Democracy and Development R.C. Bhardwaj, K.

Vijayakrishnan,2018-10-26 Published in 1998 The question of whether democracy and development are allies or adversaries has long been debated and with the triumph of the democratic spirit worldwide the relationship between democracy and development has once again come to attract much attention globally The collapse of the Soviet Union and the developments in Eastern Europe led to considerable rethinking in political circles on the efficacy of the economic policies pursued in those countries and the long term viability of political systems prevalent there Elsewhere several newly industrialized countries are striving to consolidate their gains though there are differing perceptions of whether their politics conform to the classical framework of democracy or not In a remarkable turn around some other countries have initiated measures for economic reforms and structural adjustment setting aside their earlier approaches towards economic management In short the last decades of this millennium have witnessed meaningful efforts worldwide on forging a new partnership between democracy and development In February 1996 the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association jointly organized a conference entitled Parliamentary Democracy and Development Allies or Adversaries with the Wilton Park an international agency of the British Commonwealth and Foreign Office in Wilton House West Sussex United Kingdom The week long conference brought together parliamentarians diplomats administrators political scientists economists and specialists from all over the world The participants shared their views and experiences on diverse aspects of the main theme This publication presents an essentially parliamentary perspective on the correlation between democracy and development based on the discussions at the Wilton Park conference and in the light of current thinking on the subject matter Responding to Human Rights Violations, 1946-1999 Katarina Tomaševski,2021-10-05 This volume maps out the response of states to human rights violations It covers the period 1946 1999 and offers a complete and unmatched record for this period Its starting point is that such responses are not established and accepted state practice Traditional if unwritten norms of states behaviour developed through centuries of silence and inaction the prevalent reaction to human rights violations by another state remains the absence of any response Furthermore this book probes into evidence of active and passive complicity by reviewing aid to countries in which violations have been taking place and diplomatic initiatives undertaken to shield violators from public opprobrium Since international law is generated through state practice the book highlights the ongoing tussle between the pre 1946 heritage of silence and inaction and the 1946 1999 haphazard pattern of responses to violations The European Union and Developing Countries C. Cosgrove-Sacks,1999-05-17 This book examines the ways in which EU policies towards developing countries are changing in response to the new challenges of globalization and the end of the Cold War It analyses the patchwork of relationships between the fifteen Member States and more than 140 countries throughout Africa Asia Latin America and the Mediterranean Global Migrants, Global Refugees Aristide R. Zolberg,Peter M. Benda,2001 Includes statistics NGO Management Alan Fowler,Chiku Malunga,2020-09-23 The task environment of NGOs is changing rapidly and significantly making new demands on their management and leadership This Companion discusses the complexities involved It illustrates how NGOs can maintain performance and remain agile amidst increasing uncertainties These factors include the position of NGOs in civil society their involvement in governance and coping with the effects of the securitisation of international aid Complementing The Earthscan Reader in NGO Management selected contributions and specially commissioned pieces from NGO thought leaders and practitioners provide the reader with insights on the emerging thinking competences and practices needed for success in managing and leading tomorrow's NGOs Forum for Applied Research and Public Policy, 1997

Five Uneasy Pieces Mark Gibney, 2005 In Five Uneasy Pieces Mark Gibney offers an assessment of the role of the US in the wider world contrasting the policies that have been adopted with those that he argues would constitute a more ethically based relationship with other nations Strategies of Public Engagement David Gillies, 1997 Given declining budgets and flagging political support the environment for international co-operation in Canada and other industrial democracies has become exceptionally challenging A collection of essays by experts in the field Strategies of Public Engagement explores ways in which Canadian development organizations and non-governmental organizations NGOs can strengthen political and public support

Global Competition and EU Environmental Policy Jonathan Golub, 1998-03-19 Global Competition and EU Environmental Policy is the first book to examine the relationship between economic competitiveness and environmental protection in European Union policy A wide range of international case studies addresses key agreements and policies including those dealing with ozone layer protection pesticide exports shipping climate

Global Development 2.0 Lael Brainard, Derek Chollet, 2009-10-01 The fight against global poverty has quickly become one of the hottest tickets on the global agenda with rock stars world leaders and multibillionaires calling attention to the plight of the poor at international confabs such as the World Economic Forum and the Clinton Global Initiative The cozy all of a kind club of rich country officials who for decades dominated the development agenda has given way to a profusion of mega philanthropists celanthropists and super-charged advocacy networks vying to solve the world's toughest problems Supporting the development glitterati is a sizable rank and file made up of the mass public as evidenced by the abundance of Make Poverty History wristbands an Internet-enabled spike in charitable giving at all income levels and record involvement in overseas volunteering While philanthropic foundations and celebrity goodwill ambassadors have been part of the charitable landscape for many years the unprecedented explosion of development players heralds a new era of global action on poverty Global Development 2.0 celebrates this transformative trend within international aid and offers lessons to ensure that this wave of generosity yields lasting and widespread improvements to the lives and prospects of the world's poorest Contributors include Matthew Bishop Economist Joshua Busby University of Texas Austin J Gregory Dees Duke University Vinca LaFleur Vinca LaFleur Communications Homi Kharas Brookings Institution Ashok Khosla Development Alternatives Group Mark Kramer FSG Social Impact Advisors Jane Nelson Harvard University Joseph O'Keefe Brookings Institution Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala Brookings Institution Darrell M West Brown University and Simon Zadek AccountAbility

Futurevision Howard F. Didsbury, Jr.,1996 Futurevision represents a new stage in the evolution of near term research and speculation into the world of tomorrow This volume which brings together twenty five leading experts in a variety of social and scientific areas attempts to foresee likely harmful or undesirable results of advances in scientific and technological ingenuity In developing an early warning system designed to elicit prudent reflection and timely action futurism has now entered the mainstream of social thought The volume is divided into eight categories the future of work education management sustainability projections about the future decline or revitalization medical ethics and the global scene as such Among the major issues taken up are the threat of persistent technological unemployment in high tech societies approaches to teaching about the future new forms of specialization and speculation virtual learning in simulated contexts planning models in business and industry that permit rapid shifts changes in the economy that result from a move from a product to a service based economy patterns of innovation in agriculture using less space to feed more people and the general analysis of forecasting and predicting future events with present methodologies Futurevision aims to recast the basic fault lines of current social scientific and technological analysis The volume emphasizes long term perspectives future relevant research and thinking weapons analysis and warfare population and planetary exploration examining what constitutes significant knowledge in this new environment and the broad area of learning and caring in meaningful contexts There is a new seriousness in future research that will be appealing to students and teachers and researchers of sociology psychology and economics especially those working with current data and qualitative research techniques

Future Positive Michael Edwards,2013-06-17 An optimistic assessment of the prospects for a new international order acting as a counter blast to global pessimism The text explains how the international system operates the pressures it faces and the changes it must undergo and offers concrete ideas to re frame international relations foreign aid and humanitarian intervention without using jargon or simplistic judgements

Policy Coherence in Development Co-operation Jacques Forster,Olav Schram Stokke,2013-09-13 In the 1990s a shared conviction emerged among aid donors that their policies should be more coherent The drive towards increased policy coherence came as a response to a state of policy incoherence The shifting grounds of policy coherence in development co operation are outlined in this volume

The Right to Development and International Economic Law Isabella D Bunn,2012-03-01 The United Nations is commemorating the 25th anniversary of the 1986 Declaration on the Right to Development which proclaimed the right to be an inalienable human right by virtue of which every human person and all peoples are entitled to participate in contribute to and enjoy economic social cultural and political development in which all human rights and fundamental freedoms can be realized The UN now aims to mainstream the right into its policies and operational activities and is reviewing prospects for an internationally binding legal instrument The evolution of the right to development however has been dominated by debates about its conceptual validity and practical ramifications. It has been hailed as the cornerstone of the entire human rights system and criticized as a distracting ideological initiative. Questions also persist about the role of the right in reforming the international economic order. This book examines the legal and moral foundations of the right to development, addressing the major issues. It then considers the right to development in the global economy, noting the challenges of globalization and identifying key principles such as differential treatment of developing countries, participation and accountability. It relates the right to broad objectives such as the Millennium Development Goals, the human rights based approach to development and environmental sustainability. Implications for international economic law and policy in the areas of trade, development, finance and corporate responsibility are assessed. The conclusion looks to the legal and ethical contributions and limitations of the right to development in this new context. With an academic and professional background in international law, human rights and moral theology, the author brings a unique interdisciplinary focus to this timely project.

Visible Hands ; ; Unrisd, 2019-08-15. This volume is a compilation of a United Nations research institute for social development report for Geneva in 2000. It provides a comprehensive analysis of the progress to date, exploring efforts to reassert the value of equity and social cohesion in an increasingly individualistic world.
