The Abc'S of Children'S Sermons Melanie J. Barton,2012-10-04 Childrens Sermons are often inadequately prepared understood maybe only by the adults and leave the youth wanting something to which they can relate Because children take what you say literally the stories need to be brief to the point and use simple and age appropriate words Leaders need to get and stay on the childrens eye level This book will help you do that by offering a written sample story related to one of the weeks lectionary passages An accompanying auditory example is told on the CDs Each lesson tells you what props are needed The storyteller is encouraged to include some of their own personal walk with God to make the sermonettes come alive These tools will prepare you to plan ahead to present a relevant effective message that the boys and girls will not only learn from but will come back wanting to hear more Patterns of Preaching Ronald J. Allen,1998-01-01 This collection of sermons by noted homileticians illustrates thirty four distinct styles of contemporary and traditional preaching Lent Through Eastertide David L. Bartlett,Barbara Brown Taylor,2010-10-01 Feasting on the Word offers pastors focused resources for Sermon preparation written by companions on the way With four different essays on each of the four biblical texts assigned by the Revised Common Lectionary this series offers preachers sixteen different ways into the proclamation of God's Word on any given occasion For each reading preachers will find brief essays on the exegetical theological homiletical and pastoral challenges of the text The page layout is unusual By setting the biblical passage at the top of the page and placing the essays beneath it we mean to suggest the interdependence of these four approaches without granting priority to any one of them Some readers may decide to focus on the Gospel passage for instance by reading all four essays provided for that text Others may decide to look for connections between the Hebrew Bible Psalm Gospel and Epistle texts by reading the theological essays on each one Wherever they begin preachers will find what they need in a single volume produced by writers from a wide variety of disciplines and religious traditions These authors teach in colleges and seminaries They lead congregations They write scholarly books as well as columns for the local newspaper They oversee denominations In all these capacities and more they serve God's Word joining the preacher in the ongoing challenge of bringing that Word to life We have been honored to work with a multitude of gifted thinkers writers and editors We present these essays as their offering and ours to the blessed ministry of preaching From the introduction by David L. Bartlett Barbara Brown Taylor Feasting on the Word— Year C, Volume 4 David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2010-04-12 With this new lectionary commentary series Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today When complete the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day Epiphany Holy Week and All Saints Day For each lectionary text preachers will find four brief essays one each on the theological pastoral exegetical and homiletical challenges of the text This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion The editors and contributors to this series are world class scholars pastors and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its contents Feasting on the Word: Year C, Volume 3 David L.
