Caves of Terror Purple Pirate and Tros of Samothrace are discussed and placed within the framework of Mundy's life and philosophy The final chapter evaluates the enduring value of his writings Appendices include a comprehensive list of Mundy's works and a chronological listing by their original publication dates

Reincarnation in Clement of Alexandria Sami Yli-Karjanmaa, 2025-06-19

International scholarly consensus holds that despite his obvious Platonic affinities Clement of Alexandria ca 150-215 CE rejected the doctrine of reincarnation This study finds that this consensus does not do justice to what Clement actually writes In his most explicit statement Clement singles out reincarnation as the example he wants to give of the finest doctrines of the best philosophers Though most of Clement's other writing is more subtle than that endorsement is still the most plausible explanation of what he says The tenet clearly esoteric for Clement is in harmony with his anthropology ethics and his synergistic soteriology that includes the crucial role of Jesus
