Setting European Community Priorities 1991 9:

International Economic Policy in the 1990s William R. Cline, 1994 These eight lectures by noted economist William Cline provide a clear and concise account of some of the most important macroeconomic issues facing the world economy Designed for the nonspecialist but a source of fresh insight for the specialist as well the lectures synthesize the major trends in international economic policy for the 1990s Major themes include domestic and international economic stagnation adjustment to external imbalances trade policy including case studies of Japan and NAFTA the debt crisis reform in former communist states the economic future of Europe and environmental policy Cline who has made important contributions to the topics addressed reviews the forces that have contributed to policy problems and then evaluates the prospects for resolution He shows how an understanding of economics can help break down many policy problems into simple fundamentals and how empirical evidence is the acid test of any policy theory Cline's coverage of many of today's hot public policy issues is unique both in its accessibility and in its broadbrush approach to a set of concerns of immediate interest to economists policymakers and others concerned with international economic policy Europe and the Recognition of New States in Yugoslavia Richard Caplan, 2005-09-01

Europe's recognition of new states in Yugoslavia remains one of the most controversial episodes in the Yugoslav crisis Richard Caplan offers a detailed narrative of events exploring the highly assertive role that Germany played in the episode the reputedly catastrophic consequences of recognition for Bosnia Herzegovina in particular and the radical departure from customary state practice represented by the EC's use of political criteria as the basis of recognition The book examines the strategic logic and consequences of the EC's actions but also explores the wider implications offering insights into European security policy at the end of the Cold War the relationship of international law to international relations and the management of ethnic conflict The significance of this book extends well beyond Yugoslavia as policymakers continue to wrestle with the challenges posed by violent conflict associated with state fragmentation Monetary and Exchange Rate Arrangements for Nafta Mr. Tamim Bayoumi, Mr. Barry J.

Eichengreen, 1993-03-01 This paper considers the extent to which the North American Free Trade Area NAFTA meets the criteria for a common currency area NAFTA is compared with the EC a regional grouping for which initial plans for a monetary union are already in place Most of the anticipated benefits from a monetary union in the EC apply with equal force to NAFTA However because the underlying disturbances are more diverse across members of NAFTA the costs of abandoning the exchange rate instrument are likely to be higher This is particularly true when NAFTA is compared to the EC's continental core A Green Dimension for the European Community David Judge, 2014-03-05 First Published in 1993

A Green Dimension for the European Community is a collection of nine essays from a range of contributors separated into two parts political issues and processes The theme discusses the idea that the introduction of the Single Market marks a particularly appropriate time to consider the political issues and processes affecting environmental policy in the European Community EC The contributors argue that at such a time and in the face of such threats an understanding of the green dimension of the EC is more than an academic exercise This title concludes with a comprehensive index The Emerging European Union David Michael Wood,Birol A. Yeşilada,2007 Praised for its writing style organization and attention to historical detail this thoroughly updated Fourth Edition presents students with a comprehensive analysis of the history framework and agenda of the European Union Raising a variety of important issues this text focuses on the uniqueness of the European Union as an organization and helps students to critically consider its future The Intergovernmental Conference on Political Union Finn Laursen,Sophie Vanhoonacker,2023-12-11 The radical changes taking place in the international scene during the late 1980s have presented the European Communities with important new challenges The twelve Member States agreed that the only way to respond effectively to this new situation was to speed up the European integration process and in December 1990 two Intergovernmental Conferences were inaugurated focusing respectively on the development of an Economic and Monetary Union and a Political Union It was the difficult task of the Luxembourg and Dutch Presidencies to channel the often very diverging positions of the different actors in the process into one coherent set of amendments to the Treaties forming the European Communities This publication examines the positions which the different Member States the Commission and the European Parliament have been defending in the Intergovernmental Conference on Political Union and more particularly with regard to one of the most sensitive topics under discussion namely the development of a Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP The introduction places the debate on the development of a Political Union and a CFSP in an historical perspective and gives an overview of the progression of the negotiations The concluding chapter presents a general framework for better understanding of the course and results of the negotiations and a critical evaluation of the outcome The annexes reproduce the main proposals on the development of a CFSP submitted to the Conference European Community Law Josephine Shaw,1993 International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch,1992 The Federal Republic of Germany at Forty-Five Peter H. Merkl,2016-07-27 This five year review of the changing political scene in West Germany stresses interpretations and perspectives of sympathetic outside observers Given the dramatic unification of the country and its painful aftermath the emphasis is on the changing elements of German identity and on postunification problems Today s emerging perspectives are seen simultaneously in their domestic including East West German and in their international context with regard to Germany s role in Europe and the world European Responses to Globalization and Financial Market Integration A. Verdun,2000-02-17 This book investigates the perceptions of political actors towards the creation of Economic and Monetary Union EMU in Europe The research is largely based on personal interviews conducted with key informants in central banks finance ministries employers organizations and trade unions in Britain France and Germany It examines why actors perceived EMU to serve or frustrate their interests It concludes that actors favoured EMU for a variety of reasons The book contributes to the literature of European integration and incorporates economic political and historical facts The Economics of European Integration Willem Molle, 2017-03-27 Through four previous editions The Economics of European Integration by Willem Molle has established itself as a preferred textbook for students of the economics of the EU as well as a reliable reference work for those with a professional interest in the European Union Carefully revised this fifth edition takes into account changes in course requirements new statistical information and recent policy developments It includes new material on the ongoing integration of the New Member States and the new forms of association with accession countries in Central and Eastern Europe the implementation of the Monetary Union and the performance of the euro the EU experience as a guide for the economic integration of other regions and for the improvement of world economic governance Written in a clear style and combining original insights with authoritative analysis this new edition will further enhance the book's reputation for providing the ideal introduction to the economics of the European Union IMF Working Paper, 1993

A History of the University in Europe: Volume 4, Universities since 1945 Walter Rüegg, 2010-12-16 This is the final volume in a four part series covering the development of the university in Europe east and west from its origins to the present day focusing on a number of major themes viewed from a European perspective The originality of the series lies in its comparative interdisciplinary collaborative and transnational nature It deals also with the content of what was taught at the universities but its main purpose is an appreciation of the role and structures of the universities as seen against a backdrop of changing conditions ideas and values This volume deals with the reconstruction and epoch making expansion of higher education after 1945 which led to the triumph of modern science It traces the development of the relationship between universities and national states teachers and students their ambitions and political activities Special attention is paid to fundamental changes in the content of teaching at the universities

Foreign Ministries in the European Union B. Hocking, D. Spence, 2016-07-02 What role if any does the foreign ministry perform in contemporary world politics Is the argument that it is in a state of terminal decline accurate or rooted in only partial understandings of its changing character Foreign Ministries in the European Union explores this theme in the context of the EU where foreign ministry has played a key role in the development of integration but where its role is increasingly questioned The contributors examine the foreign ministry in thirteen member states and draw conclusions that challenge some conventional wisdoms The Governance of Sustainable Rural Renewal Rory Shand, 2016-06-10 This book examines examples of rural regeneration projects through the public administration lens analysing how governance arrangements in rural settings work In particular the author focusses on the role of communities business and tiers of governance local regional national and supra national in terms of delivery and funding By drawing on a range of case studies from the UK US Australia and South Africa the book identifies best practice in governance applicable to both academic conceptual debates and to practitioners engaged in real world governance of regeneration While there are substantial political science sociology and geography debates within the existing academic literature around food security fair trade urban rural divides and supply chains little has been written on the way in which governance in comparative global case study settings operates in achieving or underpinning rural renewal programmes Through the inclusion of dedicated sections in each chapter summarising both the links between academic debate and practice this book will be of great interest to researchers and policy makers in the field of rural development and environmental politics and governance in general Poverty Today: Index to Issues 01-27 (December 1987-April 1995) ,
