Prejudice Stories About Hate Ignorance Revelation And Transformation:

Prejudice Daphne Muse,1995 Anthology of stories about all sorts of prejudice by authors including Sandra Cisneros Jacqueline Woodson Lynda Barry and others Love to Hate Jody Roy,2002-08-27 Why is the simple impulsive question we ask when confronted by horrible acts of hatred and violence Why do students shoot fellow students or employees their coworkers Why do mothers drown their children or husbands stalk and kill their wives Love to Hate challenges us to turn this question upon ourselves at a deeper level Why as a culture are we so fascinated by these acts Why do we bestow celebrity on the perpetrators while allowing the victims to fade into a second death of obscurity Are we as Pope John Paul II famously accused a culture of death And if so how can we break free of this unacknowledged aspect of the cycle of violence Unlike those who point solely to media imagery splintered families or lax gun control laws in search of the roots of America s endemic violence Jody M Roy suggests that we all must be held responsible She argues that we reveal our love affair with hatred and violence in the ways we think and speak in our daily lives and in our popular culture The very words we use function as building blocks of callousness and contempt betraying our immersion in subtexts of violence and hatred These subtexts are further revealed in our complex attitudes toward street gangs school shooters serial killers and hate groups and the paroxysms of violence they unleash As spectators driven by our impulse to watch we become an integral part of the equation of violence In the book s final section Freeing Ourselves of Our Obsession with Hatred and Violence Roy offers practical steps we can take as parents consumers and voters to free ourselves from linguistic and cultural complicity and to help create in America a culture of life The Moral of the Story Bobby Norfolk,Sherry Norfolk,2006 Throughout history traditional cultures have recognized the role of storytelling in teaching values to children This user friendly hands on guide to using storytelling and folktales in character education provides not only a rationale for this approach it includes stories These twelve stories are fun time and audience tested and accessible to a wide range of listeners from preschool to high school The tales are enhanced by suggested activities or informal lesson plans source notes and extensive bibliographies that point the reader to additional sources of folktales suitable for character education Book jacket Reaching Out Through Reading Carrie Sorby Duits,Adelle K. Dorman,1998-04-15 Build relationships between students and their community while encouraging the development of important life skills This resource helps you integrate service learning into your curriculum After defining service learning and connecting research to practical classroom applications the authors give you the tools to launch your own program Appropriate literature activities lists of suggested projects and more are included Grades 4 6

No More "Us" and "Them" Lesley Roessing,2012-06-07 It is imperative that teachers build community in their classrooms and across their academic teams and grades in order to make school a safe and supportive place for adolescents Teachers must help their students acknowledge that they belong to a group together that they are part of a we or us and that any differences divergent talents backgrounds experiences cultures and skills only make us stronger and better No More Us and

Them delineates what steps educators can take to create an atmosphere where adolescent students feel accepted included and valuable to themselves and to their peers The goal of this book is to change adolescent attitudes to lead to not just acceptance and tolerance but toward an expansion of us and respect for their classmates that will serve to spread an even wider net of respect This book provides ideas for lessons and activities that can be integrated into existing curricula and that meet a variety of content area standards in language arts social studies science mathematics foreign languages physical education art and music while also proposing ideas for advisory or homeroom periods and class team and grade gatherings to build respect in our classrooms our schools and our communities Young Men's Work Facilitator's Guides - Item 1751 , Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard,2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years Nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyoric women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author s shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works Lesbian and Gay Voices Frances A. Day,2000-06-30 With a foreword by Nancy Garden the highly acclaimed author of Young Adult Fiction this thoughtfully written annotated bibliography reviews picture books young adult fiction short stories nonfiction works and biographies for young readers Entries specify the age level appropriateness of each work as well as literary awards received for the work Each annotation is followed by a list of topics in the work which the user will find cross referenced in the topic index With additional recommendations on books for librarians educators and parents and a set of suggested guidelines for evaluating books this user friendly guide is valuable as both a reader resource and as collection development tool The guide also provides author profiles of selected writers who have made outstanding contributions to this field of literature This information is complemented by inspiring author quotes photographs and lists of their books categorized by age level appropriateness The up to date information on helpful resources for teens and their families found here along with a select bibliography and additional indices make this comprehensive guide a powerful and important reference tool for helping young gay and lesbian readers Black Like Us Devon Carbado,2011-11-01 Winner of the 2003 Lambda Literary Award for Fiction Anthology Showcasing the work of literary giants like Langston Hughes James Baldwin Audre Lorde Alice Walker and writers whom readers may be surprised to learn were in the life Black Like Us is the most comprehensive collection of fiction by African American lesbian gay and bisexual writers ever published From the Harlem Renaissance to the Great Migration of the Depression era from the postwar civil rights feminist and gay liberation movements to the unabashedly complex sexual explorations of the present day Black Like Us accomplishes a sweeping survey of 20th century literature
