Pre Columbian Art And The Post Columbian World Ancient Sources Of Modern Art:

Pre-Columbian Art and the Post-Columbian World Barbara Braun,1993 Offers an in depth look at pre Columbian sources of modern art     Prehistoric Pictures and American Modernism Elke Seibert,2023-09-21 In April 1937 the Museum of Modern Art in New York hosted an exhibition that served as a catalyst for the appropriation of prehistoric rock art in postwar abstract painting With the title Prehistoric Rock Pictures in Europe and Africa it displayed a range of copies from the influential collection of the German ethnologist Leo Frobenius Largely disregarded in modern American art history up until now this book highlights the importance of this exhibition to artists such as Josef Albers Adolph Gottlieb David Smith and The American Abstract Artists group who sought inspiration from the prehistoric images primordial creativity With a transnational scope this book reveals new facts about the connections between Paris and New York and the importance of communication and collaboration between them for these artists In doing so Seibert shows that this debate was about more than just legitimizing abstract art forms from the past but about recognizing an autonomous American abstract art Presenting unseen archival material letters and exhibition documentation Prehistoric Pictures and American Modernism offers a new reading of the development of modern American abstraction and will hold an important place in the historiography of the movement its global traditions and its legacy     The Art of the Anthropological Diorama Noemie Etienne,2021-09-08 Dioramas are devices on the frontier of different disciplines art anthropology and the natural sciences to name a few Their use developed during the nineteenth century following reforms aimed at reinforcing the educational dimension of museums While dioramas with human figures are now the subject of healthy criticism and are gradually being dismantled a thorough study of the work of artists and scientists who made them helps shed light on their genesis Among other displays this book examines anthropological dioramas of two North American museums in the early twentieth century the American Museum of Natural History in New York and the New York State Museum Sites of creation and mediation of knowledge combining painting sculpture photography and material culture dioramas tell a story that is always political

Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures - Continental Europe and its Empires Prem Poddar,2011-09-21 The first reference work to provide an integrated and authoritative body of information about the political cultural and economic contexts of postcolonial literatures that have their provenance in the major European Empires of Belgium Denmark France G     Cinema Between Latin America and Los Angeles Colin Gunckel,Jan-Christopher Horak,Lisa Jarvinen,2019-02-08 Historically Los Angeles has been central to the international success of Latin American cinema and became the most important hub in the western hemisphere for the distribution of Spanish language films made for Latin American audiences This book examines the considerable ongoing role that Los Angeles played in the history of Spanish language cinema

How a Revolutionary Art Became Official Culture Mary K. Coffey,2012-04-17 This is a study of the reciprocal relationship between Mexican muralism and the three major Mexican museums the Palace of Fine Arts the National History

Museum and the National Anthropology Museum      The Pan American Imagination Stephen M. Park, 2014-12-15 In the history of the early twentieth century Americas visions of hemispheric unity flourished and the notion of a transnational American identity was embraced by artists intellectuals and government institutions In The Pan American Imagination Stephen Park explores the work of several Pan American modernists who challenged the body of knowledge being produced about Latin America crossing the disciplinary boundaries of academia as well as the formal boundaries of artistic expression from literary texts and travel writing to photography painting and dance Park invests in an interdisciplinary approach which he frames as a politically resistant intellectual practice using it not only to examine the historical phenomenon of Pan Americanism but also to explore the implications for current transnational scholarship      The Death of Authentic

Primitive Art Shelly Errington, 2023-09-01 In this lucid witty and forceful book Shelly Errington argues that Primitive Art was invented as a new type of art object at the beginning of the twentieth century but that now at the century s end it has died a double but contradictory death Authenticity and primitivism both attacked by cultural critics have died as concepts At the same time the penetration of nation states the tourist industry and transnational corporations into regions that formerly produced these artifacts has severely reduced supplies of primitive art bringing about a second death Errington argues that the construction of the primitive in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the kinds of objects chosen to exemplify it must be understood as a product of discourses of progress from the nineteenth century European narrative of technological progress to the twentieth century narrative of modernism to the late twentieth century narrative of the triumph of the free market In Part One she charts a provocative argument ranging through the worlds of museums art theorists mail order catalogs boutiques tourism and world events tracing a loosely historical account of the transformations of meanings of primitive art in this century In Part Two she explores an eclectic collection of public sites in Mexico and Indonesia a national museum of anthropology a cultural theme park an airport and a ninth century Buddhist monument newly refurbished to show how the idea of the primitive can be used in the interests of promoting nationalism and economic development Errington s dissection of discourses about progress and primitivism in the contemporary world is both a lively introduction to anthropological studies of art institutions and a dramatic new contribution to the growing field of cultural studies      Frank

Lloyd Wright's Florida Southern College Dale Allen Gyure, 2010-10-10 Florida Southern College in Lakeland boasts the largest single site collection of Frank Lloyd Wright architecture in the world With eleven buildings planned and designed by Wright the campus forms a rich tableau for examining the architect s philosophy and design practice In this fully illustrated volume Dale Allen Gyure tells the engaging story of the ambitious project from beginning to end The college s dynamic president Ludd M Spivey wanted the grounds and buildings redesigned to embody a modern and distinctly American expression of Protestant theology Informed by Spivey s vision his own early educational experience and his architectural philosophy Wright conceived the Child of the Sun complex Much like Thomas Jefferson s famous plan for the University of Virginia the academic village that Wright designed for Florida Southern College expresses a dramatic and personal statement about education in a democratic society Little studied to date this significant campus and its history are finally given the attention they deserve in this fascinating volume

Ancient Art Revisited Christopher Watts, Carl Knappett, 2022-09-21 Ancient Art Revisited develops new perspectives on ancient art by weaving together diverse strands within archaeology and art history exploring it through recent developments in archaeological theory In order to foster dialogue among various subfields contributors are drawn from a wide range of domains Classical archaeology Aegean prehistory Near Eastern archaeology Egyptology Pre Columbian South America and North America are brought together to explore ancient art from multiscalar perspectives and through the lenses of entanglement theory network thinking assemblage theory and other recent theoretical developments Representing a new wave in research on ancient art considering both the proximal and distributed operations of artworks Ancient Art Revisited provides broad and inclusive coverage of ancient art and offers a cohesive approach to a fragmented area of study This book will be suitable for archaeologists anthropologists and art historians wishing to understand the latest thinking on ancient art

Contemporary Authors Terri M. Rooney, 1998-05 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors Authors in this volume include Janet Dawson Patrice Gaines Isabella Rossellini Markus Wolf

Posthumanism and the Graphic Novel in Latin America Edward King, Joanna Page, 2017-07-03 Latin America is experiencing a boom in graphic novels that are highly innovative in their conceptual play and their reworking of the medium Inventive artwork and sophisticated scripts have combined to satisfy the demand of a growing readership both at home and abroad Posthumanism and the Graphic Novel in Latin America which is the first book length study of the topic argues that the graphic novel is emerging in Latin America as a uniquely powerful force to explore the nature of twenty first century subjectivity The authors place particular emphasis on the ways in which humans are bound to their non human environment and these ideas are productively drawn out in relation to posthuman thought and experience The book draws together a range of recent graphic novels from Argentina Brazil Chile Mexico and Uruguay many of which experiment with questions of transmediality the representation of urban space modes of perception and cognition and a new form of ethics for a posthuman world Praise for Posthumanism and the Graphic Novel in Latin America well referenced and well considered the analyses it brings are overall well executed and insightful Image and Narrative Jan 2018 vol 18 no 4

Views of Ancient Egypt since Napoleon Bonaparte David Jeffreys, 2016-06-16 This book addresses some of the main themes of the study of Egypt during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries In a combination of case studies and discursive chapters the status of Egypt as an important example of traditional Asian scholarship and as an ancient model of imperialism itself is examined Contributions range from studies of nineteenth century antiquarianism and the collecting of Egyptian antiquities as an extension of the territorial ambitions and rivalries of the European powers to explorations of how Egypt is understood and interpreted in contemporary societies Views of Ancient Egypt also considers the way in which Ancient Egypt has been adopted by less privileged members of some societies as a cultural icon of past greatness Indian Art of the Americas at the Art Institute of Chicago Richard F. Townsend, 2016-06-28 A stunning survey of the indigenous art architecture and spiritual beliefs of the Americas from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century This landmark publication catalogues the Art Institute of Chicago's outstanding collection of Indian art of the Americas one of the foremost of its kind in the United States Showcasing a host of previously unpublished objects dating from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century the book marks the first time these holdings have been comprehensively documented Richard Townsend and Elizabeth Pope weave an overarching narrative that ranges from the Midwestern United States to the Yucatán Peninsula to the heart of South America While exploring artists' myriad economic historical linguistic and social backgrounds the authors demonstrate that they shared both a deep underlying cosmological view and the desire to secure their communities' prosperity by affirming connections to the sacred forces of the natural world The critical essays focus on topics that bridge traditions across North Central and South America including materials methods of manufacture the diversity of stylistic features and the iconography and functions of various objects Gorgeously illustrated in color with more than 500 vibrant images this handsome catalogue serves as the definitive survey of an unparalleled collection The Lives of Images Peter Mason, 2001 Examines the history of European representations of non-European peoples Herbert E. Bolton and the Historiography of the Americas Russell Magnaghi, 1998-08-20 The comparative approach to the understanding of history is increasingly popular today This study details the evolution of comparative history by examining the career of a pioneer in this area Herbert E. Bolton who popularized the notion that hemispheric history should be considered from pole to pole Bolton traced the study of the history of the Americas back to 16th-century European accounts of efforts to bring civilization to the New World and he argued that only within this larger context could the histories of individual nations be understood After American entry into the Spanish American War in 1898 historians such as Bolton promoted the idea of comparative history and it remains to this day a significant historiographical approach Consideration of the history of the Americas as a whole dates back to 16th-century European treatises on the New World Chapter one of this study provides an overview of pre-Bolton formulations of such history In chapter two one sees the forces that shaped Bolton's thinking and brought about the development of the concept Chapters three and four focus upon the evolution of the approach through Bolton's history course at the University of California at Berkeley and the reception of the concept among Bolton's contemporaries Unfortunately Bolton never fully developed the theoretical side of his argument thus chapter five chronicles the decline of his ideas after his death The final chapter reveals the survival of the concept which is now embraced by a new generation of historians who are largely unfamiliar with Bolton's instrumental role in the promotion of comparative history A Short History of Progress Ronald Wright, 2004-10-23 Each time history repeats itself so it's said the price goes up The twentieth century was a time of runaway growth in human population consumption and technology placing a colossal load on all natural systems especially earth air and water the very elements of life The most urgent questions of the twenty first century are where will this growth lead can it be consolidated or sustained and what kind of world is our present bequeathing to our future In his 1 bestseller A Short History of Progress Ronald Wright argues that our modern predicament is as old as civilization a 10 000 year experiment we have participated in but seldom controlled Only by understanding the patterns of triumph and disaster that humanity has repeated around the world since the Stone Age can we recognize the experiment s inherent dangers and with luck and wisdom shape its outcome

Gauguin and Polynesia Nicholas Thomas, 2024-02-01 Paul Gauguin is commonly regarded as one of the greatest modern artists He is renowned for resplendent mythic imagery from Oceania for a life of restless travel and for his supposed immersion in Polynesian life But he has long been regarded ambivalently and in recent years both Gauguin s sexual behaviour and his paintings have been considered exploitative Gauguin and Polynesia offers a fresh view on the artist not from the perspective of European art history but from the contemporary vantage point of the region Oceania which he so famously moved to Gauguin s art is revealed for the first time to be richer and more eclectic than has been recognised The artist indeed did invent enigmatic and symbolic images but he also depicted Polynesia s colonial modernity acknowledging the life of the time and the dignity and power of some of the Islanders he encountered Gauguin and Polynesia neither celebrates nor condemns an extraordinary painter who at times denounced and at other times affirmed the French empire that shaped his own life and the places he moved between It is a revelation of a formative artist of modern life and of multicultural worlds in the making

Triptych , 1993 Res Francesco Pellizzi, 2014-03-10 RES 63 64 includes Source and trace by Christopher S Wood Timelessness fluidity and Apollo s libation by Milette Gaifman A liquid history Blood and animation in late medieval art by Beate Fricke Guercino s wet drawing by Nicola Suthor The readymade metabolized Fluxus in life by David Joselit and other papers
