Using the Techniques of Journalists to Add Impact to Your Sermons

Preachers face a bracing challenge: to proclaim the millenniums-old Scriptures in a way that never grows musty.

We can say nothing really new, but it must seem new. Like a resourceful cook finding different ways to whip up a plate of meat and potatoes, we must proclaim the familiar gospel in unfamiliar ways, week after week (perhaps two to five times a week), month after month, year after year. Clearly, the creative demand on a pastor makes working as a restaurant chef on Mother's Day look easy.

Preaching Paul Dr. Brad R. Braxton,2010-08-01 Helpful and insightful strategies for preaching from the writings of Paul Few biblical figures are more compelling to preachers than the apostle Paul The story of his dramatic conversion on the road to Damascus is a favorite example of the way that God turns lives around His writings contain the earliest witness we have to the Christian gospel His message of God s offer of grace in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is deeply appealing So why is it that when it comes time to choose a text for this Sunday s sermon preachers so often choose something other than Paul When Brad Braxton asked himself that question he realized that preachers are often daunted by the size and complexity of the Pauline corpus Drawing on his expertise as a New Testament scholar and homiletics professor as well as on his experience as a pastor Braxton offers the reader tools with which to wrestle more effectively with the complex yet essential message of Paul Eschewing either a solely historical approach or a completely spiritual one the author brings the two together to explore the meaning of Paul s message in its original context as well as its contemporary application Written with imagination and depth of understanding this book is for anyone who wishes to know Paul better and to preach from his letters more effectively Stumbling over the Cross Joni S. Sancken,2016-04-21 It has never been easy to preach about the cross and resurrection of Jesus but difficulties today are particularly challenging Hearers ask tough questions of the church and the Christian faith and they are not satisfied by formulaic answers People are often suspicious of doctrine and are attracted to a broad but vague or pluralistic spirituality rather than the classical claims of Christianity In this climate preachers often see preaching on the central events of the Christian story the crucifixion and resurrection as more of a problem than a possibility more of a burden than a joy They wonder not only how to preach the old old story of cross and resurrection but whether they should preach these themes at all This book addresses these concerns and shows preachers how to preach the cross and resurrection in fresh culturally relevant ways that deepen Christian discipleship Each chapter shows the relevance of preaching the cross for addressing a particular congregational concern What has ironically become a stumbling block in the pulpit the stone that preachers often reject preaching on the cross and resurrection of Jesus can serve as the cornerstone for building up the congregation for discipleship in our world Our Sufficiency is of God Timothy George, James Earl Massey, Robert Smith, 2010 Resources for preachers steadily appear called forth by the perennial need on the part of working pastors for helpful and inspirational materials backed by tested experience reverent scholarship and creative insights The essays in this book are of that cast and each essay is the work of an experienced practitioner scholar in the field of preaching The chapters focus on the preaching ministry of Gardner Calvin Taylor in whose honor the volume was prepared They are offered with affection and esteem by colleagues students and friends fellow preachers all whose own attempts to speak the unsearchable riches of Christ owe much to the life and labors of Gardner C Taylor Considered by many as the greatest living American preacher Gardner C Taylor has often reminded other preachers about the need for divine help in fulfilling the call All in all a summons to the ministry is no light calling The work of communicating the gospel requires us to be more than we are to exceed who we are This volume will lead readers to the realization of the need for grace and a sufficiency only found in God II Cor 3 5 KJV as indicated by the title Our Sufficiency Is of God Delivering the Sermon Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2008-10-01 In Delivering the Sermon Teresa Fry Brown introduces preachers to the effective use of voice and body in the animation of the word in the preaching moment Combining the latest research in communications speech pathology and homiletics with her own experience as a speech language pathologist Fry Brown creatively empowers preachers to improve their effectiveness in proclamation Practical suggestions and exercises for enhancing voice diction and nonverbal engagement of the listener useable by groups or individuals are included in each chapter Equipped for Good Work Cothen, Th.D., Joe H., 2002 Preaching the Whole Counsel of God Julius Kim, 2015-11-17 Preaching the Whole Counsel of God is a primary textbook on the art and science of preaching for pastors and pastors in training that teaches you how to practice expository Christ focused hermeneutics combined with Gospel centered audience transforming homiletics It will guide you to Discover the truth of the text according to the human author Discern Christ in the text according to the divine author Design your sermon with truth goodness and beauty Deliver your sermon in a way that keeps attention retention and leads to transformation Called to Teach William Yount, 1999-01-01 Written as a textbook for courses on teaching at the college and seminary level Called to Teach actually reaches out to a much wider audience Those considering a teaching career homeschoolers and parents will gain valuable insight and knowledge from Yount s latest book
