The International Papers in Political Economy (IPPE) series explores the latest developments in political economy. The contributions range from an analysis of the international financial crisis of 2007-8 in general terms to an analysis of the same but concentrating on the emerging economies before turning to groups of economies (Arab, African, and Eastern European countries) and two relevant but individual countries (namely China and Turkey). This book offers students, scholars, researchers, and policy makers detailed analysis and informed commentary on the origins of the international financial crisis of 2007-8 and the great recession by focusing on its effect on emerging countries.
