Churchill, Master and Commander Anthony Tucker-Jones, 2021-11-25 Masterful research impeccable detail with a beautifully flowing narrative of which Churchill himself would have been proud Professor Peter Caddick Adams From his earliest days Winston Churchill was an extreme risk taker and he carried this into adulthood Today he is widely hailed as Britain's greatest wartime leader and politician Deep down though he was foremost a warlord Just like his ally Stalin and his arch enemies Hitler and Mussolini Churchill could not help himself and insisted on personally directing the strategic conduct of World War II For better or worse he insisted on being political master and military commander Again like his wartime contemporaries he had a habit of not heeding the advice of his generals The results of this were disasters in Norway North Africa Greece and Crete during 1940-41 His fruitless Dodecanese campaign in 1943 also ended in defeat Churchill's pig headedness over supporting the Italian campaign in defiance of the Riviera landings culminated in him threatening to resign and bring down the British Government Yet on occasions he got it just right his refusal to surrender in 1940 the British miracle at Dunkirk and victory in the Battle of Britain showed that he was a much needed decisive leader Nor did he shy away from difficult decisions such as the destruction of the French Fleet to prevent it falling into German hands and his subsequent war against Vichy France In this fascinating new book acclaimed historian Anthony Tucker Jones explores the record of Winston Churchill as a military commander assessing how the military experiences of his formative years shaped him for the difficult military decisions he took in office This book assesses his choices in some of the most controversial and high profile campaigns of World War II and how in high office his decision making was both right and wrong Pearl Harbor Amazing Facts Timothy B. Benford, 2001-05 Unique collection of odd unusual strange interesting facts and little known items vignettes anecdotes related to the Pearl Harbor attack Includes 40 warnings clues hints The most comprehensive collection ever of such material Entertaining and educational The Leatherneck, 1977 Radical Innocence Bernard F. Dick, 2021-08-24 On October 30 1947 the House Committee on Un American Activities concluded the first round of hearings on the alleged Communist infiltration of the motion picture industry Hollywood was ordered to clean its own house and ten witnesses who had refused to answer questions about their membership in the Screen Writers Guild and the Communist party eventually received contempt citations By 1950 the Hollywood Ten as they quickly became known which included writers directors and a producer were serving prison sentences ranging from six months to one year Since that time the members of the Hollywood Ten have been either dismissed as industry hacks or eulogized as Cold War martyrs but never have they been discussed in terms of their professions Radical Innocence A Critical Study of the Hollywood Ten is the first study to focus on the work of the Ten their short stories plays novels criticisms poems memoirs and of course their films Drawing on myriad sources including archival materials unpublished manuscripts black market scripts screenplay drafts letters and personal interviews Bernard F Dick describes the Ten s survival tactics during the blacklisting and analyzes the contributions of these ten individuals not only to film but also to the arts Radical Innocence captures the personality of each of the Ten including the arrogant Herbert J Biberman the witty Ring Lardner Jr the patriarchal Samuel Ornitz the compassionate Adrian Scott and the feisty Dalton Trumbo Spinning History Nathaniel Lande, 2017-03-21 In this fascinating new book bestselling author and historian Nathaniel Lande explores the Great War at the heart of the twentieth century through the prism of theater He presents the war as a drama that evolved and developed as it progressed a production staged and overseen by four contrasting masters Roosevelt Churchill Hitler and Stalin Each leader used all the tools at his disposal to present his own distinctive vision of the global drama that was the Second World War Each area of the media was fully exploited Brilliantly conceived oratory was applied to underscore each vision Impression management the art of political spin was employed to drive the message home with the careful use of black and white propaganda Each side employed uniforms meticulously staged events and broadcast their messages via all media available motion pictures radio broadcasts posters leaflets and beyond Their ambitions were similar but each leader had his own distinct methods his own carefully created script for elaborately produced and often wildly successful acts and campaigns of deception to win hearts and minds on the frontlines and the home front The result of this investigation is a wholly distinctive and often surprising work of history a book that manages to cast a fresh light on the most obsessively studied conflict in human history Time Briton Hadden, 1979 Fear Itself Melvin E. Matthews, Jr., 2009-07-15 This book demonstrates how horror films of the 1930s and 1940s reflected specific events and personalities of the era most notably the Great Depression and World War II Beginning with Dracula and Frankenstein 1931 it relates the many ways that horror films and society intersected Franklin D

Roosevelt's skepticism toward conventional wisdom and the public's distrust of experts was mirrored in Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Murders in the Rue Morgue the freaks in Tod Browning's 1932 film of the same name revolted against the powerful people of the circus much like the Bonus Army protested the sufferings of the Depression King Kong's rampage on New York personified the anti New York sentiment in the nation at large Lon Chaney Jr's Wolf Man symbolized the experience of his creator Curt Siodmak as a Jewish refugee from Nazi Germany World War II, 1939-1945 Tim McNeese,2010 alliance during World War II the icy journey of four Allied ships crossing the Arctic to deliver much needed supplies to the Soviet war effort On the fourth of July 1942 four Allied ships traversing the Arctic split from their decimated convoy to head further north into the ice field of the North Pole They were seeking safety from Nazi bombers and U boats in the perilous white maze of ice floes growlers and giant bergs Despite the many risks of their chosen route the four vessels had a better chance of reaching their destination than the rest of the remains of convoy PQ 17 The convoy had started as a fleet of thirty five cargo ships carrying 1 billion worth of war supplies to the Soviet port of Archangel the only help Roosevelt and Churchill had extended to Joseph Stalin to maintain their fragile alliance against Germany At the most dangerous point of the voyage the ships had received a startling order to scatter and had quickly become easy prey for the Nazis The crews of the four ships focused on their mission U S Navy Ensign Howard Carraway aboard the SS Troubadour was a farm boy from South Carolina and one of the many Americans for whom the convoy was a first taste of war from the Royal Navy Reserve Lt Leo Gradwell was given command of the HMT Ayrshire a British fishing trawler that had been converted into an antisubmarine vessel The twenty four hour Arctic daylight in midsummer gave them no respite from bombers or submarines and they all feared the giant German battleship Tirpitz nicknamed the Big Bad Wolf Icebergs were as dangerous as Nazis as the remnants of convoy PQ 17 tried to slip through the Arctic to deliver their cargo in one of the most dramatic escapes of World War II At Archangel they found a traumatized starving city and a disturbing preview of the Cold War ahead The A to Z of World War II

Anne Sharp Wells,2009-09-28 World War II dominates world history today as it dominated world attention over 60 years ago In spite of the alliances that bound many of the same participants the war was essentially two separate but simultaneous conflicts one involved Japan as the major antagonist and took place mostly in Asia and Pacific and the other initiated by Germany and Italy was contested mainly in Europe North Africa the Mediterranean and the Atlantic The A to Z of World War

II The War Against Japan traces the brutal conflict from Japan's seizure of Chinese territory in 1931 through the onset of war with the Western Allies in 1941 to the use of atomic weapons by the United States in 1945. It also addresses the aftermath of the war, including the formation of the United Nations and the American occupation of Japan. As the first of two volumes covering World War II, this volume concentrates on the war in Asia and the Pacific so the user benefits from the comprehensive explanations of the people, places, and events that shaped much of that region's 20th-century history.
