generation Even readers who know the basic story will find much that is new Newsweek In this powerful biography the middle volume of William Manchester's critically acclaimed trilogy Winston Churchill wages his defining campaign not against Hitler's war machine but against his own reluctant countrymen Manchester contends that even more than his leadership in combat Churchill's finest hour was the uphill battle against appeasement As Parliament received with jeers and scorn his warnings against the growing Nazi threat Churchill stood alone only to be vindicated by history as a beacon of hope amid the gathering storm Praise for The Last Lion Alone Manchester has such control over a huge and moving narrative such illumination of character that he can claim the considerable achievement of having assembled enough powerful evidence to support Isaiah Berlin's judgment of Churchill as the largest human being of our time The New Yorker Memorable San Francisco Chronicle Stirring As Manchester points out several times it's as if the age having produced a Hitler then summoned Churchill as the only figure equal to the task of vanquishing him The years Alone are the pivotal years of Churchill's career The Boston Sunday Globe A triumph equal in stature to the first volume of the series Newsday Vivid history in the grand manner The Washington Post Compelling reading The Times London Radical Innocence Bernard F. Dick, 2021-08-24 On October 30 1947 the House Committee on Un American Activities concluded the first round of hearings on the alleged Communist infiltration of the motion picture industry Hollywood was ordered to clean its own house and ten witnesses who had refused to answer questions about their membership in the Screen Writers Guild and the Communist party eventually received contempt citations By 1950 the Hollywood Ten as they quickly became known which included writers directors and a producer were serving prison sentences ranging from six months to one year Since that time the members of the Hollywood Ten have been either dismissed as industry hacks or eulogized as Cold War martyrs but never have they been discussed in terms of their professions Radical Innocence A Critical Study of the Hollywood Ten is the first study to focus on the work of the Ten their short stories plays novels criticisms poems memoirs and of course their films Drawing on myriad sources including archival materials unpublished manuscripts black market scripts screenplay drafts letters and personal interviews Bernard F. Dick describes the Ten's survival tactics during the blacklisting and analyzes the contributions of these ten individuals not only to film but also to the arts Radical Innocence captures the personality of each of the Ten including the arrogant Herbert J. Biberman the witty Ring Lardner Jr the patriarchal Samuel Ornitz the compassionate Adrian Scott and the feisty Dalton Trumbo Women Heroes of World War II Kathryn J. Atwood, 2011 Twenty six stories of women heroes from World War II New Books National Defense University. Library, 1985 Father of the Tuskegee Airmen, John C. Robinson Phillip Thomas Tucker, 2012-02-01 Across black America during the Golden Age of Aviation John C. Robinson was widely acclaimed as the long awaited black Lindbergh Robinson's fame which rivaled that of Joe Louis and Jesse Owens came primarily from his wartime role as the commander of the Imperial Ethiopian Air Force after Italy invaded Ethiopia in 1935 As the only African American who served during the war's entirety the Mississippi born

Robinson garnered widespread recognition sparking an interest in aviation for young black men and women Known as the Brown Condor of Ethiopia he provided a symbolic moral example to an entire generation of African Americans While white America remained isolationist Robinson fought on his own initiative against the march of fascism to protect Africa's only independent black nation Robinson's wartime role in Ethiopia made him America's foremost black aviator Robinson made other important contributions that predated the Italo Ethiopian War After graduating from Tuskegee Institute Robinson led the way in breaking racial barriers in Chicago becoming the first black student and teacher at one of the most prestigious aeronautical schools in the United States the Curtiss Wright Aeronautical School In May 1934 Robinson first planted the seed for the establishment of an aviation school at Tuskegee Institute While Robinson's involvement with Tuskegee was only a small part of his overall contribution to opening the door for blacks in aviation the success of the Tuskegee Airmen the first African American military aviators in the U S armed forces is one of the most recognized achievements in twentieth century African American history

World War II in Literature for Youth Patricia Hachten Wee, Robert James Wee, 2004 This comprehensive volume provides a wealth of information with annotated listings of more than 3 500 titles a broad sampling of books on the war years 1939 1945 Includes both fiction and nonfiction works about all aspects of the war Professional resources for educators aligned to the educational standards for social studies technical references periodicals and electronic resources a directory of WWII museums memorials and other institutions and topics for exploration complement this excellent library and classroom resource

The Good War's Greatest Hits Philip D. Beidler, 1998 The glow of 1945 persists as a kind of beacon for American society symbolic of an era when good and evil were easily defined This image is at the center of Philip D Beidler's entertaining look at the way World War II reshaped American popular culture The legend of the Good War was fostered by wartime propaganda and reinforced in the aftermath of victory through books the news media movies songs and television Beidler captures the aura of the times as he chronicles the production histories of more than a dozen projects with wartime themes examining how books and plays evolved into films how stars were considered and selected technical problems and personality conflicts during production and the public's reactions From the upbeat tempo of the musical South Pacific to the weary disillusionment of The Best Years of Our Lives from the patriotic nostalgia of Life's Picture History of World War II to the moral ambiguity of From Here to Eternity a powerful mythology of the war developed As a consequence the line between fact and fiction has blurred for the war generation and its inheritors and Hollywood's version of the Good War has become enshrined as historical fact in the nation's collective memory

Spinning History Nathaniel Lande, 2017-03-21 In this fascinating new book bestselling author and historian Nathaniel Lande explores the Great War at the heart of the twentieth century through the prism of theater He presents the war as a drama that evolved and developed as it progressed a production staged and overseen by four contrasting masters Roosevelt Churchill Hitler and Stalin Each leader used all the tools at his disposal to present his own distinctive vision of the global drama that was the Second World War Each area of the media was fully exploited Brilliantly conceived oratory was applied to underscore each vision Impression management the art of political spin was employed to drive the message home with the careful use of black and white propaganda Each side employed uniforms meticulously staged events and broadcast their messages via all media available motion pictures radio broadcasts posters leaflets and beyond Their ambitions were similar but each leader had his own distinct methods his own carefully created script for elaborately produced and often wildly successful acts and campaigns of deception to win hearts and minds on the frontlines and the home front The result of this investigation is a wholly distinctive and often surprising work of history a book that manages to cast a fresh light on the most obsessively studied conflict in human history

Indomitable Will Charles Kupfer, 2012-04-05 Some of the worst military disasters in U S history occurred between Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 and the Battle of Midway in June 1942 During this period the American people faced a barrage of bad news and accounts of defeats and retreats Yet if they were shocked and dismayed they showed little panic Indomitable Will resurrects the legacy of this first half year of American combat during WWII a legacy of pain but not of woe Historian Charles Kupfer recounts the story of the war's early defeats Bataan Corregidor Wake Island and the Java Sea Some of these battles remain evocative today others are obscure all were catastrophes for American arms Kupfer asserts however that later victories were made inevitable by the steeling effect of those initial disasters Weaving together military journalistic political and cultural histories this engaging book shows that by setting their collective will on victory Americans in and out of uniform gained strength from their setbacks Indomitable Will spells out how the nation turned early defeat into ultimate victory
