Commerce, Consumer, and Monetary Affairs Subcommittee,1981 The Federal Trade Commission Robert V. Larabee,2020-03-11 This annotated bibliography assists the reader in locating information about the United States Federal Trade Commission The book is divided into four chapters each reflecting the major functions and regulatory responsibilities of the FTC The Law Firm and the Public Good Robert A. Katzmann,2010-12-01 What can law firms do to ensure justice for all How can they serve the needs of those unable to pay How can law firms improve the quality of life for their lawyers At a time when government support for legal aid is limited and under fire when recent U S presidents have urged increased volunteerism when the American Bar Association s Law Firm Pro Bono Challenge is under way and when some within the legal profession have called for mandatory pro bono work this new book examines these important questions The Law Firm and the Public Good blends academic scholarship with real world experience as it brings together lawyers who have wrestled with the pressures of everyday practice Concerned about deepening the commitment of large law firms to the wider community the authors seek to provide a blueprint for firms concerned with creating developing implementing and evaluating pro bono programs Moving beyond the ethical arguments which justify a law firm s commitment to community service the authors argue that pro bono work is in the firm s self interest They show that a heightened concern with the public good can improve a lawyer s spirit sharpen lawyering skills and enhance the humanistic traditions of law practice They conclude that professional responsibility and self interest support the same conclusion that the law firm and the public good are inextricably linked and that each can draw strength from the other in ways that nourish both The contributors are William A Bradford Jr Hogan Senior Circuit Judge Frank M Coffin U S Court of Appeals for the First Circuit Anthony F Earley Jr Detroit Edison Marc Galanter University of Wisconsin Madison Donald W Hoagland Davis Graham William C Kelly Jr Latham Esther F Lardent director of the ABA s Law Firm Pro Bono Project Edwin L Noel Armstrong Teasdale Schlafly Thomas Palay University of Wisconsin Madison J The Federal Civil Service System and the Problem of Bureaucracy Ronald N. The Causes and Consequences of Antitrust Fred S. McChesney, William F. Shughart, 1995-03-15

Why has antitrust legislation not lived up to its promise of promoting free market competition and protecting consumers

Assessing 100 years of antitrust policy in the United States this book shows that while the antitrust laws claim to serve the public good they are as vulnerable to the influence of special interest groups as are agricultural welfare or health care policies

Presenting classic studies and new empirical research the authors explain how antitrust caters to self serving business interests at the expense of the consumer

The Economics of Industrial Organization William G. Shepherd, Joanna M. Shepherd, 2003-09-19

The study of industrial organization extends to the core of some of the most important questions of economics

Who controls markets and profits from them

Does competition or monopoly result in a more beneficial economy

How can the economic playing field become fairer or more biased in either direction

Throughout the fields history various clashing schools of thought have attempted to sort through these complex issues examining both abstract theory and real life cases

The Fifth Edition of this widely used highly regarded text includes coverage of dramatic changes in the field

Shepherd and Shepherd provide broad balanced coverage of topics without showing preference to any single point of view encouraging readers to think independently

This emphasis on independent judgment is evident throughout the book with discussion of structure placed before performance to assist the reader in thinking about causation

Topics are organized for maximum flexibility with distinct chapters covering case studies antitrust and regulation policy and capital markets

Winner of the 1989 D B Hardeman Prize given by the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library for the best book on Congress in the twentieth century Better Living through Economics John J. Siegfried, 2012-03-05 This book consists of 12 case studies from building the foundation for eliminating the military draft in 1973 to implementing the Pension Reform Act in 2006 that demonstrate how economic research has improved economic and social conditions over the past half century by influencing public policy decisions Regulating Land and Pollution in China Benjamin van Rooij, 2006 Annotation Many of China's rivers and lakes are strongly polluted the air in cities is amongst the worst in the world while some have warned that if the country is not careful it may soon have insufficient arable land to feed its population This book looks at why the protection of natural resources through stricter legislation and more stringent law enforcement has been so difficult It does so through a combination of a local case with comparative and theoretical insights about lawmaking compliance and enforcement It offers a unique view on how law functions in the world's largest legal system and how such law interacts with the social economic and political circumstances at hand This book offers an incomparable body of empirical and theoretical knowledge for those interested in how law functions in China as well as those interested in the workings of regulatory lawmaking compliance and enforcement in a comparative perspective This title can be previewed in Google Books <http://books.google.com/books/vid/ISBN9789087280130> International Bibliography of Social Science International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation, 1984-03-15 First published in 1984 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Internationalization, Market Power and Consumer Welfare Yves Bourdet, 2024-10-01 In the years prior to this book being originally published in 1992 the study of industrial economics had been dominated by the USA While there was a fund of theoretical and empirical knowledge relating to the US experience this is not always relevant in the context of Europe With its considerable national market the USA developed competition policies that differ from those in the smaller economies of European countries This collection of essays looks at the market behaviour of an economy more open to international competition The industrial organization of Sweden provides the ideal representation of smaller economies that can be applied to the other economies of western Europe The contributors apply different analytical approaches to assess direct and indirect forms of market power Some papers draw on econometric cross sectional models exploring the scope of market power and the role of international competition Others look at specific markets investigating the formation of market power its costs to consumers and the role of lobbying groups and the political sphere case studies include the domestic car white goods pharmaceutical goods food textile and air transport markets The book also contains papers that examine the role of competition policy towards restrictive practices and mergers in curbing market power and promoting economic efficiency This book will be of interest to those studying industrial economics and international business and marketing Antitrust Policy and Interest-Group Politics William F. Shughart, 1990-04-09 This groundbreaking study is the first to apply an analytical model derived from the interest group theory of regulation to the study of antitrust law and policy The application of this model which stresses that government intervention in the economy will always benefit some political groups at the expense of others to the analysis of antitrust enables Shughart both to identify important trends in the antitrust arena and demonstrate which groups have benefited most from antitrust legislation His analysis clearly shows that consumer welfare is often not enhanced by antitrust suits or legislation Rather well organized private interest groups have tended to benefit more even in cases where consumer welfare is the stated goal of legislation or policy Divided into three sections the volume begins by discussing normative and positive theories of antitrust The author provides an overview of the origins of antitrust law and policy and introduces the interest group theory of government The second section explores the various private interests that impinge on antitrust policy the business community the antitrust bureaucracy Congress the judiciary and the antitrust bar Finally Shughart examines the political economy of antitrust He shows how antitrust can be used to subvert competition and offers suggestions for reform in the realm of interest group politics Students of economics and business as well as professional economists corporate lawyers legislators and business consultants will find important new insights into the direction taken by antitrust policy during the last few decades
