The analyses presented are supported by a broad range of economic and environmental data and lead to recommendations for further environmental and sustainable development progress.

OECD website This reviews progress since 1994 when the previous environmental performance review was published. Among the priority concerns are urban air pollution, soil and water management, waste management, nature and landscape conservation, climate change, transport management and protection of coastal and the marine environment. Among a number of recommendations: Italy will need to i) improve its environmental infrastructure, ii) integrate further environmental concerns into economic and social decisions, and iii) reinforce its international environmental co-operation.

OECD Environmental Performance Reviews. Norway Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. OECD., 1993

OECD Environmental Performance Reviews Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 2005 The need to manage pollution, natural resources and biodiversity in France continues to be a major challenge. The report highlights the effectiveness of French environmental policy but also focuses on the need for better integration of environmental concerns into sectors such as energy, transport and agriculture. The review puts forward 49 recommendations including a review of taxation policy from an environmental perspective, the reduction of damage caused by excessive use of nitrates and pesticides in agriculture, the reduction of the energy intensity of the economy, the implementation of measures planned to combat climate change, the integration of environmental concerns into the energy, transport and agriculture sectors, better enforcement of the legislation on mountain areas, coasts and landscapes, and of the EU habitats and birds directives at both the national and local level.

OECD Environmental Performance Reviews: Czech Republic 2005 OECD, 2005-10-11 This book presents the results of a peer review of the Czech Republic's environmental policies and programmes. It covers environmental management of air, water and waste, sustainable development and international co-operation.
