Conflicts of Devotion Daniel R. Gibbons,2017-03-30 Who will mourn with me Who will break bread with me Who is my neighbor In the wake of the religious reformations of the sixteenth century such questions called for a new approach to the communal religious rituals and verses that shaped and commemorated many of the brightest and darkest moments of English life In England new forms of religious writing emerged out of a deeply fractured spiritual community Conflicts of Devotion reshapes our understanding of the role that poetry played in the re formation of English community and shows us that understanding both the poetics of liturgy and the liturgical character of poetry is essential to comprehending the deep shifts in English spiritual attitudes and practices that occurred during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The liturgical communitarian perspective of Conflicts of Devotion sheds new light on neglected texts and deepens our understanding of how major writers such as Edmund Spenser Robert Southwell and John Donne struggled to write their way out of the spiritual and social crises of the age of the Reformation It also sheds new light on the roles that poetry may play in negotiating and even overcoming religious conflict Attention to liturgical poetics allows us to see the broad spectrum of ways in which English poets forged new forms of spiritual community out of the very language of theological division This book will be of great interest to teachers and students of early modern poetry and of the various fields related to Reformation studies history politics and theology

The RCIA Thomas H. Morris,1997 The revised second edition of the award winning The RCIA Transforming the Church incorporates new insights in liturgical catechesis and ritual celebration that have emerged since the original edition The changed format includes an expanded commentary on each of the periods of the rite expanded sections all new sections practical guidelines and suggestions for using the rite with children Again divided into three parts this resource first looks at foundational issues for implementing the rite including underlying theological issues and ministries in initiation The second section looks at each stage in the rite following a four step process The third section examines pastoral issues such as annulments ecumenical sensitivity discerning valid baptism etc Bread of Life Father Louis J. Cameli, PhD, 2022-01-05 Bread of Life Exploring the Presence of Eucharist in Our Lives by Fr Louis Cameli focuses on the role that the Eucharist takes in Catholic life Fr Cameli gives a personal account of the role of the Eucharist in his own life explores what Jesus wanted to give us when he gave us the Eucharist by considering chapter six of John s account of the Gospel and considers central human questions through the lens of the Eucharist Reflection questions are included so that readers may reflect on the book on their own or in discussion with others Church as Communion Philip Kariatlis, 2020-03-20 This book innovatively explores the notion of koinonia for understanding the nature and function of the Church Since the Scriptures assert that the Church is the Church of God God s communal mode of existence is looked at namely God who is a communion of three hypostases relating to one another in an interpenetrating koinonia of infinite love as a way of understanding the very being of the church as communion Such a notion of koinonia far from having anything to do with socio political understandings suggests that it is a foundational gift bestowed from above to the world as the solution par excellence to the impasse of isolationism More often than not however such an ecclesiology of communion has not taken seriously the historical reality of the Church living within the fallen world along with its ceaseless temptations divisions and even sins in history In this way it becomes apparent that a dialectic needs to be acknowledged in the notion of communion as both foundational gift from God and yet one still to be fully realised Accordingly this work shows that the Church is not only as the gift of God s miraculous presence here on earth The Church is also constantly striving to exist epiclestically until such time as it will fully experience the final consummation in Gods eschatological kingdom An examination of this double dimensionality of the Church is undertaken in order to assess if this is in line with the Scriptural witness of the ekklesia Having established the gift goal dialectic in the notion of koinonia in the New Testament Church the study then traces the trajectory of this dynamic approach to koinonia in the Churchs worship and authoritative structures This promises to cast both a deeper light on and a more realistic solution to ecclesiological problems within the life of the Church today allowing for the Churchs constant renewal Whose Sacrifice is the Eucharist? Stephen B Sours, 2024-07-26 This book explores what Catholics and Methodists believe about eucharistic sacrifice Eucharistic sacrifice refers to the offering that Christ and his church make in the celebration of the Lord s Supper It is therefore both a Christian doctrine and a church practice The sacrificial dimension of the sacrament comes both from Christ s sacrifice on the cross and from his self offering at the Last Supper in which Christ gives himself to the Father on behalf of his people This is my body which is given for you Luke 22 19 The eucharist is a sacrificial meal because in the bread and cup Christians are united to the body and blood of Christ that was sacrificed for them on the cross Moreover the resurrected Lord is really present with his people in the eucharist and while his historic crucifixion is an event in the past Jesus salvation continues and his grace is given to his people in the sacrament for this is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins Matthew 26 28 Catholics and Methodists believe that Jesus instructs his followers to repeat his words and actions from the Last Supper in their celebration of the eucharist but a long running assumption is that Catholics and Methodists following the historic Reformation schism are deeply divided over eucharistic sacrifice This book challenges that assumption by analyzing what these churches teach on eucharistic sacrifice from historical sacramental liturgical and ecumenical perspectives Key figures like Thomas Aquinas and John Wesley help define eucharistic sacrifice in each tradition Subsequently authoritative texts such as ecclesial statements eucharistic prayers and hymns further specify what Catholics and Methodists believe they are doing when they offer the eucharist to God Sours argues that far from being divided Catholics and Methodists have much in common regarding this controversial doctrine

Preaching and Praying as Though God Matters Ronald P. Byars, 2022-10-14 We in mainline churches are uneasy maybe even scared Why are our voices not heard After all we are the reasonable Christians the updated Christians the respectable ones who have dominated the cultural landscape since colonial times This book presumes that trying to reverse the loss of our traditional status in society is both futile and beside the point What s called for when we find ourselves in a state of crisis is to rediscover the big picture the Christian hope projected on a large screen This requires the courage to revisit the sources from which all Christian hope springs rediscovering their life giving power That power rises from the counterintuitive affirmations of the gospel represented in Christ s incarnation his healing the afflicted his raising the dead his vulnerability his cross resurrection and universal restoration Acts 3 21 Preaching and worship that embodies and lifts up the hard parts the life giving parts is neither fundamentalist nor an exercise in nostalgia It is rather evidence of confidence in the triune God who makes the unknowable known The Good Shepherd promised My sheep hear my voice I know them and they follow me John 10 27 And when they do they will

The Mystery Beyond Human Development George Farahat, 2020-06-29 This book will fascinate the reader as the author shares his own true story since his childbirth in Egypt his growth passions sufferings and hopes and that of many others he knew The book brings to light the relational character of the cosmos and all life it contains as a reflection of the Mystery of God who is Love Based on the historical development of thought and science as well as recent research the author argues that humanity is destined for the Second Coming of Christ the Alpha and Omega Based on the development of civilizations the book illustrates violence vengeance greed passion fear security collaboration love and success as examples from history of individuals as well as cultures The premise of the book is that humans by nature are relational Since early civilizations collaboration and reciprocity between tribes led to trade and thus learning developed in many centers But knowledge is not only intellectual Knowledge is completed in the love of the other which is pervasive in human thought and relations The conclusion proposes imitation of love the love shown in the life and teachings of Christ even if hard in order to live eternal life

Finding Voice to Give God Praise Kathleen Hughes, Gilbert Ost diek, 1998 In this collection of essays outstanding scholars and pastors reflect on the many languages of the Catholic liturgy the aural spatial temporal kinetic and iconic which blend together into a single voice a single act of praise

The Universe as Communion Alexei Nesteruk, 2008-07-01 In this book a new and distinctive approach to the science religion debate emerges from a synthesis of the Eastern Orthodox Christian tradition with phenomenological thought Developing ideas of Greek Patristics the author treats faith with its sense of the Divine presence and knowledge of the universe as two modes of communion which constitute the human condition The modern opposition between science and theology which is historically paralleled with the Church's split between East and West and monasticism and Christianity in the world is treated as the split between two intentionalities of the overall human subjectivity The human person as a centre of their reconciliation becomes the major theme of the dialogue between science and theology It is argued that the reconciliation of science and theology is not simply an academic exercise it requires an existential change a change of mind metanoia which cannot be effected without ecclesial involvement Then the person who effectuates the mediation between science and theology is raised to the level of cosmic priesthood while the mediation acquires the features of a cosmic Eucharist in which all divisions and tensions in creation and humanity are removed It is through this existential change accompanied by phenomenological analysis that scientific theories can be subjected to a certain vision through which the hidden ultimate goal telos of scientific research as the explication of the human condition shows its kinship to the saving telos advocated by Christian faith The opposition between theology and science is thus being para eucharistically overcome

Reinterpreting the Eucharist Anne F. Elvey, Carol Hogan, Kim Power, Claire Renkin, 2014-10-14 The Eucharist continues to be central to contemporary Christian religious tradition and to be the focus for a wide range of assumptions and disputes Chief amongst these disputes is the role of women in the theology and the ritual of the Eucharist Reinterpreting the Eucharist brings together a diverse range of voices with each using their own marginalized experience to explore other ways indigenous culture medieval and contemporary art social history and environmental ethics of engaging with the Eucharist Presenting new forms of theological and ethical engagement the book responds to the challenge of reconsidering the meaning of the Eucharist today
