Prayers Of Early Christianity:

Prayer Book of the Early Christians John McGuckin, 2012-01-01 Designed for any 21st century Christian this prayer book gathers prayers and rituals from the ancient Church especially early Greek Christianity representing them for the use of Christians at home in small prayer groups and house churches It offers structure of prayer offices and blessing rituals for all times of day and year and articulates many prayers for religious needs including bereavement house blessing praise and thanksgiving Fr John has done a great service to Christians everywhere by making the prayers of the early church available particularly in such beautiful and accessible language As we turn these pages we join with the saints of all ages in a united hymn of praise Frederica Mathewes Green author of The Jesus Prayer The Ancient Desert Prayer that Tunes the Heart to God

Fount of Heaven Robert Elmer, 2022-09-30 You are the fountain of life light and all grace and truth The hearts of the first Christians beat with praise for Christ The strength of their devotion is remarkable considering the times of uncertainty and persecution in which they lived Despite all of this the early church flourished sustained by the God to whom they prayed Christians today have a lot to learn from the devotional life of the early church In Fount of Heaven a collection of carefully selected prayers from the first six centuries of the church we can pray with our spiritual forefathers Prayers from luminaries such as Clement of Rome Irenaeus and Augustine are arranged by theme to reveal the right prayer for the moment The prayers have been slightly updated to read more easily but they retain their joy and mystery As we turn to the prayers of the first Christians we can return to the foundations of our own faith The Lord's Prayer in the Early Church R.

Hammerling, 2015-10-14 The Lord's Prayer is arguably the most important prayer in Christianity Still exactly how the prayer developed in the life of the early church has remained hidden in ancient manuscripts Hammerling's thorough and ground breaking examination of these works reveals that early authors enthusiastically expounded upon its power and mystery claiming that the prayer uttered by Christ belonged at the core of Christian ritual and beliefs Many early church writers labeled it a perfect summary of the gospel and joyously referred to it as a pearl of great price and worth Daily Prayer in the Early Church Paul F. Bradshaw, 2008-10-01 In liturgical study and especially in English liturgical study the subject of the daily office has always been something of the poor relation writes the author in his preface This volume aims to do something to fill that gap It begins with a detailed examination of the Jewish background and of the practice of daily prayer in the first three centuries of the Church and goes on to trace the evolution of the divine office in both its monastic and secular forms in East and West down to the time of St Benedict Intended as a replacement for The Influence of the Synagogue upon the Divine Office by C W Dugmore Alcuin Club Collection No 45 it not only incorporates the results of recent research by continental scholars and others but also challenges traditional assumptions at a number of important points offering a fresh interpretation of the evidence Early Christian Prayers Adalbert-G. Hamman, 1961 The Macmillan Book of

Fount of Heaven Robert Elmer,2022-09-14 You are the fountain of life light and all grace and truth The hearts of the first Christians beat with praise for Christ The strength of their devotion is remarkable considering the times of uncertainty and persecution in which they lived Despite all of this the early church flourished sustained by the God to whom they prayed Christians today have a lot to learn from the devotional life of the early church In Fount of Heaven a collection of carefully selected prayers from the first six centuries of the church we can pray with our spiritual forefathers Prayers from luminaries such as Clement of Rome Irenaeus and Augustine are arranged by theme to reveal the right prayer for the moment The prayers have been slightly updated to read more easily but they retain their joy and mystery As we turn to the prayers of the first Christians we can return to the foundations of our own faith Prayers of Early Christianity Wallace S.

Jungers,2002-02-15 Love From My Soul is a collection of poetry and short reflections that encompasses twenty years of writing that has helped me discover who I am has healed me and allowed me to let go of the past Not every poem I have ever written is included in this collection but it includes the best of what I want to express The Way of the Fathers Mike Aquilina,2000 The world continues to exist only because of the prayers of supplication of the Christians declared Aristides of Athens More than a book of quotations this book leads us to pray along with the great early teachers of the Church

Collection of Prayers from the Early Christian Church That Can Change Your Life Élide Alexandre,2025-01-14 Collection of Early Christian Prayers That Can Change Your Life is a prayer book from the Early Christian Church This book contains a collection of ancient Christian prayers that can change your spiritual life and the way you pray In addition to prayers from the Early Church this book also contains the Prayer for Every Need by Clement of Rome and teaches the Ancient Prayer Rhythms This book is a reference in Early Christian Prayers and Ancient Christian Prayers If you want to transform your spiritual life start praying as the Ancient Church prayed Christian Prayer Through the Centuries Josef Andreas Jungmann,Christopher Irvine,2007 The author looks at nine periods of history tracing the development of Christian prayer

Prayers of the Early Church J Manning Potts,2021-03-30 Demand for books of prayers has caused this book to be compiled The experience of The Upper Room in publishing Ralph S Cushman s A Pocket Book of Prayer with its sale of over a million copies and the reaction from the publication of other prayer books have prompted the editor to collect and arrange these prayers There are prayers of our Lord the apostles the martyrs and the saints covering the period of the Early Church from its beginning through the fifth century There are some prayers from each of the first five centuries The treasure house from which to choose is almost unlimited It is a vast and fruitful field and anyone is amply rewarded who delves into it The prayers have been selected primarily for their spiritual and devotional content Many have been laid aside with regret that they could not be included in this book but its compass in size is set and only so many can be used The prayers are arranged chronologically Some other method of arrangement might have been chosen but this seemed good in order to represent each century There are questions about the date and authorship of the prayers They are the same questions that arise in reference to the Books of the Bible This book of prayers is published with the hope and prayer that it may have wide use It has been prepared for individual and family devotions It can be used with prayer groups in prayer meetings for cells and of course for the development of one s own personal spiritual life The material is perfect for use in the devotional services of young people s groups women s groups and men s clubs The prayers are excellent for insertion in church bulletins Other ways will be found of making these great prayers usable The prayers have been collected from many old books of prayers and devotional materials Taken from Prayers of the Early Church written by J Manning Potts Early Christian Worship Paul F.

Bradshaw,1996 For those interested in knowing more about the foundations of their own worship Paul F Bradshaw provides in Early Christian Worship a sound introduction to worship in the first four centuries of the Church Introducing Early Christianity Laurie Guy,2011-09-28 Laurie Guy provides an illuminating broad brush survey of the early church in its first four centuries Readers get to witness the emergence of Great Tradition Christianity as themes unfold over time regarding women persecution and martyrdom asceticism and monasticism eucharist and baptism doctrine and the ecumenical councils
