Preaching the Parables, Series III, Cycle B Dallas A. Brauninger, 2005 Jesus used his parables to teach ordinary people with common problems yet because these simple stories contain universal truths that transcend time and culture they still strike a powerful chord and provide us with important lessons about God's kingdom Preaching the Parables offers a gold mine of informative background material on each of the seven parables appearing in Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary Dallas Brauninger probes these familiar texts with a fresh imaginative viewpoint revealing what they tell us about God and inviting further reflection on what they mean for modern living Preaching the Parables is much more than just a sermon preparation resource it's also an excellent Bible study tool exploring questions like What dimension of the soul that needs tending does the parable address What is the parable's surprise What moves us into hope How does its point become obvious How do its characters relate to us today Brauninger identifies points of action examines significant terms and engages in imaginary exchanges with a variety of characters The complete text of each parable is also included along with an analysis highlighting similarities and differences in parallel passages And there's a convenient word study index for locating key concepts from parables in all three lectionary cycles What a refreshingly helpful way to exegete the text The succinct but substantive Spadework Parallel Scripture and Chat Room sections provide the preacher with an exciting array of ways to understand and give meaning to the parables Brauninger's writing will afford the reader many Ahas Diana Coberly Pastor First Congregational United Church of Christ Great Bend Kansas This permission giving resource encourages the reader to develop questions for the text It's the kind of yeast which gives rise to new shades and flavors of meaning Preaching the Parables nourishes a fresh receptivity to the speaking of the Spirit of God in the lectionary passage and in life Nancy B Rohde United Church of Christ minister Charlevoix Michigan Dallas A Brauninger a cum laude graduate of Albion College holds M Div and honorary D Div degrees from Chicago Theological Seminary She is the author of numerous CSS preaching and worship resources including the Preaching the Miracles series and the Lectionary Worship Aids series Co pastor with her husband Robert of a congregation in Burwell Nebraska Brauninger is currently engaged in the Pastoral Excellence Program of the United Church of Christ's Nebraska Conference

Preaching the Parables Dallas A. Brauninger, 2004-06 Jesus used his parables to teach ordinary persons with ordinary quandaries yet because these simple stories contain universal truths that transcend time and culture they still provide us with powerful lessons Preaching the Parables provides a gold mine of background material on each of the fourteen parables appearing in Cycle A of the Revised Common Lectionary Dallas Brauninger brings a fresh imaginative approach to these familiar texts probing them to reveal what they tell us about God and inviting further reflection on what they mean for modern living Much more than just a sermon preparation resource Preaching the Parables explores questions like What dimension of the soul that needs tending does the parable address What is the parable's surprise What moves us into hope How does its point become obvious How do its characters relate to us today Brauninger identifies points of action examines significant terms and engages in imaginary exchanges with a variety of characters The complete text of each parable is also included along with an analysis highlighting similarities and differences in parallel passages Modeled on the format of Brauninger's popular Preaching the Miracles series each chapter includes five sections Text What's Happening Spadework Parallel Scripture Chat Room What a refreshingly helpful way to exegete the text The succinct but substantive Spadework Parallel Scripture and Chat Room sections provide the preacher with an exciting array of ways to understand and give meaning to the parables Brauninger's writing will afford the reader many Ahas Diana Coberly Pastor First Congregational United Church of Christ Great Bend Kansas Dallas A Brauninger a cum laude graduate of Albion College received her Master of Divinity degree and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary She is the author of numerous CSS worship resources including the Preaching the Miracles series and the Lectionary Worship Aids series Co pastor with her husband Robert of a congregation in Burwell Nebraska Brauninger is currently engaged in the Pastoral Excellence Program of the United Church of Christ's Nebraska Conference

The Cumulative Book Index, 1999      Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997      Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series II: Cycle B Perry H. Biddle, 1987      Preaching the Miracles Dallas A. Brauninger, 1998 While this book offers information for the sermon writer the design of its contents provides more than the ho hum Brauninger avoids presenting a ready made cloak of words for a morning sermon Instead she invites preachers and their audiences to explore the gap between the back then and the now This not only helps to answer questions it generates them a crucial element in understanding the miracles of Jesus Five sections are devoted to each of the nine miracles in Cycle A Text For easy access the entire lectionary text is provided preventing the need to flip back and forth to the Bible What's Happening This gives a synopsis of points of action within each miracle story By reviewing the story action its movement conflict and change or resolution are defined Connecting Points Conversations This section offers the central material of each chapter Here Brauninger engages the preacher in an imaginary exchange before the text is given its usual preparatory attention A visit with main characters and an occasional bystander nudging readers toward stepping into their sandals This section invites the preacher and listening audience to ask relevant questions thus expanding their understanding Words Significant terms are examined While this work is not intended as a scholarly study it assists in placing things in proper context Gospel Parallels This section highlights similarities and differences among parallel stories and other gospels A helpful word study and bibliography are also included This series from Brauninger has proven to be a favorite among preachers Dallas A Brauninger received the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Divinity degrees from the Chicago Theological Seminary A full time writer Brauninger has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska She and her husband both ordained ministers in the United Church of Christ live in Friend Nebraska

Rhetoric, Religion and the Civil Rights Movement, 1954-1965 Davis W. Houck, David E. Dixon, 2006 V 2 Building upon their critically acclaimed first volume Davis W Houck and David E Dixon's new Rhetoric Religion and the Civil Rights

Movement 1954 1965 is a recovery project of enormous proportions Houck and Dixon have again combed church archives government documents university libraries and private collections in pursuit of the civil rights movement's long buried eloquence Their new work presents fifty new speeches and sermons delivered by both famed leaders and little known civil rights activists on national stages and in quiet shacks The speeches carry novel insights into the ways in which individuals and communities utilized religious rhetoric to upset the racial status quo in divided America during the civil rights era Houck and Dixon's work illustrates again how a movement so prominent in historical scholarship still has much to teach us

Commentary on the Bible: Numbers Philip J. Budd, 2019-06-18 This extract from the Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible provides Budd's introduction to and concise commentary on Numbers. The Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible presents in nontechnical language the best of modern scholarship on each book of the Bible, including the Apocrypha. Reader-friendly commentary complements succinct summaries of each section of the text and will be valuable to scholars, students, and general readers. Rather than attempt a verse-by-verse analysis, these volumes work from larger sense units, highlighting the place of each passage within the overarching biblical story. Commentators focus on the genre of each text: parable, prophetic oracle, legal code, and so on, interpreting within the historical and literary context. The volumes also address major issues within each biblical book, including the range of possible interpretations, and refer readers to the best resources for further discussions.
