Preaching as the Word of God Sam Chan, 2016-07-12 According to the Reformers preaching is the word of God As the word of God preaching is a foundation for the church It is also vital for the personal growth of a Christian But Christians are poorly equipped to understand how preaching is the word of God Some Christians look for preaching that closely reproduces the text in the Bible Other Christians look for preaching that creates maximal emotional and existential impact And there is a lot of name calling with Christians accusing preachers of not preaching the word But what type of preaching is the word of God The purpose of this book is to equip Christians to understand how preaching can be God speaking It accomplishes this with a survey of the problem in the history of the church a detailed overview of key biblical texts and finally the application of the contemporary philosophical tool of speech act theory

Setting Words on Fire Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-10-01 In the second half of the twentieth century a profound shift took place in how we think about preaching We moved away from a vertical focus on the preacher who hands down the authoritative teaching to more relational narrative and conversational models Yet common to both of these understandings says Paul Scott Wilson is the idea that preaching is primarily about teaching that it mainly conveys information about God Important as this emphasis on preaching as teaching has been Wilson believes that the time for a new approach has arrived That new approach which he names preaching as proclamation has begun to arise from a variety of Euro American and African American sources Its primary aim is not to convey information but to engender an encounter with God s grace in Christ More than guiding people to say Yes now I understand it hopes to lead them to proclaim I am redeemed we are saved More than telling the gospel story it renders the gospel s claim on human lives leading to conviction of sin repentance and transformation Pulling together the disparate strands of this new homiletical school Wilson constructs a comprehensive introduction to preaching focusing on its character as proclamation of the sovereign grace of God
