Preaching Pilgrims:

Pilgrim & Preacher Kathryn Beebe, 2014-08-07 Pilgrim and Preacher seeks to understand the numerous pilgrimage writings of the Dominican Felix Fabri 1437-1502 not only as rich descriptions of the Holy Land Egypt and Palestine but also as sources for the religious attitudes and social assumptions that went into their creation Fabri an Observant reformer and talented preacher as well as a two time Holy Land pilgrim adapted his pilgrimage experiences for four different audiences He produced the rhymed Swabian German Pilgerbuchlein for those who sponsored his first voyage the encyclopaedic Latin Evagatorium for his Dominican brethren the vernacular Pilgerbuch for the noble patrons of his second voyage and their households and finally the vernacular Sionpilger an imagined or virtual pilgrimage for the nuns in his care who were unable to make the real journey themselves This study asks fundamental questions about the readership for such works and then builds upon an analysis of Fabri's audiences to reassess the nature of piety and the place both pilgrimage literature and Observant reform had in it in late medieval Germany Pilgrim and Preacher is a study of reception yet one that departs from traditional approaches to pilgrimage literature which see pilgrimage writing merely as a body of texts to be classified according to genre or mined for colourful details about the Jerusalem journey This work combines the insights of both literary theory and historical studies with an original empirical contribution based on an analysis of the manuscripts and printed history of Fabri's writings setting them in their historical and cultural contexts Such an analysis allows us to understand better the working of the religious imagination amongst urban elites and women religious in the late middle ages By charting the influences of the Observance Movement within the Dominican Fabri's writings were intended for both his young novices to make them more effective preachers and for the religious women who could only go to Jerusalem via the imagination Pilgrim and Preacher also makes an important contribution to the history of the Dominican Observance movement and the wider currents that flowed between it and the civic and religious feelings of the age

Evangelical Pilgrims from the East Sunggu Yang, 2016-11-18 In this book Sunggu Yang proposes five socio ecclesial codes as unique faith fundamentals of Korean American Christianity Drawing from rigorous research and years of ecclesial experience Yang names the codes as follows the Wilderness Pilgrimage code the Diasporic Mission Code the Confucian Egalitarian code the Buddhist Shamanistic code and the Pentecostal Liberation code These five codes he asserts help Korean Americans sustain their lives culture faith and evangelical mission as aliens or pilgrims in the American wilderness Yang outlines how his five proposed codes serve as liberative and prophetic mechanisms of faith through which Korean Americans can contribute to racial harmony and cultural diversity in North America In this sense Korean American Christianity its theology and spirituality works not only on behalf of Korean Americans but also for the sake of all Americans Yang shows how the Korean American pulpit is the locus where these five codes appear most vividly

tool for proclamation a vehicle by which a sermon comes to life Female preachers engaged in a task not long their own know well the added attention directed to their physicality They can experience ordinary decisions about attire accessories hairstyles and movement as complex and occasionally precarious choices around how to bring flesh to their sermons They can also experience the extraordinary power of their bodies when materiality weighs in on the message McCullough explores the every Sunday bodily decisions of contemporary female preachers with an eye to uncovering the meanings about body preaching and God alive underneath Ultimately she argues for a renewed understanding of embodiment in which one's living body inescapably intertwined with her preaching becomes the avenue for greater knowledge about how to preach and deeper insight into the faith professed

Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021-05-25 Few debates divide the contemporary church more than the issue of call The question of who can be called to preach segregates denominations divides people within churches and undermines its public witness Yet curiously little homiletic attention has been paid to the issue of call Because the practice of call has not been subjected to critical inquiry it has taken on power Power lies hidden in the crevices of the question of who can be called to preach power lies in the institutional narrative and approved stories of call power lies in the discordant debates equally in the stifling silence Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver-Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Recovering their rhetorical witness helps to fill in the gaps in the history of preaching in America contribute to research and pedagogies in the field of homiletics and provide today's women and all candidates for ministry with different theological models and narrative strategies by which to effectively interpret and claim their calls to preach These women who spoke truth to power help us reimagine a church today that no longer questions the legitimacy of one's call to preach but endorses previously silenced voices and is therefore strengthened by women's voices from the pulpit

Sacred Journeys in the Counter-Reformation Elizabeth C. Tingle, 2020-06-08 Sacred Journeys in the Counter Reformation examines long distance pilgrimages to ancient international shrines in northwestern Europe in the two centuries after Luther In this region in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries saints cults and pilgrimage were frequently contested more so than in the Mediterranean world France the Low Countries and the British Isles were places of disputation and hostility between Protestant and Catholic sacred landscapes and journeys came under attack and in some regions were outlawed by the state Taking as case studies hugely popular medieval shrines such as Compostela the Mont Saint Michel and Lough Derg the impact of Protestant criticism and Catholic revival on shrines pilgrims motives and experiences is examined through life writings devotional works and institutional records The central focus is that of agency in religious change what drove spiritual reform and what were its consequences for the ordinary Catholic This is explored through concepts of the religious self holy materiality and sacred space

How Women Transform Preaching Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 2021-04-06 Women preachers are everywhere The pulpit once a bastion of male presence and power has become in many denominations a place where women regularly exercise their gifts leading congregations and proclaiming God's word each week The number of women scholars who are publishing and teaching in the field of preaching has also expanded dramatically Leonora Tubbs Tisdale explores how the presence of women preachers and scholars of preaching has transformed the practice of homiletics this country from the reclamation of women's herstory in preaching to the topics addressed in preaching and scholarship to the way in which Biblical hermeneutics and theologizing are undertaken in preaching to the imagery illustrations shape and embodiment of the sermons themselves How Women Transform Preaching begins with a fascinating survey including statistical information and historical analysis Interviewing 16 women preachers homileticians Tisdale shares untold stories of women preachers throughout history who are largely unknown but who serve as examples of both the struggle and power of women's preaching She then tells the stories of contemporary women preachers Throughout Tisdale draws practical lessons for the reader showing what students homileticians and preachers can learn from extraordinary women preachers

The Preaching of the Third Crusade (1187-1192) Alexander Marx, 2024-12-23 This book delivers the first substantial study of the preaching of the Third Crusade 1187-92 It assembles c 200 sermon texts and c 100 manuscripts to understand the explosive dynamic of mobilization in the Latin West Dealing with the essential fact that a genre called crusade sermon did not exist it develops methodological devices for identifying sermons relevant for the crusading purpose The book contests thus the modern historiography which has placed too much trust in the few chronicle reports However its fruitful blending of crusading preaching exegesis manuscript studies and intellectual history has much to offer beyond crusade studies

Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology's critical reflection on marginalized people's wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio-economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God's future in our lives and confirming God's active identification with

Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships marginality ethnic discrimination and relative powerlessness in life While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory namely a psalmic theological homiletic This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement This re envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel s psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope filled life through communal anticipation of God s coming future on the margins Specifically this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement i e lament retelling a story confessional doxology and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice
