Then, Is Liturgy? Anscar J. Chupungco, 2010-08-01 Father Anscar Chupungco fondly recalls his first class as a student at the Pontifical Liturgical Institute in 1965. Professor Salvatore Marsili, famed theologian, liturgist, and cofounder of the institute, entered the lecture hall and after a prolonged and awkward silence finally asked, "And so what is liturgy?" This seemingly simple question underlies Chupungco's untiring love for liturgy and his lifetime of searching for answers. His is a passion deeply rooted in tradition which is evident in this volume. Relying on Scripture, patristic writers, and conciliar and postconciliar documents and with great skill, prudence, and the fundamental virtue of obedience, he carefully examines current liturgical trends that are the subject of fierce debate. At a time when we focus so intently on the debate itself, Chupungco cautions us to remember. At the end of the day, what matters are not personal opinions but what truly contributes to making the prayer of the Church an encounter with the person of Christ. It is this most sacred encounter that is at the heart of What Then Is Liturgy? And it is this encounter that will lead us day by day to the ultimate heavenly liturgy, our eternal and perfect offering of praise to God. Anscar Chupungco is a Benedictine of the Abbey of Our Lady of Montserrat in Manila. He is former president of the Pontifical Liturgical Institute in Rome where he taught history of the liturgy and liturgical inculturation. Chupungco was Executive Secretary of the Philippine Episcopal Commission on Liturgy for eighteen years and is currently Secretary of the Asian Liturgy Forum. He has served as consultor to both the Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship and the Vatican Congregation for Catholic Education, was a member of the Advisory Committee of the International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) for ten years, and for some time served as Chair of ICEL's Translations and ReVisions Subcommittee. Chupungco edited the five-volume Handbook for Liturgical Studies and is author of Liturgical Inculturation, both published by Liturgical Press. Cultural Adaptation of the Liturgy and Liturgies of the Future Built of Living Stones, 2000. In every church building, art and architecture become the joint work of the Holy Spirit and the local community in preparing a place to receive God's Word and to enter more fully into communion with him. In this volume, the bishops offer instruction on how to design places of worship that are dignified, beautiful, and suited to sacred celebrations. Contemplative Studies and Hinduism Rita D. Worship ,1929 Bible Missals and the Medieval Dominican Liturgy Innocent Smith, 2023-11-06 Bible Missals are manuscripts that integrate liturgical prayers for the Mass with the scriptural texts of the Latin Vulgate Long overlooked by scholars Bible Missals offer important evidence for the development of the medieval liturgy and the liturgical use of scripture by medieval Christians This monograph is the first comprehensive analysis of the codicology and contents of Bible Missals Mostly produced in the first half of the 13th century by professional book makers in centers like Paris and Oxford these hybrid manuscripts were customized for secular monastic and mendicant patrons This monograph focuses on Dominican Bible Missals the largest group within the repertoire providing detailed codicological descriptions of each manuscript and analyzing their texts for the Order of Mass and selected liturgical formularies including prayers for the feast of St Dominic For medieval Christians the words and events of scripture were continually called to mind and reenacted in the sacramental rites of the Mass Bible Missals provide important material evidence for this interplay between word and sacrament I Am With You Always Benedict C.F.R. Groeschel, 2011-02-18 A Study of the History and Meaning of Personal Devotion to Jesus Christ for Catholic Orthodox and Protestant Christians The devotional life of Christians over the two millennia since Jesus birth has been one of motion changing and growing in response to the challenges presented to the Church the temperaments of newly baptized nations and controversies about how we can and should relate to God And yet the core of authentic Christian devotion has not changed it remains today as it was in the time of the Church Fathers the trusting and personal encounter with Christ that is both open and foundational to the life of all Christian believers In this book the well known spiritual writer and teacher Fr Benedict Groeschel C F R surveys the development and trials of Christian devotion from the days of the martyrs until the twentieth century Tracking it through the centuries and among sadly divided branches of Christianity he finds a commonality of experience and even of language that is constantly ignored among Christians themselves By observing what image of Christ the canvas of common devotion portrays he hopes we will move not to discredit this image but to sharpen it and make it more consistent with the New Testament and the ancient Church Though the devotional life is sometimes brushed off as unimportant in comparison to a theological understanding of Christ Groeschel warns that such dismissal threatens to make distant unknown and obscure the Savior who said I am with you always The answer instead is to draw near to Jesus in devotion and with authentic expressions of that devotion which themselves help paint the image of Christ found concretely in revelation onto the minds and daily life of the devout Begun on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and the result of years of preparation and a whole life of guiding people as priest public preacher psychologist and spiritual director this book will help Catholic Orthodox and Protestant believers gain not only a comprehensive view of how pious Christians over the centuries have lived out their devotion to God but the examples and perspective they need to live more devoutly today Children's Liturgy of the Word 2014-2015 Maureen A.
