

LECTURE 4

ENTHONOMETHODOLOGY

By the end of this lecture, you should be able to:

1. State the basic tenets of Ethnomethodology
2. Discuss how the tenets can be used to analyze genres of oral literature
3. Use the principles of Ethnomethodology theory to analyze genres of literature

Ethnomethodology interest is in the study of everyday methods people use for the production of social order (Garfinkel, 2002). Its goal is to document the methods and practices through which society's members make sense of their lives and methods people use for understanding and producing the social order in which they live. It provides methods which have been used in ethnographic studies to produce account of people's methods for negotiation everyday situations.

-It studies how people use social interaction to maintain an ongoing sense of reality in a situation to gather data. Ethnomethodologist rely on conversation analysis and a set of techniques for systematically observing and recording what happens when people interact in natural setting (Francis, 2002: 123)

-Ethnomethodology produced a society that was focused on the examination of the everyday ways and the reality of their everyday ways and methods of sense-making to people as they produced the reality of their everyday existence (Hester and Francis, 1997)

-Ethno -methodologist's oppose view of the social world that reduce people to judgmental dopes (Garfinkel, 1967) or actors in a social world view (Macbeth, 2003)

The term ethnomethodology can be broken down into its three constituent parts: Ethno-method-ology.
