

PRAYER FOR THE Jubilee Year

*Commemorating the 250th Anniversary of the Founding of Mission San Gabriel Arcángel
by St. Junípero Serra*

Most Reverend José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary September 8, 2021

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of Your servant, St. Junípero Serra, and for all the missionaries, native peoples, and immigrants who established Mission San Gabriel Arcángel, that Your Kingdom might extend to the ends of the earth.

Help us to walk in their footsteps as missionary disciples. Guided by their example, may we be always faithful and courageous in proclaiming the Gospel of Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Father, look upon Your family here in Los Angeles with mercy. Taught by the Word of Truth and fed with the Bread of Life, may Your Church here always seek to do Your will, and be the sign of Your love for all peoples, who are sons and daughters of God, all of us loved and desired by You, and born for greater things.

Renew us and strengthen us, and cleanse our hearts. By Your grace, may we follow Jesus with joy and holiness of life, and together with Him build a new world of faith and a city of saints.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin of Guadalupe, Mother of the Americas, may we continue always forward in the mission of St. Junípero Serra, making Jesus Christ known to every heart in every nation.

We ask this, through Jesus Christ our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

AMEN.

Reif,Renate Egger-Wenzel,2015-11-13 Given the recent interest in the emotions presupposed in early religious literature it has been thought useful to examine in this volume how the Jews and early Christians expressed their feelings within the prayers recorded in some of their literature Specialists in their fields from academic institutions around the world have analysed important texts relating to this overall theme and to what is revealed with regard to such diverse topics as relations with God exegesis education prophecy linguistic expression feminism happiness grief cult suicide non Jews Hellenism Qumran and Jerusalem The texts discussed are in Greek Hebrew and Aramaic and are important for a scientific understanding of how Rabbinic Judaism and Early Christianity developed their approaches to worship to the construction of their theology and to the feelings that lay behind their religious ideas and practices The articles contribute significantly to an historical understanding of how Jews maintained their earlier traditions but also came to terms with the ideology of the dominant Hellenistic culture that surrounded them The Holy Year of Jubilee Herbert Thurston,1900 This historic book may have numerous typos missing text or index Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher 1900 06 Not illustrated Excerpt CHAPTER VI The Ceremonies Of The Jubilee In the still unpublished diary¹ of Francesco Mucanzio papal master of ceremonies at the close of the sixteenth century we find that distinguished rubrician in December 1574 discussing at some length the ritual to be used in the unwalling of the Holy Door at the forthcoming celebration of the Jubilee He tells us that as the time for the ceremony drew near he went to his Holiness Pope Gregory XIII and submitted to him a memorandum concerning the preparations to be made and the things to be then observed It appears however that his colleague in the office of master of ceremonies also went to the Pope with a similar programme which he declared to be that which had been followed by Julius III in the year 1550 It differed very little from mine says Mucanzio except in the versicles and responses Those which I had set down were taken from an ancient roll a quodam rotulo antiquo used in the time of Clement VII and of these versicles there was probably no accurate copy forthcoming in 1550 on account of the pillage and disasters to which the city had been subjected he refers presumably to the sack of Rome in 1527 hence they had been somewhat altered My opinion was that out of the two sets which we had before us a third more appropriate than either might have been drawn up but when the matter was proposed in the Congregation of Cardinals appointed for the revision of ceremonies they decided that as regards the versicles 1The copy here quoted is contained in MS Addit 26811 at the British Museum and prayers the precedent of Julius III s time should be adhered to in every particular The fact is adds Mucanzio we have nothing prescribed about this matter in the Book of Ceremonies 1 and on this ac The Divine Hours (Volume Two): Prayers for Autumn and Wintertime Phyllis

Tickle,2015-08-19 The second volume in a trilogy of prayer manuals compiled by Publishers Weekly religion editor Phyllis Tickle as a contemporary Book of Hours to guide Christians gently yet authoritatively through the daily offices The Divine Hours is the first major literary and liturgical reworking of the sixth century Benedictine Rule of fixed hour prayer This beautifully conceived and thoroughly modern three volume guide will appeal to the theological novice as well as to the ecclesiastical sophisticate Making primary use of the Book of Common Prayer and the writings of the Church Fathers The Divine Hours is also a companion to the New Jerusalem Bible from which it draws its Scripture readings The trilogy blends prayer and praise in a way that while extraordinarily fresh respects and builds upon the ancient wisdom of Christianity The second book in the set Prayers for Autumn and Wintertime provides prayers psalms and readings for these two festive seasons Compact it is perfect for those seeking greater spiritual depth As a contemporary Book of Hours The Divine Hours Prayers for Autumn and Wintertime heralds a renewal of the tradition of disciplined daily prayer and gives those already using the first volume the continuity they are seeking The series will culminate in a third volume for springtime completing the liturgical and calendar year with the offices for every day Woman's Missionary Friend ,1919 The Hermeneutics of Divine Testing Nicholas Ellis,2015-06-29 Nicholas Ellis examines the interplay present in early Jewish literature between authors theological assumptions on divine agency in evil and their readings of biblical testing narratives Ellis takes as a starting point the Epistle of James and compares this early Christian work against other examples of ancient Jewish interpretation Ellis shows how varying perspectives on the divine satanic and human roles of testing exercised a direct influence on the interpretation of popular biblical testing narratives such as Abraham and Isaac Job and the Trials in the Wilderness Read in light of the broader Jewish literature Ellis argues that the theology and hermeneutic found in the Epistle of James as such relate to divine testing are closely paralleled by the so called Rewritten Bible tradition Within James cosmic drama God stands as righteous judge with the satanic prosecutor indicting both divine integrity and human religious loyalty
