The Relación de Michoacán (1539-1541) and the Politics of Representation in Colonial Mexico Angélica Jimena Afanador-Pujol,2015-07-01 The Relaci n de Michoac n 1539 1541 is one of the earliest surviving illustrated manuscripts from colonial Mexico Commissioned by the Spanish viceroy Antonio de Mendoza the Relaci n was produced by a Franciscan friar together with indigenous noble informants and anonymous native artists who created its forty four illustrations To this day the Relaci n remains the primary source for studying the pre Columbian practices and history of the people known as Tarascans or P urh pecha However much remains to be said about how the Relaci n s colonial setting shaped its final form By looking at the Relaci n in its colonial context this study reveals how it presented the indigenous collaborators a unique opportunity to shape European perceptions of them while settling conflicting agendas outshining competing ethnic groups and carving a place for themselves in the new colonial society Through archival research and careful visual analysis Ang lica Afanador Pujol provides a new and fascinating account that situates the manuscript s images within the colonial conflicts that engulfed the indigenous collaborators These conflicts ranged from disputes over political posts among indigenous factions to labor and land disputes against Spanish newcomers Afanador Pujol explores how these tensions are physically expressed in the manuscript s production and in its many contradictions between text and images as well as in numerous emendations to the images By studying representations of justice landscape conquest narratives and genealogy within the Relaci n Afanador Pujol clearly demonstrates the visual construction of identity its malleability and its political possibilities
