Preaching And Culture Identity Proclaiming The Gospel In Africa:

Preaching and Cultural Identity John Wesley Zwomunondiita Kurewa, 2000 The thesis of this book is threefold 1 that the Church in Africa continues to affirm the preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ 2 that the Church in Africa learns afresh to indigenize itself to the point that Christianity truly becomes an African religion and 3 that preaching in Africa needs to increasingly use African historical cultural traditional religious concepts imagery and idiom rather than missionary given Western forms in order to communicate the gospel more effectively in the new millennium Kurewa invites the African Church to take a closer look at African culture as God given rather than continuing to preach worship sing and counsel as if imitating Western missionaries Kurewa urges the African Church to claim its own culture with pride and integrity He gives examples on how specific customs can be integrated into Christian life worship and preaching Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A. Ajibade, 2021-06-30 How can expository preaching rooted in a textual analysis of Scripture be effectively utilized in oral cultures In Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A Ajibade engages this challenge directly offering practical techniques for integrating African oral elements such as myths proverbs folklore dance drama poetry and storytelling into preaching that is both biblical and African Alongside numerous examples and tools Ajibade provides a rich overview of the nature of orality the history and development of African preaching and the reason biblical exposition must be central to gospel proclamation He reminds us that it is the word of God incarnated among us that has the power to transform lives and revitalize nations Contextualized expository preaching is not therefore one technique to be utilized among many it is rather the heart of biblical teaching and the future of the African church While contributing significantly to studies in contextualization and homiletics this book is immediately applicable to practitioners especially African preachers and those working in oral contexts The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice Identity and Ecclesiology Stephanie A. Lowery, 2017-04-25 Questions of identity continue to intrigue theologians in Africa and African intellectuals often note communal emphases in African thought This raises the question How do ecclesiologies in Africa engage with identity concerns and how do they envision the Christian identity Stephanie Lowery argues in this book that theologians in Africa provide theological and biblical arguments regarding Christian identity that are relevant to individual Christians and ecclesiologies in all contexts She also proposes the social identity approach as a tool that can both further articulate and advance these discussions

Towards a Catholic theology in the African context Denis Mpanga, 2017 A Catholic Theology in a current African context remains a challenge for theologians How can authentic African elements contribute to a catholic theological discourse that can contribute to a reawakening of contextual theological reconstructions faithful to cultural contexts This work responds by bringing into the dialogue one of the renowned German theologians Karl Adam and showing his success in his contextual theological project but also evidencing his failures and thereby setting boundaries for contextual theological constructions Denis Mpanga is Catholic priest of the Archdiocese of Kampala Uganda working as Fidei Donum priest in Rottenburg Stuttgart Germany Dissertation Series Communicative Theology Interdisciplinary Communicative Theology Interdisciplinary Studies Kommunikative Theologie interdisziplinär Communicative Theology Interdisciplinary Studies Vol 19 Subject African Studies Catholic Studies Religious Studies

Evangelical Christianity and Democracy in Africa Terence O. Ranger, 2008-04-22 In recent decades Christianity has acquired millions of new adherents in Africa the region with the world's fastest expanding population What role has this development of evangelical Christianity played in Africa's democratic history To what extent do its churches affect its politics By taking a historical view and focusing specifically on the events of the past few years Evangelical Christianity and Democracy in Africa seeks to explore these questions offering individual case studies of six countries Nigeria Zimbabwe South Africa Kenya Zambia and Mozambique Unlike most analyses of democracy which come from a secular Western tradition these contributors mainly younger scholars based in Africa bring first hand knowledge to their chapters and employ both field and archival research to develop their data and analyses The result is a groundbreaking work that will be indispensable to everyone concerned with the future of this volatile region Evangelical Christianity and Democracy in Africa is one of four volumes in the series Evangelical Christianity and Democracy in the Global South which seeks to answer the question What happens when a revivalist religion based on scriptural orthodoxy participates in the volatile politics of the Third World At a time when the global political impact of another revivalist and scriptural religion Islam fuels vexed debate among analysts the world over these volumes offer an unusual comparative perspective on a critical issue the often combustible interaction of resurgent religion and the developing world's unstable politics

Abraham Our Father Israel Kamudzandu, 2013 Israel Kamudzandu explores the legacy of how the Shona found in the figure of Abraham himself a potent resource for cultural resistance and makes intriguing comparisons with the ways the apostle Paul used the same figure in his interaction with the ancestry of Aeneas in imperial myths of the destiny of the Roman people The result is a groundbreaking study that combines the best tradition historical insights with postcolonial critical acumen Kamudzandu offers at last a model of multi cultural Christianity forged in the experience of postcolonial Zimbabwe Decolonizing Mission Partnerships Taylor Walters Denyer,2020-06-26 We all know that healthy partnerships are essential to fruitful boundary crossing ministries but how exactly do we create them What barriers must be overcome and what self examination must we do How do the legacies of colonialism racism and unhealed trauma impact missional collaborations today In this doctoral thesis Denyer reflects on these questions as she examines the history of relational dynamics between American and Congolese United Methodists in the North Katanga Conference DR Congo By surveying memoirs magazines and journals and conducting in depth interviews Denyer presents a complex and multifaceted example of a partnership that is in the process of decolonizing More than just a history lesson Decolonizing Mission Partnerships presents the questions hard truths pitfalls and toxic assumptions we must face when attempting to be in mission together Introduction to Biblical Interpretation William W. Klein,Craig L. Blomberg,Robert L. Hubbard, Jr.,2017-03-28 Introduction to Biblical Interpretation now in its third edition is a classic hermeneutics textbook that sets forth concise logical and practical guidelines for discovering the truth in God s Word With updates and revisions throughout that keep pace with current scholarship this book offers students the best and most up to date information needed to interpret Scripture Introduction to Biblical Interpretation Defines and describes hermeneutics the science of biblical interpretation Suggests effective methods to understand the meaning of the biblical text Surveys the literary cultural social and historical issues that impact any text Evaluates both traditional and modern approaches to Bible interpretation Examines the reader s role as an interpreter of the text and helps identify what the reader brings to the text that could distort its message Tackles the problem of how to apply the Bible in valid and significant ways today Provides an extensive and revised annotated list of books that readers will find helpful in the practice of biblical interpretation Used in college and seminary classrooms around the world this volume is a trusted and valuable tool for students and other readers who desire to understand and apply the Bible Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote,2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction The Future of the Biblical Past Roland Boer, Fernando Segovia, 2012-10-30 What does global biblical studies look like in the early decades of the twenty first century and what new directions may be discerned Profound shifts have taken place over the last few decades as voices from the majority of the globe have begun and continue to reshape and relativize biblical studies With contributors from Africa Asia the Pacific Europe Latin America the Caribbean and North America this volume is a truly global work offering surveys and assessments of the current situation and suggestions for the future of biblical criticism in all corners of the world The contributors are Yong Sung Ahn George Aichele Pablo R Andi ach Roland Boer Fiona Black Philip Chia Nancy Cardoso Pereira Jione Havea Israel Kamudzandu Milena Kirova Tat siong Benny Liew Monica Melancthon Judith McKinlay Sarojini Nadar Jorge Pixley Jeremy Punt Elisabeth Sch ssler Fiorenza Fernando F Segovia Hanna Stenstr m Vincent Wimbush and Gosnell Yorke Translation as Incarnation Israel Kamudzandu, 2023-10-26 The publication and attention given to postcolonial work has flooded the field of academia yet not much attention has been paid to the precolonial premissional and colonial eras and receptions of the Western Missionary Bible and its impact on the colonization of Global South nations schools in this area had to wrestle with the study of the Bible from kindergarten to college Through vigorous readings of the New Testament and other related subjects indigenous Christian converts demanded that the Bible needed to be translated into various vernacular and ethnic languages The hunger for engaging the Bible in the linguistic worldview of people led to the process of translation printing and distribution into rural and urban centers Hence the journey of the Bible and its reception in the Global South is what is referred to as Vernacular Translation as Incarnation taken from John 1 14 Therefore this book is an invitation to postcolonial readers of the Bible as well as an urgent invitation to both Europe and North America to consider having the Bible in schools so that young minds can be engaged by it Without translations of the Bible into the vernacular Christianity would not be growing as it is in the Global South nations namely Asia Africa and Latin America Hence vernacular translations of the Bible are indeed incarnational Christianity and Culture Martin S. Reed, 2002 In over 2 000 years Christianity has made the overwhelming impact on the culture of the Western world in particular But culture has also helped to shape the development and form of Christianity since the interaction of two such powerful phenomena cannot help but change the other This new book brings together over 1200 citations on Christianity and Culture which are indexed by subject title and author for easy access How We Preach Eben Kanukayi Nhiwatiwa, 2016-09-01 This book is the second of two volumes on Preaching in African Context For both seasoned preachers and beginners including students in seminaries Bible colleges and universities this second volume explores how we preach and the practice of contextual preaching in Africa The two volumes go hand in hand and Nhiwatiwa demonstrates that the principles need good practice to become contextual preaching and our practice needs principles to ensure integrity Read these volumes to see why preaching is an urgent aspect of ministry that can open new horizons and give fresh outlook for the future

Spreading the Gospel in Colonial Virginia Edward L. Bond,2005-01-01 Due to a perceived lack of resources historians of colonial era Virginia have generally heaped their attention on regional politics and virtually ignored the area s rich religious history Even at a time of revived interest in Virginia s religious atmosphere few scholars have opted to examine what is perhaps one of the region s most valuable primary resources sermon literature Edward L Bond offers a reappraisal of religion s place in the colonies fully chronicling as well as contextualizing the practice of religion and church activities in early America He explains the inextricable ties between religious life and community life setting the stage for sermons and original documents that color in a vibrant picture of life in the Virginia colony The sermons appear as they do in the original with all notes and marginalia intact Bond s own notes provide definitions of obscure words and terms explanations of arcane allusions and references for unattributed citations His commentary vastly enriches our appreciation not only of the texts but also of their writers and the important role these clergymen played in shaping the young nation Spreading the Gospel in Colonial Virginia is fascinating reading for armchair and professional historians alike and is an ideal teaching tool for courses in early American history

Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers,2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there

Why We Preach Eben Kanukayi Nhiwatiwa,2016-09-01 This book is the first of two volumes on Preaching in the African Context For both seasoned preachers and beginners including students in seminaries Bible colleges and universities this first volume explores why we preach and the principles of contextual preaching in Africa Nhiwatiwa demonstrates that contextual preaching serves as the most appropriate way of communicating the gospel in Africa it can connect with and engage the minds of people in effective ways Read these volumes to see why preaching is an urgent aspect of ministry that can open new horizons and give fresh outlook for the future Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004
