Preaching Lukes Gospel A Narrative Approach:

Preaching Luke's Gospel Richard A. Jensen, 1997 Preachers and Bible teachers will find this book helpful in guiding them to be biblical storytellers Testimonies to the value of Dr Richard Jensen's book have been numerous and include the following Rather than preach about the biblical text one is encouraged and equipped to proclaim the biblical narrative His book is refreshingly practical and biblical It stimulates biblical preaching preparation and proclamation The preacher is moved from telling a story to telling the story Pastor Paul Gunsten St Philip Lutheran Church Roanoke Virginia I really appreciate the direction each chapter opens for possible preaching emphasis I thought the first few chapters might just be flukes but each succeeding one holds its own Thanks Pastor William Lawson Trinity Lutheran Church Green Bay Wisconsin Through a process of narrative analogy Dr Jensen shows how the stories in the appointed texts of the Revised Common Lectionary relate to the other stories in Luke Acts In so doing he opens up new discoveries for preaching Richard A Jensen is well known for his 10 years of preaching for the national radio program Lutheran Vespers He is currently Dean of the Program for Doctor of Ministry in Preaching sponsored by the Association of Chicago Theological Seminaries and also professor of Homiletics at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago In addition to three years of teaching in Ethiopia Jensen has served as professor at Dana College Wartburg Theological Seminary and Luther Northwest Seminary He has served as Producer Host of two television series and is the author of eight books and numerous published articles

Preaching Matthew's Gospel Richard A. Jensen, 1998 Jensen's research and insights provide a stimulating resource on Matthew's Gospel Jensen provides Homiletical Directions at the end of each chapter that will help the preacher find a focus and locate themes for preaching the text Jensen points to the ways in which the biblical writers lock their stories together with other stories in order to give fuller meaning to their narratives He covers material that is not included in the assigned lectionary texts and discusses the inter relatedness of Matthew's stories These narrative analogies imply that preaching on Matthew's Gospel may at times be a retelling of two or more Matthean stories This is the third installment in Jensen's series which also includes Preaching Mark's Gospel and Preaching Luke's Gospel Richard A Jensen is the Axel Jacob and Gerda Maria Swanson Carlson Professor of Homiletics at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago He is also Dean of the Doctor of Ministry in Preaching program of the Association of Chicago Theological Schools He is well known throughout the country as the preacher for eleven years on the radio program Lutheran Vespers sponsored by the ELCA Jensen has served as professor at Mekane Yesus Seminary in Addis Ababa Ethiopia Dana College in Blair Nebraska Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque Iowa and Luther Seminary in St Paul Minnesota He is the author of nine books and numerous published articles

Jensen, 2005 In this one volume resource kit Jensen helps preachers use visual images creatively and responsibly How how much when what equipment use of teams relationship to exegesis different varieties of images sources all the essential topics and concerns are addressed here Jensen first discusses how vital

if controversial image making has always been in Christian tradition and then demonstrates how preaching with images is both profoundly traditional and necessary to contemporary proclamation His work combines practical advice with religious reflection to enable preachers to help their congregations envision the Word anew The accompanying CD ROM contains not only the full text of the book and helpful study guide but links to the most helpful Websites and Web based sources of images

A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease

The Minister's Annual Manual for Preaching and Worship Planning, 2000-2001 Sharilyn A. Figueroa, 2000 Ethical Approaches to Preaching John S. McClure, 2021-02-23 Different ethical situations require different homiletical responses John McClure organizes recent literature on ethics and preaching into four ethical approaches Does your situation require public moral leadership Then a communicative ethic is best Does your situation require the development of countercultural moral character Then a witness ethic is best Does your situation require ethical consciousness raising and organizing for social justice Then a liberationist ethic is best Does your situation require genuine moral conversation and the discernment of shared commitments in spite of our differences Then a hospitality ethic is best Each ethical approach is briefly and carefully explored correlated with appropriate contexts and situations and demonstrated with model sermons The result is a useful handbook for quickly discerning what ethical approach is needed how to preach that approach and what to expect as a result

Old Testament Conceptual Metaphors and the Christology of Luke's Gospel Gregory R. Lanier, 2018-08-23 Extensive scholarship has been devoted to Jesus' depiction in the Gospels and how such depiction is influenced by the Old Testament Gregory R Lanier presents a new case for the importance of conceptual metaphor arguing that the Gospel of Luke employs certain metaphors reflected in Israel's traditions such as horn of salvation dawn from on high mother bird gathering Jerusalem's children and crushing stone in order to portray the identity of Jesus as both an agent of salvation and more provocatively the one God of Israel Setting his argument at the intersection of three sub fields of New Testament scholarship early Christology the use of Israel s Scriptures in the New Testament and contemporary metaphor theory Lanier suggests ways to overcome the low high binary and perceive the Gospel s Christology as multi faceted Applying metaphor theory to the influence of the Old Testament metaphors on Luke s Christology Lanier adds methodological rigor to the tracing of such influences in cases where standard criteria for quotations and allusions echoes are stretched thin Narrative Reading, Narrative Preaching Joel B. Green, Michael Pasquarello, III, 2003-12-01 There is often an unfortunate division between the technical work of biblical scholars and the practical work of preachers who construct sermons each week These two fields of study which ought to be mutually informed and supportive are more often practically divided by divergent methods interests and goals Narrative Reading Narrative Preaching aims to bridge that divide Using narrative as an organizing theme the contributors work through the New Testament offering examples of how interpretation can rightly inform proclamation Three pairs of chapters feature an exemplary reading by a New Testament scholar followed by a sermon informed by that reading Introductory and concluding chapters provide guidance for application of the model Pastors and seminarians will find here a uniquely practical work that will help them with both the reading and preaching of Scripture Jesus' Exposition of the Old Testament in Luke's Gospel Charles Kimball, 1994-03-01 This work presents an inductive exegetical analysis of Jesus exegetical methods and expositions in Luke s Gospel in light of first century Jewish exegetical methods via an examination of the eight Lukan pericopes in which Jesus expounds explicit Old Testament quotations This study offers the following conclusions In Luke s Gospel Jesus expounded Scripture as the basis for understanding his person and ministry teaching his followers and inquirers and debating his religious opponents He employed many of the exegetical methods of ancient Judaism Yet he frequently offered interpretations of Scripture that were radically different from other Jewish teachers because of his superior understanding of Scripture and his application of Scripture to himself In turn he influenced the early church s biblical expositions in considerable measure Jesus expounded Scripture for Christological and doctrinal lessons In his Christological expositions he made an eschatological application of certain biblical texts to himself claiming to be the fulfillment of Old testament messianic prophecies In his doctrinal expositions he corrected traditional Jewish interpretation claiming a superior exegesis of Scripture The Christological expositions employed pesher fulfillment motifs and several midrashic techniques to show that the A Study of Luke's Gospel by the Questionnaire Method Rollin Hough Walker, 1921 Preaching Through the Year of Luke David J. Schlafer, 2000 Preaching Luke-acts Ronald James Allen, 2000 The gospel of Luke and the book of Acts provide researchers with new perspectives on some of the deepest longings of our time the search for a transcendent perspective on the meaning of life yearning for community and other issues that resonate with contemporary concerns In this book Allen raises up common motifs that occur in Luke and Acts and shows how these motifs can be used for effective preaching Preaching that Matters Stephen Farris, 1998-01-01 Preaching is the art of building a bridge in the hearer's mind from the ancient world of the biblical text to the realities of our daily lives Throughout this book Stephen Farris offers splendid insights into ways that the Bible can connect with modern life and gives specific guidance to preachers on how to make these connections happen This is a highly practical book for ministers and for classroom use

The Gospels as Stories Jeannine K. Brown, 2020-06-16 Popular writer and teacher Jeannine Brown shows how a narrative approach illuminates each of the Gospels helping readers see the overarching stories This book offers a corrective to tendencies to read the Gospels piecemeal one story at a time It is filled with numerous examples and visual aids that show how narrative criticism brings the text to life making it an ideal supplementary textbook for courses on the Gospels Readers will gain hands on tools and perspectives to interpret the Gospels as whole stories Luke's Pauline Narrative Graham Jackman, 2019-07-09 This study of the Third Gospel is based on two main ideas first that it is Pauline and bears the imprint of the association between Paul and its writer assumed to be Luke and secondly that it is a narrative a written account that takes the form of a story As a narrative it is quite different from the argumentative conceptual style of Paul's letters This study illustrates how Pauline themes are translated into the deceptive simplicity of narrative giving particular attention to the parables

Luke Arthur Just Jr., Thomas C.
