Preaching Without Notes:

How to Preach without Notes Charles W. Koller, 2007-09-01 This is a classic that has stood the test of time For forty five years seminary students and pastors have benefited from the principles found in this book Two of Koller s popular texts Expository Preaching without Notes and Sermons Preached without Notes are combined in a single volume that allows preachers to prepare and deliver sermons without being tied to a manuscript or even outlines or notes Among the eighteen topics discussed are the biblical conception of preaching the advantages of preaching without notes homiletical devices the importance of structure and the systematic filing of materials Now repackaged for the next generation of preachers with a foreword by current Northern Seminary preaching professor Michael J Quicke How to Preach without Notes is poised to continue its history of strong and steady sales

Preaching Without Notes Joseph M. Webb, 2001 In this important book Webb makes two central claims First that effective preaching without a manuscript is not a matter of talent as much as it is a matter of preparation Preachers can learn the practices and disciplines that make it possible to deliver articulate thoughtfully crafted sermons not from a written page but as a natural spontaneous act of oral communication Throughout the book the author offers specific examples including a transcript of a sermon preached without manuscript or notes Second that the payoff of learning to preach without a manuscript is nothing less than sermons that more effectively and engagingly give witness to the good news

Setting the World on Fire Laura R. Dejmek, 2014-08-19 Laypersons receiving a divine call to preach in the Roman Catholic Church may feel caught between a rock and a hard place both figuratively and ecclesiastically They may feel constrained between the Rock of Peter and the hard place of resistance to the preaching gift they believe they have and their desire to share it At first glance the Roman Catholic Church with its two millennia of Sacred Tradition seemingly offers little that favors the inclusion of lay preachers In addition many lay preachers may experience the bias of clergy and assembly members who unconsciously presume there is no role for laity to preach within the Roman Catholic Church Preaching does not occur solely within liturgical settings or only via pulpit preachers All Dominicans as members of the Order of Preachers are called to embody the Sacra Praedicatio the Sacred Preaching In fact canon law does permit laity to preach in certain liturgical settings Setting the World on Fire details one Roman Catholic woman s experience of her own call to preach the grace and gifts brought to both the preacher and the assembly as well as her desire to help all Dominicans and indeed all Christians embrace their rightful role as preachers

Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry
