Reason Relativism And God Joseph Runzo,1986-05-19 World Views and Perceiving God Joseph Runzo,1994-01-12 This collection of essays presents a systematic analysis of some of the foremost issues in the philosophy of religion The focus is on the epistemology of religion the most significant area of recent interest in the field After developing a religious epistemology in the first half of the book that epistemology is both further expanded and explicitly applied to salient issues in the contemporary discussion The central question throughout the essays is how our world views affect our perception especially our perception of God The first essays set out a general epistemology of perception The next two sets of essays build upon this in assessing the cognitive value of religious experience and analyzing the proper epistemic foundations for belief in God Then in view of the role of faith developed in those essays the final essays address the dual challenges to traditional theism of theological non realism and of religious pluralism The Ocean of God Roland Faber,2019-06-29 The Ocean of God conveys the proposition that the future of religions if they will not want to contribute to the destruction of humanity will become transreligious Based on the assumption that the spiritual impulse of humanity cannot simply be eradicated religiosity will persist in transreligious forms as secularizations naturalizations and transhumanist dreams only envision such transformations but fall short in their ability to replace the force of spirituality to further civilized peace of human existence on Earth and its future in evolutionary ecological and cosmological dimensions In relating the contributions of religious pluralism to the concept of the unity of religions which have arisen in this new axial age for overcoming the checkered history of religions in furthering peace the program of a polyphilic pluralism with its transreligious discourse based on the insight of the fundamental relativity of religious truth and the special contributions of process philosophy and theology as well as the Bah universe of thought analyses and projects a new religiosity or spirit enabling religions to overcome their deepest motives of strife and warfare God-Relationships With and Without God J Kellenberger,2016-01-01 God and Realism Peter Byrne,2017-07-05 Peter Byrne s study of God and realism offers a critical survey of issues surrounding the realist interpretation of theism and theology Byrne presents a general argument for interpreting the intent of talk about God in a realist fashion and argues that judging the intent of theistic discourse should be the primary object of concern in the philosophy of religion He considers a number of important ideas and thinkers supporting global anti realism and finds them all wanting After the refutation of global anti realism Byrne considers a number of important arguments in favour of the notion that there is something specific to talk about God which invites an anti realist interpretation of it Here he looks at verificationism the writings of Don Cupitt forms of radical feminist theory and the ideas of D Z Phillips The book concludes with a discussion of whether theology as a discursive academic discipline can be interpreted realistically Offering a comprehensive survey of the topic and of the leading literature in the field this book presents key arguments for exploring issues brought to bear upon the realism debate Students and scholars of philosophy of religion philosophy of language
