Preaching The Risen Christ:

Great Preaching on the Resurrection, 1984 Nineteen sermons on the resurrection of Christ taken from the pages of The Sword Of The Lord Preaching the Risen Christ Douglas William Cleverley Ford, 1988 Raised with Christ Adrian Warnock, 2009-12-22 Jesus truly is alive today But compared to his atoning death Jesus resurrection sparks relatively little discussion in the church Inadvertently we can become so focused on the good news that Christ died for our sins that we almost forget he was raised for our justification Romans 4 25 In Raised with Christ author Adrian Warnock exhorts Christians not to neglect the resurrection in their teaching and experience Warnock takes his cue from Acts where every recorded sermon focuses on Jesus resurrection He stresses that Christians who faithfully proclaim both the death and the bodily resurrection of Jesus and live out the implications of that message in vibrant grace filled churches will be enabled to reach a world that lives in death's dark shadow The power of the risen Christ is active in every true Christian transforming our lives Raised with Christ will help you discover afresh the massive implications of the empty tomb Jesus resurrection really has changed everything The Risen Christ: a Sermon Preached in Rosneath Church on the Lord's Day After the Death of John McLeod Campbell, D.D. Robert Herbert Story, 1872 Preaching the Risen Christ D. W. Cleverley Ford, 1994-01 The Risen Christ: a Sermon [on 1 Cor. Xv. 32] Preached ... After the Death of J. McL. Campbell, D.D. Robert Herbert STORY, 1872 Risen Steven D. Mathewson, 2013-01-15 What would happen if believers truly grasped how the resurrection of Jesus changes not just their own standing with God but that it changes everything In the spirit of John Piper's Fifty Reasons Why Christ Came to Die Steven D Mathewson unpacks the New Testament Scriptures that speak of the reasons Jesus was raised from the dead In fifty brief chapters he offers readers faith filled meditations on the primary passages on the resurrection taking these ancient truths and applying them to contemporary life With compelling insight he shows why Jesus not only had to die but why his resurrection was necessary and how our lives change when we understand and embrace this essential truth of the Christian faith Easter in St. Paul's Henry Parry Liddon, 1885 Give Them Christ Stephen Seamands, 2012-04-08 Much preaching today begins with the hearer's felt needs and then moves to how Christianity can solve those problems But this approach often results in trite Christologies that merely use Jesus as a means to an end or a vehicle for self improvement While preachers might not dispense with Christ altogether other things subtly take center stage and become more important than Christ himself Pastoral theologian Stephen Seamands issues a stirring call to rediscover the centrality of Christ in preaching Deftly blending doctrine and praxis he revitalizes preaching by focusing on five key dimensions of Jesus work his incarnation crucifixion resurrection ascension and return Seamands highlights how preaching Christ crucified and risen speaks profoundly to the deepest dimensions of human existence Addressing both the what and the so what this exposition helps church leaders declare afresh that Christ alone is supremely sufficient for Christian faith and practice Pastors and preachers will find here significant resources for their churches worship life together and mission in the world Become captivated once again by the glory of Christ and find yourself compelled to proclaim his work anew The Lord Is Risen He Is Risen Indeed! He Really Is Richard Sheffield,1998 Richard Sheffield s preaching is stimulating and unique Whenever I am burdened or under pressure his pithy insights into the Gospel of our Lord refresh my spirit They sometimes also sting my soul to pay attention to more significant things in life than preoccupying problems He is also a courageous preacher when he says things we all think or doubt and dare not to express He handles life s misgivings kindly and cleanly so that listening to him is a religious experience This comes about because he came to the temple of religion through the corridors of commerce and knows the real world of his laymen Under his gentle manner there is the fire of Peter Thomas and St Paul all of whom also preached with integrity and conviction Bryant Kirkland Minister Emeritus Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church New York New York At first glance the Easter title may seem out of place for a book half full of sermons for Lent But Richard Sheffield argues and preaches that the sermon for Easter Day is really the sermon for every day in the life of a Christian The Lord Is Risen is really the only sermon we have or need to have How we live out our lives in response to that central fact of our faith fills the sermons in Lent as well as Easter with hope Hope in the here and now as well as in the hereafter Rev Sheffield has little patience with those who would turn the good news about God into the bad news about us and it shows He writes Belief is more than just ascertaining the facts and figures of faith Or figuring out the best way to keep God happy long enough to get into heaven Belief is living life now certain of the love of God in Jesus Christ for you and me Living life unafraid even of death itself Richard L Sheffield is senior pastor of Market Street Presbyterian Church Lima Ohio He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary and an M B A degree from the University of Chicago He is a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary The Christ of the 40 Days A. B. Simpson,2014-02-04 The heartbreaking events of Good Friday did not signal the end of Jesus Christ s ministry to His disciples far from it His resurrection on Easter morning was the beginning of a unique and significant time in His ministry on earth For the next forty days until His glorious ascension to heaven Jesus appeared many times to His followers During this remarkable period He taught them about the kingdom of God and explained the requirements of discipleship His own divine nature and the power they would soon receive to expand the kingdom of God into all the world Mark 16 15 Today we can experience that same power to accomplish God s work Those forty days were a link between heaven and earth that is a pattern for us As we walk with the resurrected Christ we discover how to reproduce His life in our own experience and we gain a new sense of His glorious reality and continual presence with us day by day Just before His ascension Jesus promised to be with us all the days even to the end of the age Relive those forty days with Christ following the risen Lord to a higher place of spiritual life and victory Resurrection Frank J. Matera,2015-01-13 At the heart of the Christian message stands the proclamation of the resurrection the good news that God raised Jesus from the dead In Resurrection The Origin and Goal of the Christian Life Frank Matera explains why the resurrection was so important to the early church and why it remains important for Christians today Beginning with the gospels then moving to the Acts of the Apostles the Pauline Epistles and concluding with Hebrews 1 Peter 1 John and the book of Revelation Matera provides a comprehensive overview of how the different writings of the New Testament proclaimed the resurrection of Jesus Christ Written in a clear and accessible manner Matera presents readers with a way to understand the central message of the New Testament and of Christian faith God raised Jesus from the dead Building on this message he shows that the resurrection of Jesus enables and empowers believers to live in the world today and provides them with the assurance that God will raise them from the dead as well

Third Voice Michael P. Knowles, 2021-01-14 What makes for powerful preaching Careful exegesis logical structure interesting illustrations and clear speech can all help But truly transformative preaching depends on divine power not human skill alone Those who would reduce preaching to simple systems or sure fire strategies for success will find little of interest here Instead this book appeals to those pastors and academics alike who find themselves confounded by the occasional futility of their best preaching and the unexpected success of their worst It invites readers to enter more deeply into the uncontrollable mystery that attends all efforts to speak in the name of Christ above all on the topic of resurrection Although the gospel always turns our attention to the crucified and risen Lord preaching about resurrection calls us to trust that the same God who raised Jesus from death will likewise grant life to us as preachers to our sermons and to our hearers alike Drawing on resources as diverse as Luther's understanding of the Christian gospel Speech Act theory and Bhabha's concept of Third Space Third Voice Preaching Resurrection argues that the true key to effective preaching is not rhetoric but spirituality

Preaching Jesus Christ David G. Buttrick, 2002-09-18 This book focuses on the life message death and resurrection of Christ as well as the problems of preaching Christology to the mind of our age the homiletic shape of Christology and the presence of Christ Buttrick urges that preachers declare the present tense reality of God's New Order The Kingdom

If a Sermon Falls in the Forest-- William Henry Shepherd, 2002 Solidly grounded in contemporary biblical scholarship this fascinating volume analyzes each of the major New Testament writers Matthew Mark Luke John Paul and places their accounts of Jesus resurrection in the broader context of their entire output Shepherd carefully studies the literary historical theological anthropological and sociological dimensions that color each writer's unique view of the resurrection and examines how these passages may be read in various interpretive communities Each section also includes sample sermons that illustrate how a preacher might treat these texts for an actual congregation This is an excellent resource for pastors and an informative easy to read manual for anyone who wants a deeper understanding of the New Testament

Which Way to Jesus? Harry N. Huxhold, 1996 These fifteen sermons are written for the season of Lent beginning with Ash Wednesday and ending with the Ascension of the Lord Most of them are based on scriptural texts from the gospel of John Harry Huxhold preaches sermons that are punctuated with fascinating illustrations He holds a congregation's attention to the end Within this collection of sermons for Cycle B are such titles as Beware of Your Piety Clean House Easter Jogging You Are My Witnesses Harry N Huxhold has served rural social service suburban campus and central city ministries of the church over a period of 48 years He has taught at the parochial secondary and university levels as well as in seminary and church forums He is the author of many devotional and sermon materials and contributes frequently to theological periodicals and journals

The Seven Last Words of the Risen Christ Joe E. Trull, 1985 Preaching Jesus Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2024-05-29 How can postcolonial approaches make a difference in preaching Jesus The many postcolonial approaches used in this book will help preachers reinterpret the stories metaphors and characters in the Bible and create new images of Jesus rooted in his historical identity as a colonized person Preaching Jesus with new images that are totally different from the traditional colonial ones not only challenges listeners to reconsider their individual and communal identities as followers of Jesus but also provides them with theological and ethical guidance for living out those identities in daily life Ultimately preaching Jesus through postcolonial approaches is a prophetic ministry that awakens listeners and their communities to seek reconciliation between colonized and colonizers and suggests a common ground of faith and hope for the life enhancing future of all people living in the twenty first century The five chapters of this book employ diverse postcolonial hermeneutical and homiletical methods across a broad disciplinary spectrum This range includes intersectional and interdisciplinary studies with historical literary and cultural approaches in dialogue with phenomenological philosophy a postcolonial practical theological method postcolonial feminist interpretation postcolonial biblical hermeneutics and postcolonial intertextuality All these approaches invite the colonized and their descendants to be conversation partners and reflect their lived experiences in the reimagining the identity of Jesus Moreover the theological and homiletical insights gained through such postcolonial approaches will help preachers invite their listeners into a partnership with the triune God in order to participate in God's reconciling work The postcolonial approaches used in this book contest the dominance of traditional assumptions and practices of preaching Jesus and propose a new homiletical paradigm that makes it possible for Christian preaching to contribute to the transformation of our present world into a life lived together in justice and peace with the new images of Jesus as postcolonial self postcolonial song postcolonial child postcolonial body and postcolonial friend
