Indian Broadcasting H.R Luthra, This book is an effort towards a readable story of broadcasting by catching some of the flavours of the various stages of its growth Uprising: The Liberation of Dadra and Nagar Haveli Neelesh Kulkarni, 2024 In 1954 in the small town of Silvassa wind blows through desolate streets Doors are bolted for the first time windows shuttered The town is silent except for the soft persistent patter of August rain The only movement is that of a group of outsiders gathering stealthily around the barricaded Silvassa police post their faces grim A man raises his hand to signal the others it is time Uprising chronicles a remarkable yet often overlooked chapter of Indian history A few years after the country became independent ordinary civilians rose up against the extortionist and cruel colonial stragglers entrenched in the villages of Dadra and Nagar Haveli the Portuguese With the new Indian prime minister Jawaharlal Nehru unwilling to strain nascent diplomatic bonds it was up to a few brave men and women to take matters into their own hands The odds were not good the Portuguese were armed to the teeth and outnumbered them heavily It was an extraordinary coalition that took them on Lata Mangeshkar and Mohammed Rafi helped raise funds through a concert volunteers from the Azad Gomantak Dal the RSS and radical communists collaborated with the local tribal population to launch attacks in Silvassa Naroli Pipariya Khanvel and other places in an effort to drive the Portuguese out once and for all Through interviews with descendants of the participants and a handful of participants themselves newspaper archival records letters and diary entries Neelesh Kulkarni
