Mrs Hollingsworths Men:

Mrs. Hollingsworth's Men Padgett Powell, 2002 At her kitchen table somewhere in the South Powell's narrator embarks on a spirited and often hilarious imagining of certain historical figures and current national preoccupations Ostensibly writing her grocery list Mrs Hollingsworth most happily loses her sense of herself The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource People and Things from the Blount County, Alabama, Blount County Journal 1909 - 1918 Robin Sterling, 2015-04-26 The Blount County Journal published in Oneonta from 1909 to 1918 Compared to other Blount County papers the Journal was only a small blip on the journalistic radar in Blount County However it is an often overlooked and untapped source of great genealogical and historical knowledge While some of the articles mirror those published in its contemporary publications often the Journal captured other obituaries and news missed by the Democrat Most of the original copies of the Journal were found in the court house in Oneonta These were reviewed for notices of births marriages obituaries and interesting news items Missing issues from the court house were reviewed at the State Archives in Montgomery This book will add to the body of knowledge of Blount County Alabama and will serve as a useful tool for area genealogists and historians American Illustrated Magazine, 1927 Crazy from the Heat Jay L. MacDonald, 2023-03-31 What makes Dave Barry funny Stephen King scary Tami Hoag heartbreaking All readily admit that where they live greatly influences what they write Indeed for both writers and readers geography may well be destiny when it comes to fiction Novelists often borrow from their surroundings consciously or subconsciously to create their imaginative worlds just as we readers are drawn to those works that transport us to more exciting and inspiring locales be it Hemingway's Havana Faulkner's Yoknapatawpha County or McMurtry's Lonesome Dove LIFE, 1954-03-29 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Passion's Prize Kitchie, 2008-11-26 Set against the anarchy of the Civil War this novel tells the story of the raven-haired beauty Lynora Hollingsworth daughter of a wealthy plantation owner an aspiring young artist who spends one wild enchanting evening in the arms of a stranger but plans to spend the rest of her life in a marriage that has the approval of her family However when her fiancé rapes her she decides to strike out on her own rather than subject herself or the child she has discovered she is carrying to this man's cruelty Rene Michael

DuClaire gambler and notorious rake to whom she flees for asylum is also the handsome stranger to whom she has given her heart When he surmises her condition and realizes he is the father he marries her against her will It is a stormy relationship exacerbated by the onslaught of the Civil War a conflict over which all characters must make some tough decisions regarding their own comfort and their consciences There are various subplots in the story One of them deals with the rejected suitors espionage for the Union army and reveals his sinister nature in his desire for revenge Another has to do with an Underground Railroad system in Louisiana and a third deals with the drama of the Civil War itself on the people it touched in the swampy city of New Orleans and surrounding area The scenes that relate to the war have been researched and are essentially factual including the shipyard strike all battle scenes and even the explosion of the powder plant in Gretna The captains majors and generals were all real people involved in the war at the places described Only the lieutenants and privates are fictional
