Preaching on the Sayings of Jesus D. W. Cleverley Ford, 1996 The sayings of Jesus enshrined in the four Gospels of the New Testament are here discussed in an attempt to fully understand their meaning the use to which Jesus put them and the original context in which they were uttered This book attempts to shed light on this aspect of Jesus s teaching and to make the sayings of Jesus accessible to all "Sayings of Jesus" Hardwicke Drummond Rawnsley, 1905 The Sayings of Jesus, 1979 The author begins by identifying four primary motives for the collecting of Jesus sayings in the Gospels first the pastoral care of young Churches which grew out of missionary efforts second the disciples personal interest in Jesus the teacher third the apologetic value of such teaching amid the competing philosophies of the Gentile world and fourth the need for the Palestinian community to defend itself against the charge of holding doctrines subversive to the faith of Judaism He then discusses the sources of the Gospels the forms in which Jesus teaching has come down to us and its meaning and permanent value The main part of the book consists of those texts from the first three Gospels which record Jesus sayings along with the author s commentary In the end writes the author the sayings of Jesus are explained only in connection with his ministry The life and work of Jesus his teaching the cross and the resurrection are all of one piece for Jesus the teaching is an essential part of his life work but it is not the whole The book concludes with a helpful epilogue which summarizes Jesus teaching and its relation to the Kingdom of God Back cover Preaching the Hard Words of Jesus Steven D.
