gives a unique insight into the country s complex past The book will appeal equally to today s travellers and business people to families of servicemen who served there and to those interested in the early life of the church and even in the introduction of Girlguiding Forty Years in Burma John Ebenezer Marks,William Charles Bertrand Purser,1917 Just Peace Theory Book One Valerie Elverton Dixon,2012-11 In these essays I often refer to social contracts such as the Declaration of Independence the Constitution of the United States the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other international conventions that describe a vision of just human relations especially in the area of culture and health care We do not live behind a veil of ignorance where we enter into contemplation of questions of right and wrong without an awareness of our own particularities Moreover we do not always determine what is right based on reason But we do make decisions every day about how we will live within the social contracts that govern our lives Many of us go along to get along with a let s not rock the boat preserve the status quocaution Then there are those of us who use the documents of our social contracts to secure more justice and more peace The purpose is to rock the boat and to disrupt the status quo when it is unjust I understand Christ as a title not as a person It is a designation of an anointing This in my opinion is the anointing of radical love Christ is the human incarnation of divine love We each ought to strive to become this whether or not we are Christian whether or not we are even believers Those of us who are Christians believe that Jesus paid it all There is no more need for blood shed sacrifice Murder is never holy God does not need it or want it Our work now is to become living sacrifices that will redeem this world through justice and peace That is the meaning of these essays From the Introduction
