find the information about the mine field of academia for women infuriating but the means of telling it highly entertaining Women account for more than half of all undergraduate students in the US and Canada yet they make up only 10 per cent of faculty members at the level of full professor What happens to women between freshman level the tenure track and the ensuing following professional years that keeps them out of the highest levels of academia Paula Caplan is herself a veteran of the academic career struggle and she sets out to explore this question with not only her own observations but also those of many women whom she has interviewed and with a strong backing of established research With these tools she provides a clear eyed assessment of what women who have embarked on an academic career and those who are considering it may expect Forewarned is forearmed and Caplan presents a list of the forms that the maleness of the environment take two of these are the conflict between professional and family responsibilities and sexual harassment In addition her book offers advice on practical techniques of how to prepare a curriculum vitae how to handle job interviews and how to apply for promotions and tenure A final chapter is a unique checklist which serves two purposes to provide guidance in a search for a woman positive institution and to give suggestions for ways individual women and women in groups can work to improve the situation at their own institutions Resources in Education ,1993 The Good Supervisor Gina Wisker,2012-07-16 This engaging book outlines effective strategies for supervising students on a wide variety of research projects whether at undergraduate or postgraduate level It covers each stage of the research journey and provides guidance on working with students to define research topics select appropriate methodologies write up theses and prepare for the viva It also supports supervisors in establishing and maintaining good supervisory practices and shows how supervisors can help students to help themselves This will be essential reading for supervisors of undergraduate or postgraduate research projects dissertations and theses It is also an ideal resource for student researchers looking to get the most out of their relationship with their supervisor New to this Edition New content on cross cultural supervision online distance supervision and sustaining research communities and networks Catalog of ERIC Clearinghouse Publications ,1995 Equal Rites, Unequal Outcomes Lilli S. Hornig,2012-12-06 Thirteen years ago in June 1988 the Radcliffe Class of 1953 celebrated its 35th Reunion Amidst the festivities we who participated repeatedly asked ourselves the same two questions Is Harvard as sexist as it was when we were undergraduates If not what is the status of women at Harvard today To find the answers we formed an ad hoc committee and charged the members to report back to the class in five years The committee interviewed selected senior and junior Harvard faculty Harvard and Radcliffe administrators students and alumni We identified and studied Harvard and Radcliffe reports on their institutions and on their student organizations We contributed to and participated in a 1990 Radcliffe Focus Group A Survey of Alumnae and Undergraduate Perceptions We found that the University was not as sexist in 1988 as it had been in 1953 Yet the status of women though improved remained quite unequal to that of men Radcliffe College was organizationally separate from Harvard University until 1977 when a non merger merger was implemented However

Radcliffe had no faculty of its own and employed Harvard faculty to teach its students in strictly separate classes until World War II. The merger effort was completed in 1999 with the complete integration of the two institutions and the formation of the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study a tab on its own bottom like other Harvard graduate and professional schools. In 1993 the Class of 53 voted unanimously to form the Committee for the Equality of Women at Harvard CEWH. Faculty Stress David R. Buckholdt, Gale E. Black Women in the Academy Sheila T. Gregory, 1999 This revised and updated edition of Black Women in the Academy adds updated data on the status of Black faculty women a forty four page bibliography and a new chapter on the status of international faculty women from twenty different countries to the only study of the decisions of African American women to remain in return to or voluntarily leave the academy. Sheila Gregory creates a conceptual framework from economic psychosocial and job satisfaction theories to construct a model to explain the factors that affect the decision patterns influencing career mobility. She uses a survey of the members of the Association of Black Women in Higher Education to illustrate to what degree the designated variables predict decision patterns. Gregory's analysis focuses on the women who remained in the academy noting that those who did remain were usually successful high achievers who managed to overcome numerous obstacles involving career and family. The author also provides an outline detailing how to attract and retain talented Black women scholars along with possible interventions that might help interinstitutional mobility. Gendered Futures in Higher Education Becky Ropers-Huilman, 2003-02-27 Identifies gender issues affecting students faculty and leaders in higher education applying critical perspectives to suggest needed change. Research Anthology on Empowering Marginalized Communities and Mitigating Racism and Discrimination Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-02-05 With the newly inaugurated US Presidential Administration signing several orders to
