Predestination And Justification:

Predestination and Justification Peter Martyr Vermigli, 2024-10-31 How does a gracious God save stubborn sinners We cannot answer this question without delving into two of the most challenging and hard fought doctrines in Christian theology predestination and justification Both doctrines played a crucial role in the Protestant Reformation provoking conflicts not merely between the Reformers and Rome but also within the ranks of each As a deeply Augustinian theologian trained in one of the leading Catholic universities before converting to Protestant teaching few men in the sixteenth century were so well equipped to address these difficult subjects as Peter Martyr Vermigli His treatments of these great doctrines developed as part of a series of lectures on the Book of Romans as Regius Professor of Theology at Oxford from 1550 to 1552 became classic statements of early Reformed theology exerting great influence on the development of the Reformed tradition in England and throughout Europe In them he blends his knowledge of the Augustinian tradition and the doctrinal precision of medieval scholastic theology with the intense study of the Scriptures characteristic of Reformation humanism Convinced that the work of salvation is wholly the work of a sovereign irresistible and gracious God Vermigli defends the implications of this conviction against both ancient heresies and recent Catholic opposition Vermigli s work has long been admired for both its erudition and precision both of which are on display here in his discussion of these sometimes difficult and obscure doctrines

Predestination and Justification Pietro Martire Vermigli, Frank A. James, 2003 Predestination and justification are two of the most distinctive and familiar doctrines associated with the Protestant Reformation Martyr an influential Protestant theologian and biblical exegete of the sixteenth century engages advocates and detractors alike in his most extensive discussions of these controversial theological topics drawn from his monumental commentary on the Apostle Paul s letter to the Romans The great value of these two treatises is that they provide a vital if unheralded Protestant perspective on what were two of the most controverted doctrines of the Reformation era not only between Roman Catholics and Protestants but also among the Reformed Lutheran and Anabaptists as well

Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification Cornelius C. Simut, 2019-10-01 Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification explores the doctrine of justification the doctrine of faith and grace and the doctrine of Scripture and use of reason in the early theology of Richard Hooker In order to prove that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu concentrates on Hooker's doctrine of justification as reflected in his Learned Discourse of Justification which is the most important work of his early theology Unlike previous books on Hooker which use primarily the theology of Luther and Calvin to draw conclusions this book brings together quotations and ideas from the works of Luther Melancthon Zwingli Bucer Calvin and Beza to show that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu also discusses the theological context of Hooker's career by offering an analysis of the doctrine of justification in the theology of John Jewel John Whitgift Hooker's patrons and Thomas Cartwright and Walter Travers Hooker's Puritan opponents The Doctrine of Salvation in the Sermons of Richard Hooker Corneliu C. Simut, 2012-02-14 This specialist work in historical theology deals with the doctrine of salvation in the early theology of Richard Hooker 1554-1600 from the perspective of the concept of faith and with Hooker's connections to the early English Reformers W Tyndale J Frith R Barnes T Cranmer J Bradford and J Foxe in crucial teachings such as justification sanctification glorification election reprobation the sovereignty of God and salvation of Catholics The study proves that Hooker's theology is firstly Protestant to counter the views which picture it as Catholic and secondly Calvinist Justification and Predestination, 18??

Calvinism and Scholasticism in Vermigli's Doctrine of Man and Grace John Patrick Donnelly, 2022-02-28 The Will of God and the Cross Jonathan H. Rainbow, 1990-01-01 This long standing series provides the guild of religion scholars a venue for publishing aimed primarily at colleagues It includes scholarly monographs revised dissertations Festschriften conference papers and translations of ancient and medieval documents Works cover the sub disciplines of biblical studies history of Christianity history of religion theology and ethics Festschriften for Karl Barth Donald W Dayton James Luther Mays Margaret R Miles and Walter Wink are among the seventy five volumes that have been published Contributors include C K Barrett Francois Bovon Paul S Chung Marie Helene Davies Frederick Herzog Ben F Meyer Pamela Ann Moeller Rudolf Pesch D Z Phillips Rudolf Schnackenburgm Eduard Schweizer John Vissers Beyond Calvin John V. Fesko, 2012-06-13 The investigation of union with Christ and justification has been dominated by the figure of John Calvin Calvin's influence however has been exaggerated in our own day Theologians within the Early Modern Reformed tradition contributed to the development of these doctrines and did not view Calvin as the normative theologian of the tradition John V Fesko therefore goes beyond Calvin and explores union with Christ and justification in the Reformation Early Orthodox and High Orthodox periods of the Reformed tradition and covers lesser known but equally important figures such as Juan de Valdes Peter Martyr Vermigli Girolamo Zanchi William Perkins John Owen Francis Turretin and Herman Witsius The study also covers theologians that either lie outside or transgress the Reformed tradition such as Martin Luther Philip Melancthon Faustus Socinus Jacob Arminius and Richard Baxter By treating this diverse body of figures the study reveals areas of agreement and diversity on these two doctrines The author demonstrates that among the diverse formulations all surveyed Reformed theologians accord justification priority over sanctification within the broader rubric of union with Christ Fesko shows that Reformed theologians affirm both union with Christ and the golden chain of salvation ideas that moderns find incompatible In sum rather than reading an individual theologian isolated from his context this study provides a contextual reading of union with Christ and justification in the Early Modern Reformed context Justification James K. Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2011-11-10 Therefore since we have been justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ Rom 5:1 When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti K rkk inen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul s meaning it is also a case book in theological method
