Recent Ceramics An Exhibition From Australia:

Recent Ceramics, 1979 Building the Collection National Gallery of Australia, Pauline Green, 2003 Australia's national art collection largely took shape in the short period between the late 1960s when the National Gallery project received the official go ahead from government and the building's opening in 1982. Published 20 years after that opening, these essays tell how the various collections came into being and continue to evolve. Authors include the Gallery's first three directors James Mollison, Betty Churcher, and Brian Kennedy, while other participants close to the collections' formations provide commentary and stories as varied, insightful, and interesting as the collections themselves. A Potter's Pilgrimage Milton Moon, 2010 Milton Moon's pilgrimage has taken him from beginnings at a small pottery in Brisbane across the world in search of creative influence and innovative technique. His work has reinvented the ceramic arts in Australia and inspired generations of potters.

Wood-fired Ceramics Coll. Minogue, Robert Sanderson, 2000-03-08 This book describes the development of the main types of wood-fired kilns used by today's potters. Contemporary Ceramic Art in Australia and New Zealand Janet Mansfield, 1995 Contemporary ceramic art in Australia and New Zealand. Clay Statements Bruce Anderson, John Hoare, 1985. Mediterranean Collections in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand Candace Richards, Elizabeth Minchin, 2025-04-04 This volume brings together academics and museum professionals responsible for ancient Mediterranean collections across Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand to report on their collections' legacies and their ongoing value for research, education, and community engagement in the twenty-first century. An introductory chapter offers an overview of the themes that unite these Mediterranean collections: their colonial legacies, their more recent history, and the network of scholars who have fostered their development. Subsequent chapters offer thematic case studies from the perspective of curators, museum professionals, educators, and researchers working with collections across Australasia. They explore several themes, including museum archaeology, provenance studies, pedagogy, and participatory programming and engagement, and they address two issues that are of interest to everyone who engages with museum collections today: restitution and the ethical management and display of human remains. Taken together, these contributions situate the region's collections on a global scale, highlighting their continued relevance in the present and for the future. The volume includes a distribution guide to all known ancient Mediterranean collections in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand, a much-needed resource for students, provenance researchers, and museum professionals. This volume will be of interest to researchers in Mediterranean archaeology and related disciplines, to museum studies scholars and postgraduate students, and to a general audience. Australian national bibliography, 1961. Recent Ceramics Janet Mansfield, 1979-01-01 These slides are a selection of quality ceramics chosen to represent Australia in the first ceramics exhibition to tour Europe. Gerry Wedd Mark Thomson, Gerry Wedd, 2008 When I first came across Mambo I remember looking at the wall of T-shirt designs at the breadth and wit of the drawing there and thought why would they ever use mine.
