

The background of the image is a photograph of a rugged mountain range. The peaks are covered in patches of snow and are set against a clear, bright blue sky. The foreground shows the dark, rocky slopes of the mountains, with some snow clinging to the crevices and ridges. The overall scene is one of natural grandeur and tranquility.

Preacher as Risk Taker Richard Hart (O.F.M. Cap.),2003      Preacher as Risk Taker Richard Hart,2003 Many individuals take risks in life such as mountain climbers magicians farmers and gamblers But do we ever include preachers in that category Preachers have opportunities to be some of the greatest risk takers In Preacher as Risk Taker Richard Hart O F M Cap challenges preachers to be on the cutting edge by taking risks resulting in better preaching How many preachers are willing to submit their homilies to an editor or have their homilies taped Are poetic preachers ready to preach in a changing Church How often do preachers discuss social sin the environment ageing the reign of God or Paul s epistles Do today s preachers realize how important it is to preach through healing or Jesus as a wisdom figure Finally do preachers know the true difference between a eulogy and a homily Hart offers insight to each of these questions for preachers interested in improving their homilies Preachers might not be asked to scale a mountain or act as a magician But preachers are asked to take similar risks when preaching on challenging topics In Preacher as Risk Taker Father Hart provides answers for those interested in becoming spirited preachers      Deep Preaching J. Kent Edwards,2009 J Kent Edwards recalls a story that late pastor J Vernon McGee told about seeing children in South Africa playing a game of marbles in the dust with real diamonds The precious stones were being handled with no regard for their true worth Edwards fears the same thing happens today when preachers offer Scriptural truth to listeners without being completely overwhelmed by its greatness themselves in the process Deep Preaching is his call to rethink preaching Edwards helps preachers learn to preach the word in ways that will powerfully change the lives of hearers He contends that sermons need not settle comfortably on the lives of the listeners like dust on a coffee table He encourages preachers to join him in casting off the lines that moor their ministries to the status quo and make every effort to steer their preaching out of the comfortable shallows He urges them to preach deep sermons rather than superficial ones moving beyond the yawn inspiring to the awe inspiring from the trite to the transforming      The Other Side of Jordan Dawn Miller,2003-05-04 Pioneer woman Callie McGregor and her family are determined to survive the Indian massacres prairie wildfires droughts and blizzards of the Montana territory in the 1800s with their faith intact      Pastor on Track Emanuel Cleaver III,2014-04-15 So often pastors are defined by external forces rather than by the essential nature of the pastoral leader as modeled in scripture Taking positive steps to put pastors on track author Emmanuel Cleaver III draws on his own experiences and from dynamic and effective pastors and churches across the country He presents biblical models to distill his message and to recalibrate the definition of what makes the best church leaders Pastor on Track helps clergy re frame their congregation s expectations and to empower them to do the work of the people so the pastor can do the work of the pastor      Preaching God's Transforming Justice Ronald J. Allen,Dale P. Andrews,Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm,2011-01-01 This unique commentary is the first to help the preacher identify and reflect theologically and ethically on the social implications of the biblical readings in the Revised Common Lectionary In addition to providing commentary for each day in the lectionary calendar this series introduces twenty two Holy Days for Justice These days are intended to enlarge the church's awareness of God's call for justice and of the many ways that call comes to the church and world today The days include Martin Luther King Jr Day Earth Day World AIDS Day International Women's Day Cesar Chavez Day Yom HaShoah and Juneteenth For each of the lectionary days and Holy Days for Justice there is an essay that helps the preacher integrate a variety of social justice concerns including racial ethnic issues sexism classism ecology and violence into their preaching The contributors are a diverse group of homiletics pastors biblical scholars theologians and social activists

Preacher's Fire William W. Johnstone, J.A. Johnstone, 2010-01-01 A Mountain Man In Disguise A big city like St Louis is the last place where a mountain man like Preacher would pick a fight But how else will he get at the ruthless power broker who is using fear and bloodshed to take over the Western fur trade A Killer In Control Shaving his beard posing as a greedy hayseed from Ohio the Preacher comes face to face with Shad Beaumont who is leaving St Louis with an army of hired gunmen with the Preacher on his tail And A Fire That's Just Begun To Erupt The odds couldn't be worse and the battleground couldn't be better For the wild frontier is no place for fancy plots or poor disguises but a fine spot for a killing ground

Preacher Woman Katie Lauve-Moon, 2021-03-18 When organizations are committed to gender equality what gets in the way of their achieving it How and why do well intentioned people end up reinforcing sexism Katie Lauve Moon examines these questions by focusing on religious congregations that separated from their mainline denomination in order to support women's equal leadership In Preacher Woman Lauve Moon concentrates on congregations affiliated with the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship CBF Women are enrolling in Baptist seminaries at almost equal rates as men and CBF identifies the equal leadership of women as a core component of its collective identity yet only five percent of CBF congregations employ women as solo senior pastors Preacher Woman explores how congregations can be committed to ideas of gender parity while still falling short in practice Lauve Moon investigates how institutional sexism is upheld through both unconscious and conscious biases In doing so she demonstrates that addressing issues of sexism and gender inequality within organizations must extend beyond good intentions and inclusive policies
