Preaching the New Lectionary Dianne Bergant, Richard Fragomeni, 1999 Preaching the New Lectionary Dianne Bergant, Richard N. Fragomeni, 1999 2000 Catholic Press Association Award Winner The Lectionary is made up of selected passages from the Bible placed within a literary and liturgical context This new context calls for a consideration of the liturgical character and setting of the Lectionary readings Preaching the New Lectionary Year B offers readers that interpretation Preaching the New Lectionary is unique First it employs a literary liturgical way of interpreting all the readings of each Sunday and major feast of the liturgical year including the often overlooked responsorial psalm Second it explicitly situates the interpretation of each day within the theology of its respective liturgical season This theology is drawn from the specific themes of the readings that comprise that particular year rather than from more general themes associated with the season The meaning of the entire season becomes the context for understanding the individual parts of it Third the lections are also read in sequential order from the first Sunday of that season to the last This reading interprets the function of the literary forms thus providing yet another way of interpreting the riches of the readings This way of reading and understanding the Lectionary has potential for liturgical ministry It can quicken the religious imagination of homilists thus providing fresh new possibilities for liturgical preaching It offers creative insights for those involved in the liturgical preparation for the celebration of feasts and seasons It can also act as a valuable resource for liturgical catechesis The insights included in Preaching the New Lectionary contribute toward enhancing the liturgical lives of the faithful

A Handbook for Catholic Preaching Edward Foley, 2016 While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for catholic preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching the challenges of preaching in a digital age sermonizing in an interfaith context and the need for a liberative and prophetic word that cuts across denominations and even faith traditions Intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies Every article is a self contained overview of a particular historical period genre of preaching homiletic theory or contemporary issue This more
