Preaching Through Luke
James C. Goodloe IV, 2014-01-22 Luke wrote this Gospel so that you Theophilus may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught i e catechesis 1 4 It proceeds with a barrage of questions The first comes from Zechariah How shall I know 1 18 This is a question of knowledge The angel Gabriel answers that we shall know by the word of God 1 19 The second comes from Mary How will this be 1 34 This is a question of agency of how the Son of God can become human Gabriel answers that it will be by the power of God 1 35 The third comes from Elizabeth Why me 1 43 Why should the gospel of Jesus Christ come to her Mary answers that it has to do with God's choice election mercy and salvation 1 47 55 The fourth has to do with John What then will this child be 1 66 Zechariah answers that he will be a prophet 1 76 79 John is not the Christ but he will go before the Christ Thus begins the catechism according to Luke a series of questions in order that we may have certainty concerning the things we have been taught

Invitation to the Torah George Van Pelt Campbell,2020-07-10 We all love a good story The Torah or Pentateuch is regularly defamed as law Actually it s a saga about our search for happiness and how the God of the Bible fits into it Lacing legal material into narrative punctuated with poetry the Torah contrasts two provocative personalities named Abraham and Moses Fascinating and fickle their adventures portray two visions of approaching God The Torah was written to render a verdict on who is the best model This book demonstrates that Genesis Exodus Leviticus Numbers and Deuteronomy are a unified narrative framed as contrasting biographies proclaiming a coherent message It surveys each book s structure and themes to determine its argument and then articulates the Torah s message for people of all time its vision of human happiness It establishes that the Torah is the core of the Jewish and Christian Bibles and shows how the rest of the Bible elaborates its message Ending with suggestions to help you read it this book is your invitation to the Torah

From Noah to Israel Carol M. Kaminski,2005-01-01 The primaeval blessing Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth first announced to humankind in Genesis 1 28 is renewed to Noah and his sons after the flood in Genesis 9 1 There is widespread scholarly consensus that the ensuing dispersion in Genesis 10 1 32 and 11 1 9 is the means by which the creation blessing is fulfilled Kaminski argues that the primeval blessing is not fulfilled in the Table of Nations and that Yahweh s scattering Noah s descendants in the Babel story does not contribute positively to the creation theme Rather the creation blessing is being taken up in the primary line of Shem Genesis 11 10 26 which leads directly to Abraham She further suggests that divine grace is not absent after the Babel judgment as is commonly assumed but is at work in the Shemite genealogy She argues that the primeval blessing which is unfulfilled in the primaeval history is taken up by Abraham and his descendants by means of a divine promise While the blessing is in the process of being realised in the patriarchal narratives it is not fulfilled The multiplication theme is resumed however in Exodus 1 7 which describes Israel s proliferation in Egypt This is the first indication that the creation blessing is fulfilled Realisation of the primaeval blessing progresses after the flood therefore from Noah to Israel Yet God s blessing on Israel is not for their sake alone it is the means through which the divine intention for creation will be restored to the world JSOTS413

Abraham in the Old Testament and Early Judaism John Eifion Morgan-Wynne, 2020-04-23 In this book John Morgan Wynne carefully examines the pivotal figure of Abraham in the Old Testament and Early Judaism Our earliest literary evidence concerning Abraham is the stream of tradition known as J the so called Yahwist source ca tenth century BCE and also the Elohist stream of tradition ninth to eighth century or perhaps earlier The subsequent eclipse of the Abrahamic tradition in the south is probably accounted for by the stress on the Davidic monarchy However Abraham's profile begins to rise again during and after the Babylonian exile when Jewish theologians had to come to terms with the traumatic events of the fall of the northern and southern kingdoms He is frequently discussed in many non canonical early Jewish writings as he became a figure of identification a pre eminently righteous man and an example to imitate as Jews came to terms with being a subject people and with persecution

The Concept of Environment in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Christoph Böttigheimer, Wenzel Maximilian Widenka, 2023-03-06 On the seventh day God rested and thus completed his creation Likewise man should rest on the seventh day and every seven years leave the fields fallow to rest If you like a divine economic and environmental programme is encountered here Subdue the earth is not to be misunderstood as a mandate to subjugate and exploit but on the contrary as a call to preserve God's very good creation Its current explosiveness illustrates precisely this fundamental relationship Even secular circles now speak of the integrity of creation as a matter of course And in Muslim countries scholars and activists are preparing to launch a green Islam based of course on Quranic principles At the same time faith communities and churches with their commitment to nature and to a just world of work are moving into the concrete focus of public attention and are serious players in the current discourse Reason enough then to get to the bottom of the concept of environment in the world religions How do religions position themselves on the ecological question What are the foundations of their decisions And can they make a significant contribution to the current problem and to the enquiries of many people

Huskey's Study Notes on Historical Theology Michael Huskey, 2020-10-08 My people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge Hosea 4:6 The modern church is in grave danger If you pay attention at all this is easy to see One of the reasons we are in grave danger is our lack of knowledge The late Dr R C Sproul once said Everyone is a theologian The danger here lies in that if we do not have a correct understanding of God and his attributes we will create an idol of who we would like God to be Scripture tells us to love God with our whole minds A study of church history and of theology will help us accomplish this What you will find within the pages of this study is an emphasis on theology and doctrine as it was forced to become razor sharp due to people making God into the god they idolized As you proceed through these chapters you will be faced with questions that will help you to learn how to think critically You will learn many of the attributes of God You will also learn Christology soteriology hermeneutics apologetics polemics and a number of other tools to help guide you into who the biblical God truly is
